ODD BITS ABOUT TIGERS.

Easy and Independent Life of the Big Cats Near the City of Amoy, China.

Amoy is an island city on the China coast, near Formosa. There are mountains west of Amoy and according to a correspondent there are tigers in them. "These tigers lead an easy and independent life in the caves and dens which abound. They come out of these every evening just as the shadows creep over the land and the blue mists rise from the lower ground and hide the hills. Then the inhabitants get within their houses and keep the doors between them and these savage brutes. Many a poor woman, coming with water from the well, or a farmer, delayed too long in the fields, has fallen victim to them. The nights are spent by tigers in foraging and the foxes and wildcats that roam the hills and the dogs in the villages become their prey.

"There is nothing, however, that gives the tiger such supreme delight as the capture of a good-sized pig. They are truly Chinese in their tastes in this respect. One of these animals will go at a steady trot with a dead pig thrown over its back up the sides of steep hills, jumping over huge bowlders and taking cross cuts over the most inaccessible ground. The physical strength of a tiger is something enormous, and its capacity for devouring large quantities of food is scarcely less amazing."

REASON FOR WANTING RAIN

Singular Yet Sufficient Cause for Longing of a Georgia Mountaineer.

According to the Brooklyn Eagle Rev. Mr. Livingston, of Georgia, told this story:

"A friend of mine down in one of the small towns of Georgia has many proteges among the people in the mountain country near. Several years ago there was a long dry spell in Georgia. At about the beginning of it the wife of one of the mountaineers died. The disconsolate husband followed her to the grave and was the last to leave the burying ground. His footprints remained large and distinct, in the clay beside the grave. Six weeks afterward my friend drove out to see how the widower was doing. He was sitting in the door of his cabin, staring hopelessly at the clouded sky.

"'Ef hit would turn in an' rain,' he said, 'I wouldn't ask nothin' of nobody.' "The dry weather is bad for the crops," the visitor remarked.

"'Tain't crops," said the widower, "hit's Miss Selly Jones. She swears she won't marry me till it rains.

"She 'lows it wouldn't be showing proper respect for my first wife to marry before my tracks in the graveyard is washed out. I shors do wish it would turn in an' rain. I been courtin' her six weeks. Good Lord, a man can't wait on the weather forever."

THE DARKY'S DISTINCTION.

Knew the Difference Between Legislators and Men Who Gave Him Tips.

A traveling man who "makes" Kansas City frequently was dining in the cafe of one of the large hotels one day when he thought he'd play a trick on his waiter. "Se that man at the next table, George?" he said.

The waiter nodded assent. "That's Dr. Alonzo Tubbs, the Missouri legislator, who is trying to stop all tipping." The waiter grew interested at once.

"Well, ain't dat too bad," he said. "Ah's been waitin' on him, too."

"Well, you won't get any tip there," said the traveling man.

"Ah suttinly treated him right," replied the traveling man.

A few minutes later the man at the other table left and the waiter returned to the traveling man. "Well," said the drummer, "what did I tell you?"

"'Xcuse me, sah, but Ah thinks you tole me or fabrication," said the waiter, grinning. "Dat man ain't a legislatah—he's a gentleman."

The man had given him a quarter.

Reindeer Express.

The capacity of the reindeer for team work is remarkable. His hoofs are very broad and do not penetrate the snow crusts. He will swiftly draw a sled carrying 600 pounds, and with this load can cover 30, 50 and even 90 miles a day. The reindeer teams now carry the mails from Kotzebue to Point Barrow, a distance of 650 miles—the most northernly post route in the world. No food is carried for the deer. At the end of the journey, or at any stopping places, he is turned loose and at once breaks through the snow to the white moss, which serves as food. It costs nothing to feed him. As the white settlements increase in the mineral bearing parts of Alaska, and in many places remote from railway and steamboat transportation, the reindeer express will be one of the most important factors in territorial life.—Southern Workman.

Secret of Balming.

The sarcophagi of ancient Egypt seem to have at length given up their great secret, hitherto supposed to have been unobtainable as the sphinx itself—that of embalming. Mr. Berthelot, permanent secretary of the Louvre museum, as the result of long analytical examination of the oils and unguents which have resisted the action of time in tombs of the fifth and sixth dynasties, dating back 3,500 years, demonstrated that the oil was simply castor oil as is still used in Egypt to-day, while oxidation has produced effects analogous to those resulting from the action of nitric acid on fatty matters such as have been observed in oils of the ancient monuments of Rheims.—London Globe.

The Thoroughbred Saddle Stallion, On-Time. DESCRIPTION: On-Time is a fine bright bay and weighs about 1200 pounds. He will be allowed to serve a limited number of mares at my barn three miles east of Oregon, Mo., for the season of 1905.

PEDIGREE.—On-Time by Old On-Time, and he by Stonewall Jackson. First Dam by Belshazzar; second by Frank, Thoroughbred. On-Time, Jr., is out of Jenny Lind; she by Sir Wallace and Jenny's dam was a Thoroughbred race mare and sired by Joe Brown, an imported race horse. Jenny's grand dam was Sir Albion. On-Time is eligible to register.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS.—$8.00 to insure living colt. If mare is traded or parted with, sold or removed from original locality, money for service becomes due and payable at once. A lien on mare and foal will be held for insurance money. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.

The Belgian Draft Stallion, ROMEO. Romeo will make the present season at my farm three miles northeast of Oregon, with the fine saddle, "On Time" and the two splendid Jacks, Dick Johnson and Zollicoffer.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE: Romeo is an imported Belgian Draft. Romeo is a fine horse with good bone and fine top; is black in color with small star in forehead; stands 16 hands high and weighs 1700 pounds. He is a perfect specimen of the Draft horse, splendid walker and trotter; good length, great breadth and good feet. It will pay you to see him before breeding your mares.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS: $8 to insure colt to stand and suck. When mare is parted with or removed from original locality, money for service becomes due at once. A lien on mare and foal will be held for insurance money. Care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.

Celebrated Jacks, Zollicoffer and Dick Johnson. They will make the season of 1905 at the same place as the stallion "On Time." DESCRIPTIONS AND PEDIGRES: Zollicoffer is a dark brown, 16 hands high and weighs 1000 pounds. Dick Johnson will be allowed to serve a limited number of mares. He is black with white points, 16 hands high; and weighs 1000 pounds. TERMS AND CONDITIONS: $8 to insure a colt by Zollicoffer, and $10 by Dick Johnson, conditions being the same as On-Time. Do not bring your mares on Sunday, for I will positively not do any business on that day.

THE CHILDREN'S VILLAGE.

Outcome of Splendid Work for Neglected Children in New York City.

On April 16 an event of peculiar and significant interest occurred in New York—the farewell service of the New York juvenile asylum.

The asylum, states Youth's Companion, was founded in 1851, and in the half-century and more of its existence 29,000 neglected children have been cared for within its walls. It is a noble record. What it has meant to the city of New York and to the whole country no human calculation can ever measure. In a message sent to it four years ago, President Roosevelt wrote: "I want to tell you that some of the highest and best men I know, in professional, commercial and public life, have come from your institution and others like it."

Yet magnificent though their work has been, the age of the great asylums is passing, and their disappearance reveals the deepened insight of modern philanthropy. Half a century ago an institution that fed and clothed neglected children, that cared for them when they were ill and equipped them in some fashion to earn their own living, was regarded as giving them all that the largest demand could require. Those great rights of childhood, freedom, opportunity for individual development, above all, the need of "mothering," few had considered, and none supposed attainable for these forlorn waifs of life.

Yet these are precisely the things which the larger charity of the day is making beautifully possible. The removal from the Juvenile Asylum of New York to the Children's Village of Dobb's Ferry is one step in the process. Instead of huge, unhome-like buildings, there are cottages, each with its own garden, its own family circle; above all—name of blessed promise—its own house-mother. So at last the little lonely ones of earth are entering their kingdom.

ORIGIN OF SOME SLANG.

According to the Statement of an Imaginative Genius Which Sounds Reasonable.

"Here's where I butt in," said the goat, making for the children, according to the New York Sun.

"I'm getting it in the neck," grumbled the bull, as Ursus gave him another twist.

"Come off your perch," growled tabby, making another spring at the cage.

"I'm in the soup," gasped the oyster, as he dropped to the bottom of the plate.

"You're a bird," said the fox, as he gobbled up another hen.

"Don't try to string me," said the rattler to the black snake, coiling himself into a plumbline.

"It's a lead pipe cinch," said the rat, gnawing his way through another piece of pipe.

"I've got the drop on you," shrieked the hawk, as he landed on another chicken.

"Things are coming my way," said the bear, dodging another bullet.

"My goose is cooked," said the wild gander, dropping to the ground with a broken wing.

"Quit your kidding," exclaimed the fish, as the bait dropped into the water.

"Those fellows are nutty," said the rabbit, pointing to the squirrel family eating lunch.

"Stuck again," cried the fly, alighting on the sticky paper.

"I can see my finish," murmured the lamb as he entered the slaughter pen.

PREFER NIGHT TRAVEL.

The Arizona Republican says the hogs were corn fed and exceptionally fat. They were started for town during the day, but by the time they reached a point a little less than a mile from home many of them were unable to continue the journey, and the march was stopped. During the cool of the evening they were taken back home.

A hog is a foolish thing, and in going a few miles many frequently take unnecessary steps, thus making the distance much longer than it really is. This partly accounts for their becoming so hot such a short way from their starting point. They were allowed to spend the night at home, but the next night the trail was taken up again.

This time after dark, or rather after sundown, for it was almost as light as day, from the moon. The hogs seemed to be delighted with the new order of things, and the way they capered to town was a caution. It was almost all the drivers could do to keep up with them. They gave no trouble whatever and reached the shipping yards in fine shape.

Caustic Comment. "Your old friend Barnes former made his debut in vaudeville last night," said the first actor.

"Yes, it was a monologue, wasn't it?" asked the other.

"Not exactly. He intended it to be, but the audience chimed in with a few choice remarks before it got fairly started."—Philadelphia Ledger.

When Philosophers Meet. "What's the difference between being married an' bein' in jail?" asked the Pothick philosopher.

"There's a heap o' difference," replied the sage of Plunkville. "A man in jail kin git some time off fer good behavior."—Chicago Sun.

The Euroka Stock Farm Stud Announcement for 1905

Kruger, No. 1447, Lawrenzius, No. 1937, and the standard bred horse, Algernon B. No. 36853, will make the season of 1905 at my breeding barn, 4 1/2 miles northeast of Oregon, Mo. These horses are proved breeders—we have the goods to show for it.

These horses are too well known for me to make any speech to you. The Colt Show of last fall talked louder than I could talk. In that show you could see how the German Coach Horse crossed on both road and draft mares. They are the best horses to cross on all classes of mares there are in the country.

She Standard Bred Horse is all that could be combined in one horse. He has size and quality and breeding. For further particulars call at barn. Pedigree in full.

TERMS.—$15.00 to insure living colt. $8.00 for season. Mare and colt held for service fee. Money is due when mare is sold or parted with.

I also have some of the best White Plymouth Rock Chickens in the land. Eggs $1.50 and $2.00 per 15.
