—We are always glad to hear of the success of our former Holt county boys, and nothing gives us more pleasure than to hear of the success of W. H., son of Tillman N. Land, who is still at Mount Home, Idaho, where he has been for several years past in the mercantile business. He has charge of the grocery department in a general merchandise establishment that employs 14 clerks. While the town is not so large to population, he says it is a great business center; the firm in whose employ he is has a capital of $50,000 invested. The town has three extensive general merchandise stores, one bank, a 90-room hotel, fine school, three churches, three livery stables, blacksmith shops, restaurants, etc. It is a great stock country, and especially sheep—there are thousands of them and they have one large warehouse in which was handled over 1,000,000 pounds of wool last year. Game of all kinds is plenty from the rabbit to the mountain lion. He says he has had steady employment with the present firm for the past five years; is greatly pleased with the country, and desires to be remembered to his old Holt county friends through THE SENTINEL, which he takes great pleasure in reading weekly.

—We are sorry to learn that Judge H. L. Ward, of Craig, has decided to leave this county to engage in mercantile business in Pawnee City, Nebr. He has been a resident of our county since 1874. He served on our county bench from 1880 to 1893 and made a most excellent county judge. Why, with his goodly amount of this world's goods, and his advanced years, he should desire to go to other fields is beyond our comprehension. He is certainly able to retire and take life easy, and we believe that is just what he should, and stay in old Holt county, to enjoy those declining years. The sun does not shine on better soil, or a better people, than is to be found in Holt county. Stay where you are, Judge.
