BENTON'S CORNER 1902

Dear People, I wish to thank those who have favored me with their confidence and business, however great or small, during the year 1901. I trust that our relations have been such that I can with reasonable confidence expect you to visit the basement office, under Kreek Bros. store, when in need of any thing in my line during the coming year. As in the past, any business entrusted to me will have prompt and careful attention.

Insurance.

In the matter of Fire Insurance I have had a splendid business during 1901, now have the farm agency of the Continental Fire Insurance Co., of New York, or Holt county in towns where there is no resident agent. Also the Connecticut Fire Insurance Co., of Hartford, and the German, of Freeport, Ill., for commercial and residence insurance. All good and reliable. None better anywhere.

Real Estate.

Considering that this is an old settled and a very conservative community not given to buying Gold Bricks or paying $1 for 50c, yet my real estate business has been good. Remember that I am still in the business. Call if you want to buy or sell.

Farm Loans.

In this line my business greatly increased. Besides an unlimited supply of 5 per cent eastern money with a small commission I have secured the agency for a lot of Holt county 6 per cent money. So let me know your needs in this line.

Bureau of Information.

But as you might expect this varied business has increased my correspondence and other work in the office until late hours will not answer the purpose longer. I must have assistance or quit some lines of business. Hence I decided to employ a clerk and also to establish a Bureau of Information, something that I have long had in mind. I hardly ever go away from home without some one asking where they can buy or sell a good milk cow, or a horse, team, stock hogs etc. etc. To illustrate, I have right now two good work horses about 9 & 10 years old, work in all harness, gentle for women and sound for sale. Also three milk cows and an order for a good work and brood mare not over 6 years old and about 1200 pounds weight. Just for farm and breeding purposes, but she must be sound and a fine nag. Now our aim is to list property for the seller letting him give his own description and price of same and then sign it. The buyer comes down and looks at this, finds what he wants and knows right where to go without wasting any time hunting. Again, a young man wants a job on the farm, he leaves his name, references where he last worked, etc., and the farmer will soon find him. The same way in regard to girls wanting work in a family. I charge the seller a small fee whether its labor or stock. This matter is not worked out in detail yet, but you have the idea, I trust. Hereafter you will find Miss Grace Crowell, a young lady of good ability and a ready pen, in my office—make known to her your wants in my presence and she will report to me. Be sure to do this.

Yours for business for 1902,

R. C. BENTON,

OREGON, MISSOURI.

—The ladies of the Christian church have some nice aprons for sale. Call at Mrs. Petree's, second door south of Sterrett's opera house, and see them.

—Mrs. Sayles, west side of square, third door south of postoffice, will be prepared to take boarders during court week, commencing next Monday, January 7th.

—We understand that Mrs. Alice Maple has bought the W. B. Davis property now occupied by Joe. H. Graham, for $1,500, and has sold her residence property to Alex. VanBuskirk for $1,000.

—If your eyes ache or pain you after reading, or the print seems to run together and blur, consult Dr. Hanna, expert optician at J. C. Philbrick Drug Co., from this date until Tuesday evening, January 7th.

—Henry Holtgreve has purchased the George Reed farm of 77 acres, one and a half miles west of Oregon, paying $3,250. We congratulate Henry on securing this fine fruit farm, and wish him all the success imaginable.

—D. D. Carr, confectioner, keeps the Wanks' fresh milk and rye bread, receiving fresh daily from St. Joseph. Oysters served in any style, and hot and cold lunches at reasonable hours. First door east of the Schulte hardware store Phone 41.

—The sale of personal property belonging to the estate of Thomas Hamm, deceased, will be sold at public auction on the Andy Hamm farm, half mile northwest of New Point, on Thursday, January 9th, by Charles E. Meyer, the administrator.

—Dr. Bert G. Pierce has put in a dental chair in the dental office of Dr. Luken and is now ready to serve those needing his services in dentistry. He is a Holt county boy, a graduate and is every way reliable. He will visit Corning on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week, January 7, 8, 9, 1902.

—Much was expected of Dr. Quayle, but expectation, however high, was more than satisfied. For an hour and a half the enrapt audience hung upon his lips as though spell bound. Dr. Quayle has not been surpassed in his matchless oratory.—Cincinnati Commercial. At the M. E. church this city, January 17, 1902.

—Davy Young is having his stock of carriages reduced, but not with his consent. Davy is now running a livery business in St. Joseph, and on New Year's eve a party of young people hired a surrey and went out for a ride. They were out but a little while when a street car collided with the rig, completely demolishing it and killing one of the horses. The occupants were only slightly injured.

—Some of our feeders are still losing their cattle by turning them on the stalk fields. The loss seems to be the heaviest in Bigelow and Minton townships. In addition to the losses heretofore published, we would add the following: Stephen Cunningham, 28; Sam Kahn, 16; John C. Hinkle, 17; E. A. Brown, 13; J. F. Bridgeman, 6; D. D. Perkins, 6; Hank Jones, 8. We have read that one pint of salt dissolved in warm water, with three spoonfuls of turpentine is a sure cure. The recipe is cheap and there is no harm to try it. Ramsay & Mahan, southeast of Oregon, have lost ten head.

Watch St. Louis.

The Greatest World's Fair the world has ever seen will be held at St. Louis in 1903. To keep in touch with the work of preparation for this great World's Fair and to get all the news of all the Earth, every reading person should at once subscribe for the great newspaper of St. Louis, the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT. It stands pre-eminent and acknowledges no equal or rival. Its circulation extends to every state and territory of the Union, to Canada and Mexico, and to every part of the World where there are readers of the English language. It ought to be in your home during the coming year. See advertisement elsewhere in this issue. THE SENTINEL and Weekly Globe for one year, $2.00

Oak Grove.

—Louis Dick had two fine cows to die last week.

—John Fancher and family are entertaining two of his sisters.

—Miss Maggie Smith, of Fairfax, is visiting Miss Mollie Fancher.

—Mrs. Nancy Sipes visited with Mrs. Lizzie Cooksey, last Tuesday.

—Little Master Dewey Cooksey, who was exposed to the whooping cough, has passed the danger period, and it is to be hoped that he will not be exposed again, for exposures of any kind are dangerous.

—Our school, after a few days vacation, is now in full blast again, with George Schulte at the helm. All of the pupils are wearing bright smiles, as they like their teacher, and are taking great interest in the work. The enrollment is 46.

PLUNKET.

Forbes.

—Watch meeting was held Tuesday night at the church.

—Mrs. Hodgins is visiting relatives at New Point, this week.

—A grand time is reported from the Baker Christmas tree.

—Jim Harper is trying to kill a car load of rabbits, for the St. Joseph market.

—Rush Murray was seen shaking hands with friends on our streets, last week.

—Mrs. Dr. Walker and Mrs. Lark were visiting friends in Amazonia, last Friday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ellis have been spending the holidays with friends at Tarkio and Watson.

—After a week's vacation, the school bell is heard ringing, calling the children to their part of duty.

—Forbes can now boast of a most excellent Sunday school and an Epworth League. The attendance for the past two months has been increasing wonderfully—visitors are always welcome, still more room at the top.

—Regardless of the inclement weather our church was at a very early hour Xmas eve, full to overflowing, to witness a most excellent program prepared for the occasion. The children rendered their parts exceedingly well, and should be highly praised for their earnest efforts to make it a success, to say nothing of the musical and literary feature, it was well worth the time and trouble to come for miles through the mud and wet to look upon the most gorgeously decorated church ever before witnessed in our city, C. M. Pierce being the decorator.

MEYER-LOUCKS.

At the home of the bride's parents, Wednesday evening, Dec 25, 1901, Mr. Lewis Meyer and Miss Emma Loucks were united in marriage. The wedding was a quiet affair, only about fifty of the immediate relatives and friends being present.

At 6:30 p. m. the wedding march was played by Miss Cora Gibson, and the bride and groom entered, taking a position at the east end of the parlor. The bride was attired in white albatross gown. The groom was faultlessly dressed in black. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bagley, of Maitland. After the ceremony, the guests partook of a sumptuous repast, prepared by Miss Ketring, of Mound City. The table was tastefully decorated.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Loucks, and beloved by all who know her, for her kind and affectionate disposition. The groom is a successful farmer, whose honesty is appreciated by all. The newly married couple were the recipients of many useful and valuable presents, given by their friends. After the ceremony, the bridal party departed for Bigelow, where they took the train for Riverton, Iowa. Upon their return they will reside at their home, about eight miles north of Oregon. The many friends unite in wishing the young couple much joy and prosperity as they journey along life's pathway. W. L. B.

Mr. Glenn D. Ware and Miss Myrtle McCarty, both of Quitman, were married at the Hotel Woodland on Friday of last week, December 27th, by Elder W. T. Maupin.

We are reliably informed that Elder T. B. Dry, of this city, was married in Palmyra, Mo., yesterday, Christmas. He and his bride are expected in Maitland, Jan. 3d. The Herald with many others in extending best wishes.—Maitland Herald.

Albert O. Williams, our county superintendent of schools, and Miss Ethel Angles were united in marriage at the bride's home in Warrensburg, Mo., on Sunday of last week, December 22, 1901. The couple have returned to our county where they have gone to housekeeping on the Hanna farm near the Lincoln school, which the groom is teaching. Our congratulations and may their home be the abiding place of a goodly number of angels—in due time.

Tennie Vandeventer and Miss Mary Harrison, two of Mound City's young people, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harrison, on Christmas day, by Esquire J. H. Steele.

Emery Goldsberry and Miss Stella Murphy were married at the bride's home in Liberty township, Christmas day, by Rev. T. A. Windsor, of Craig.

On Tuesday evening, December 24, 1901, Mr. Dow Hutton and Miss Ora Brinegar, were united in marriage by Elder Gresham at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thompson, Union township. Both the contracting parties are quite popular in their neighborhood.

Married, at the M. E. parsonage, Oregon, Mo., January 1st, 1902, Mr. Thomas Bunker, of Fortescue, and Miss Amanda Freeman, of Bigelow, Rev. Henry Crampton officiating.

An Ideal Newspaper.

The New York Tribune comes pretty near being an ideal newspaper—Clean without being dull, enterprising without being sensational, and as fair and accurate as human foresight and care can make it. The Tribune Farmer is, as its name implies, devoted to the interests of farmers and their families. It is meant to be their friend, adviser and helper in the fullest meaning of the words, by bringing to them all the available facts and information calculated to aid them. And special care is taken to provide interesting matter for the women and young folks. THE SENTINEL and Tribune Farmer both for one year for 1.75.

"The Best Is The Cheapest."

Not low cheap, but low good, is the question.

The Twice-A-Week Republic is not as cheap as are some so-called newspapers. But it is as cheap as it is possible to sell a first-class newspaper. It prints all the news that is worth printing. If you read it all the year round, you are posted on all the important and interesting affairs of the world. It is the best and most reliable newspaper that money and brains can procure—and those should be the distinguishing traits of the newspaper that is designed to be read by all members of the family.

Subscription price, $1 a year. Any newsdealer, newspaper or postmaster will receive your subscription, or you may mail it direct to
