

NATIONAL REGISTERED FRENCH DRAFT HORSE.

My Pedigree at Barn.

Stallion Robino.

Stallion Robino (6915), section B, imported August, 1903, by Bell Bros., Wooster, O.; color black, foaled February 16, 1899, and bred by M. Cetu Lens, France, and was bought by the Oregon and Forest City Draft Horse Association April 7, 1904.

Robino stands 16½ hands high, weight 1750 pounds, good bone, fine action, fine style, and has been pronounced by all who have seen him as being the finest Draft Horse ever seen or brought into this section of country.

Robino will make the season Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays at Gelvin's barn, Forest City, Mo.; Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at Gelvin's barn, Oregon, Mo.

Terms and Conditions:—$15 to insure living colt or $10 for the season, due July 1, 1905. Mare and colt will be held for insurance money. Money will become immediately due and payable when mare is parted with, sold or removed from the county. Care will not be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.

Respectfully,

The Draft Horse Association
Of Oregon and Forest City, Mo.

Black Jumbo.

Register No. 1422.

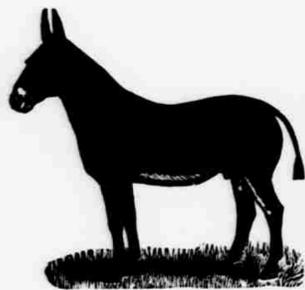

DESCRIPTION.

Black Jumbo is a large Percheron Stallion, foaled May 15, 1900; 16½ hands high; weighs 1700. He is heavy boned, well formed, splendid style, good action, good breeder.

TERMS:—Will make the season of 1905 at $100 to insure living colt.

The above horse will make the season at my farm, five miles east of Oregon, on the state road. Mare and colt will be held for service fees. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.

Black Hawk.

Register No. 809.

DESCRIPTION.

Black hawk, light points, foaled spring 1899, 15½ hands, weighs 1000 pounds. He is very heavy bodied, good breast, very wide in rump, good head and ears, good style and action, heavy boned, very large feet, stands up well and is a good breeder. This jack is very smooth.

Black Hawk will make the season at the same barn and the same terms as the above horse. Season fees $10.00.

Call at barn for certificates of registry. Come and see this stuff and be your own judge.

SHERLOCK HOLMES AGAIN.

A New Series of Detective Stories in the Kansas City Star.

Conan Doyle's detective stories, with the marvelous Sherlock Holmes as their hero, have achieved the greatest success of recent years. Appreciating this fact the publisher of Collier's Weekly, New York, induced Mr. Doyle to write a final series of the great detective's adventures. Repeated refusals were followed by increased inducements, and finally Mr. Doyle agreed to write 13 stories for $45,000, or about 60 cents a word. The entire correspondence was by cable. The amount paid by Collier's is the largest ever paid for such work and does not include the right to publish the stories in book form. By special arrangement with Collier's, these famous stories are being printed in the Kansas City Star, one story each week, beginning in the daily edition, Saturday, February 11, and in the Weekly, Wednesday, February 15. None of the present popular features of The Star will be cut down or omitted to make room for the remarkable set of stories. Practically the contents of a $1.50 book will be added to the contents of The Star, in three months, without any increase of the subscription price, 10 cents a week for The Daily Star (morning evening and Sunday, 13 complete papers a week), and 25 cents a year for The Weekly Star.

Another Big Land Opening.

Osage reservation contains about 1,600,000 acres. If this immense area was allotted, with one white man on each quarter-section, it would give a 10,000 increase to the population of Oklahoma. These figures, however, are the lowest estimate. When the reservation is finally opened there will be from three to five white people to every quarter-section, which means an addition at least of 30,000 or 40,000 people. Today there are only about 2,000 Indians and 6,000 whites in the Osage reservation. Within a couple of years from now that reservation will probably be one of the liveliest and most populous corners of the territory, for there is no opposition to the allotment bill, which will be put to a vote at the next session of congress.

The Osage reservation is in Oklahoma and not in Indian Territory. The white people in it will be free from bureaucratic oppression. From the start their rights will be protected by a territorial governor, legislature and delegate in congress. The red tape and whimsical ideas of government which have delayed the development of Indian Territory will not affect the Osage reservation. Mr. Bird S. McGuire, who has taken the allotment plan in hand, has declared that it will be his chief concern to look out for white men. His object will be to see that bona-fide settlers get their farms or town lots without unreasonable restrictions, delays or prices. Along with justice to the Indian will be a square deal for the paleface.

With a sensible process of allotment promptly and honestly managed, the Osage reservation ought to fill up as freely as the Cherokee strip or the Kiowa and Comanche country. This method has been promised with every assurance of performance. So it is now time for all who want a cheap home in a land of fine opportunities to study carefully the situation in the Osage reservation and prepare for the advance and boom a year or two from now. In this connection it should be noted that the reservation could be opened without the need of a special allotment law. Mr. McGuire, as a safeguard against delay, inserted a clause in the Indian appropriation bill just passed providing that the president might open and allot the lands of any Indian tribe whose members in his judgment were ready for such action. So President Roosevelt could, if he chose, open the Osage reservation tomorrow.—Kansas City Journal.

The Southern Pacific Railway company is credited with the intention of trying a new type of engine. It is said to have ordered the building of a loco motive in which crude oil will be used, not by burning it to generate steam, but explosively, after vaporizing the fluid. With power furnished in this manner, the story goes, a speed of 100 miles an hour is anticipated. Furthermore the engine would have no use for water, and would make no stops for a fresh supply of that commodity, and it is ascertained that enough petroleum could be carried for a continuous run of 3,000 miles, or across the entire continent.

Major Warner, on being called upon at his home Monday, by a delegation of friends, is quoted as saying: "My principal joy on this felicitous occasion," observed the mayor, "is the thought that my wife is out of danger after the long and serious illness and the enthusiasm of my little newsboy friends whom I meet on the streets. They run up to me, shake my hand and say they are glad. I tell you it is nice to receive congratulations from the president, senators and friends, but it makes me feel good to have the newsboys tell me they are glad."

By legislation enacted at the last congress, Missouri has received $475,198. This is in payment of a state claim, pure and simple, and no individual will share in it, but all the people of the state will benefit from it. It is in reimbursement to the state for interest paid on securities issued to raise money for the support of Missouri's volunteers and militia during the civil war. It is fortunate for the people of our state that we now have a set of officials who will not blow it in and then issue a certificate of indebtedness for the amount and call upon the tax payers to dig up 6 per cent interest annually on the amount.

The trusts and other combinations are doing all they can to create a national sentiment in favor of public ownership in spite of the natural hostility in this country for socialistic doctrines. The executives of the law may intervene and make general public ownership of utilities unnecessary. It is devoutly to be desired that they shall. But the country has set itself absolutely, for one proprietary proposition. Henceforth it is for public ownership of United States senators. That's why the election of Major William Warner suits the people so well.

Luckey Charley.

700 Vol. 11, A. C. B. S. B.

Luckey Charley will make the season of 1905 at my farm, 5½ miles east of Oregon, on the state road.

Description and Pedigree.

Sire—Louck's All, (1114) by Louck's All (797), by C rdinal (562), by Emulator (577) Dam by Favorite (581), by King George (240), by Rainbow (385), by Dart, (714), by Rainbow (834), by Dart (712). Second Dam by Brilliant (991), by Gatton Lad (916), by Wonderful Lad (914), by Cleveland Lad (90), by Cleveland (897), by Champion (694), by Summer Cook (879), by Skyrocket (862). Third Dam by Felix (1050), by Moss Trooper (1125), by Napoleon (214), by Sportsman (233), by North Star (534), by Golden Hercules (484), by Quaker, (537). Took first at Illinois State Fair at Peoria, and second at St. Louis, Mo.

Luckey Charley is certainly one of the best horses sent out; he is admired by everyone for his fine style, easy, graceful action and smooth build; he stands full 16½ hands and weighs 1400 pounds. His color is the richest of deep bays, with clean, flat, corry, black legs and good feet; his shoulders, back, head and neck are all the most critical could desire.

TERMS:—Luckey Charley will serve mares at $100 to insure living colt. When mare is parted with or removed from original locality, money for service becomes due at once. A lien on mare and foal will be held for insurance money. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.

The Smooth Jack

GIANT

will make the season at the same place as Luckey Charley.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE:—Bred by L. A. Davis, N. Alt. n, Kentucky; was foaled 1896. Giant was sired by Napoleon, he by Peacock, he by imported Napoleon, Napoleon's (Kitty) by Stonewall; second dam by Safford D. Talbert's jack, and he by Eperon jack that sold for $1,300. Giant's dam, Miss Berry by Dudley Reid's jack. Giant is about 16 hands high, black with mousy nose, smooth as a 14 hand high jack; stands on his feet as good as a horse; has plenty of bone and weighs about 1,100 pounds; has fine style and action.

TERMS:—Giant will serve mares at $10 to insure living colt. When mare is parted with or removed from original locality, money for service becomes due at once. A lien on mare and foal will be held for insurance money. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.

The Great Central South?

OF INNUMERABLE OPPORTUNITIES FOR YOUNG MEN OR OLD ONES—TO GROW RICH?

Do you want to know about rich farming lands, fertile, well located, on a Trunk Line Railroad, which will produce two, three and four crops from the same field each year, and which can be purchased at very low prices and on easy terms? About stock-raising, where the extreme of winter feeding is but six or eight weeks? Of places where truck-growing and fruit-raising yield enormous returns each year? Of a land where you can live out of doors every day in the year? Of opportunities for establishing profitable manufacturing industries? Of rich mineral locations, and splendid business openings?

If you want to know the details of any or all of these, write me. I will gladly advise you fully and truthfully.

A Practical, Helpful Farm Paper.

To the Editor of the Tribune Farmer.

Sir: Again I greatly appreciate the fact that I can come to you for advice. I would wish that all the farmers fully estimated the value of The New-York Tribune Farmer. It appears to me a choice periodical of its kind, rich in all its departments, but especially so in all that pertains to veterinary science. I have been a subscriber and reader of quite a long list of agricultural papers, but to me The New York Tribune Farmer brings more real, practical, helpful assistance than any I have ever read. There may be others as good, or better, papers for the farmer, but I have failed to discover them as yet. Yours very truly,
