

—It pays to trade at C. W. King's. Try it.

—Miss Ida Markt is visiting her brother, John and family in Barada, Nebraska.

—Miss Kate Greene of this city, who is teaching the Hoge school, is giving the best of satisfaction.

—Sweet Pickles, the kind you pay 10c per dozen for you can find at C. W. King's for 10c per quart.

—The Holt County poultry show and Corn Carnival will be held at Mound City, December 17-21. The program list is in course of preparation.

—Associate Will Fitzmaurice, who has been dangerously sick at his home in Forest City, with pneumonia, is, we are glad to learn, now considered out of danger.

—There will be a "Box-Supper" and festival at the Bluff City school house, Monday evening, Nov. 26. Everybody expected to bring a box. All are cordially invited to attend.

—We are informed that Will B. Hinde has accepted a position in a drug store at Greenwood Springs, Colo. We wish Will success, for there is not a better pharmacist in the country than Will is.

—The recent Farmers' Institute held at Maitland, according to the Herald, was one of the most interesting ever held, and of great benefit. It regrets, however, that the attendance was so small.

—Bert Mann, formerly of Union township, now of Oklahoma, is here visiting relatives and friends. His wife is a daughter of Judge Van Wormer, of Craig. He is looking well, and seems pleased with that country.

—Mrs. E. A. Roselius in company with her two daughters and little son, left Thursday last for the Sunny South, where they will remain for several weeks. They will visit with the family of W. E. Jarrett before returning home.

—The will of Pless M. Paschall, whose death occurred some two weeks ago, was filed for probate on Tuesday of last week. Will Zachary and Mell Brumbaugh are named as executors, and the will disposes of some $30,000 worth of property.

—Robert Montgomery has greatly improved his residence property, by putting up a handsome porch the entire length of the frontage. It is such an improvement, and will doubtless be enjoyed by him and wife, especially in the "good old summer time."

—Charley Smith and Tom Hines, of Upper Holt, have returned from their trip to Virginia, where they took 52 head of Western horses in October. They got rid of their stock, and came back about even, but Charley says, he is satisfied, because he is convinced that Holt county, after all, is a darned good place to stay in.

—Last week, Clarence Fullerton, of Mound City, was committed to jail, charged with having committed an assault on Ruth Haynes, the eight year old daughter of Rev. Haynes, of Mound City. Fullerton is about 30 years old, has been married, and his wife obtained a divorce from him in our circuit court about a year ago. He will have a hearing before John H. Steele, J. P., Wednesday, Nov. 27th.

—An after card has reached us announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. L. Hart, the wedding having occurred November 8th, the fortunate young man being Francis Marion Reed, Jr., and they will be home at Afton, I. T., after January 1st. The bride is a Holt county production, having spent her barefooted days in Maitland, and of course her many friends up this way will sincerely wish for her a long and beautiful life—and none will be more sincere in their wishes than The Old Sentinel. These occasions are the forceful reminder of how swiftly the sands of the glass are passing, for it seems so short a time when she was but a little bit of girl—Ethel, dear, may God ever be with you.

—Eppa Cropp, now in the railway mail service on the Chariton Branch, from St. Joseph to Des Moines, Ia., is forging to the front as one of the best men in the service, and on the 12th of this month took an examination in St. Joseph, throwing 1,484 cards in 59 minutes, a little more than 25 cards per minute, and out of the bunch only made seven errors, throws. We are proud of Eppa, for we claim him as a Holt county boy, and which he comes mighty near being. He was born in Platte county, this state, but when a small child removed to Helwig with his parents, his father having died several years ago, but his mother, Mrs. Emma Cropp still resides there, and for a long time Eppa was engaged in the mercantile business there. Here's to you, Eppa.

—Thursday next will be Thanksgiving Day, and while we have much to be thankful for, there is no class of people who have more to be thankful for than the average farmer of today—especially the farmer who has been placed on the rural free delivery route. As a class there is no more obliging and accommodating class of men than the rural free delivery carrier of Holt county—they are alive to their every duty, and it matters not what the conditions of the weather may be, they are out over their routes delivering their mail, and fulfilling their duties in the highest sense. Patrons of the routes, as evidence of your thankfulness for this great blessing that has come to you, and appreciation of the services of these men, remember them on next Wednesday as they make their rounds; to have at your box for them, a sack of corn or something of a like substantial character. They will not forget it, and down in their hearts will be a deep sense of gratitude for your kindly remembrance. Who extends to you so many little acts of kindness during the year?—this package is taken to you, or he carries one for you to a neighbor—the carrier. Remember him in some way, on Thanksgiving Day, and our word for it, you will never forget it—it will be broadcast upon the waters.

—Jersey Cream Flour, the Best on Earth, for $1.15 at C. W. King's.

—Dr. J. P. Robinson will preach at the Christian church in this city next Sunday, morning and evening.

—Mrs. Geo. Laur, of Wesboro, and Mrs. F. Reeves, of Tarkio, were visiting their cousin, C. B. Rayhill, last week.

—There will be a box supper at the Benton school house, Tuesday evening, November 27th, 1906. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

—Ed Smith, of Mound City, one of the leading merchants, of that city, was attending Probate court, last week, and looking after other business interests.

—The "Klondyke" Union Suit for children is the best underwear for cold weather that you can put on your girl or boy, sold by C. W. King at 50c per suit. Try it, and you will always buy it.

—Rev. Charles Evans will preach at the Presbyterian church at Oregon next Sabbath, November 25th, at the usual hours, and at Woodville at the usual hour. A full attendance is requested.

—There will be a "Pie" social, given by the ladies of the Kimsey school district, at the school house on next Saturday night, November 24. Money to be used for school purposes. Everybody come.

—Charles Headley returned Saturday of last week from Columbus, O., where he farmed the past season, and will remain here now, and will likely rent his Grandmother Fletcher's place, which he will farm the coming season.

—Among the many outside visitors to our annual Mum show, the young crowd was augmented by the coming of the Misses Jessie Pritchard, Halie McKee, Majorie Durand and Hazel Claiborne, all of St. Joseph. They were an attractive bunch of girls, and they seemed to enjoy their visit here with friends and relatives.

—It may seem strange, but Will Pennell was busy threshing oats Tuesday of this week, November 20. Talk about your fine climates—this is one of them. The reason for this late threshing, on Will's part, is explainable, however, and it is that he was waiting for the completion of his fine new barn, and into which he put the oats.

—That the name "Burlington" so long familiar in the railroad world, may be eliminated entirely and the name of the Great Northern substituted, is a report now current in many newspapers. For 50 years the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, better known as the Burlington, has been one of the big railroad systems of the Mississippi valley and to eliminate the name would be the wiping out of one of the "land marks" of railroad men and the traveling public alike.

—Mr. Philip Markt was in Barada, Neb., last week and a part of this week, taking care of the store belonging to his brother John, who with his wife and children, were called to La Harpe, Allen county, Kansas, by the sickness and death of Mrs. Markt's mother, Mrs. A. J. Sutton, who died, Friday, November 16, 1906. Mrs. Sutton will be well remembered by many of our citizens, having resided here in Oregon and at different points in the county for a number of years with her husband, A. J., and family. Mrs. Markt has the sincere sympathy of many friends in Oregon and vicinity in her bereavement.

—Eppa Cropp, now in the railway mail service on the Chariton Branch, from St. Joseph to Des Moines, Ia., is forging to the front as one of the best men in the service, and on the 12th of this month took an examination in St. Joseph, throwing 1,484 cards in 59 minutes, a little more than 25 cards per minute, and out of the bunch only made seven errors, throws. —Axle Grease 7 boxes for 25c at C. W. King's.

—Mrs. Robert Marion, of Fillmore, visited her daughter, Mrs. Aut Curry, last week.

—Three second-hand cook stoves and seven second-hand heating stoves for sale cheap at Schulze Bros.

—Put in your window lights and prepare for winter. You can find glass all sizes and prices cheap, at E. O. Phillips' Drug Store.

—Be awful nice if the windows at the school building were repaired and fixed up so that the wind would not whistle through them like a sieve.

—Robert Morris and wife, of Chicago, Mont., arrived here yesterday, called by the serious illness of his sister, Jane, who has been almost entirely sick the past week.

—The Maitland Fair directors have contracted for the erection of a new floral hall, to be octagonal, 43 feet in diameter and two stories high. It will cost about $1,000.

—Does your feet hurt? Have you corns or bunions? If you have you should buy a pair of Brown's Star-5 Star Shoes. The easiest shoe on earth, they will do you good. Sold by C. W. King.

—We want the proper authorities to please bear in mind, that it would be a very good idea to have the windows in the school building repaired—in fact, new casings and windows are needed.

—Ernest Hodgins has accepted a position and is now "making a full hand" with the I. E. Gilbert & Co., of this city. He invites his many friends throughout Holt county to call and see him when in the city.

—Davy Young, it used to be little Dave, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Paul Frye, of this city, and his many former school chums. Dave is now a much larger man than his father D. A. He is now living in St. Joseph and reports his father and mother enjoying good health, and that his father is now in especially good health.

—Jim Rostock met with quite a little accident, but which, fortunately was not serious, Friday of last week, November 16, while pulling the trap for the boys who were shooting "Blue Rocks." By some means the trap arm flew up and batted him one on the left side of the head, cutting a gash that necessitated several stitches. He is now all right.

Fine Farm For Sale.

220 acre, well improved farm adjoining Bigelow. Good orchards and buildings; fine bottom land. Known as Peter Riley farm. Will sell at bargain for next 30 days. If interested write LOVE & GRIMES, Owners, Woodbine, Iowa.

—The silent reaper has again visited our community and this time it took our fellow-townman, Ivan Mace. Ivan was at work Saturday and went home at night sick, physicians were called, and decided he must be taken to St. Joseph and be operated on for appendicitis. He was taken Sunday at noon, and operated on that evening and after much suffering died Wednesday morning, November 14, 1906. His remains were brought to Craig Wednesday evening and the funeral services conducted at the Christian church by Elder Baird, of St. Joseph, Friday morning. The I. O. O. F. lodge officiating at the church and the Modern Woodman at the grave, he being a member of both orders. He was born in Atchison county, in 1883.—Craig Leader.

—We are to lose one of our best citizens, and most substantial farmers in a short time. Mr. Ulrich Burger, residing about six miles northeast of Oregon. He has purchased 40 acres of land, adjoining Savannah, on the west, paying $150 per acre for same. It is a fruit farm, just what Mr. Burger wanted, he says, as he has several boys that he will have to keep employed, and this will give them something to do. He was offered $500 for his bargain, and thinks he has acquired a valuable piece of property, which we think is true, laying as close to Savannah as this does. He still retains his fine farm of over 200 acres here, and has rented the same to Bert Internill. We are indeed sorry to lose this estimable family, but sincerely wish them health and prosperity in their new home.

—Holt county apples for the Jamestown Exposition, 100 barrels were wanted for this show, and the contract was just about to be given to a South Missouri firm for the entire lot, when one of the commissioners from North Missouri, said this would be an injustice to North Missouri, and through him the contract to furnish 50 barrels was given to N. F. Murray, who collected the fruit from the orchards of Joseph H. Murray, George R. Murray, Wm. Brodbeck and his own. The apples were selected and handled with great care, and each specimen, double wrapped in paper, packed in barrels, and placed in cold storage in St. Joseph, where they will remain 'til wanted for the exposition. Mr. Murray informs us that he has collected fruit for many of the large expositions, for the one held at Chicago, also for Rochester, Omaha, Paris, France and many others, at all of which North Missouri fruit has won a large part of the gold medals and diplomas awarded to Missouri fruits. Mr. Murray informs us, that no finer, more perfect and higher colored fruit ever went from Holt county, than the 50 barrels for the Jamestown exposition.

Poland China Hogs.
A few Poland-China male hogs, large enough for service, for sale. Call on ALF. BAHLER.

—Mrs. Jennie Morris, of the Marion district, is very sick with congestion of the stomach and bowels. At this writing she was thought to be a little better, but not yet out of danger.

—John Woods and Miss Cora Sipes, of Forbes, hid themselves away to St. Joseph, Monday of this week, November 19, 1906, where it is reported that they were married. THE SENTINEL extends congratulations.

—The popular Curtis Dramatic Co., with the favorite and talented comedian, Mr. M. H. Curtis, will appear at Forest City opera house for two nights, opening next Monday evening, November 26th, in the rattling farce-comedy, "A Foxy Uncle," introducing specialties between each act. A new play on Tuesday night to be announced. Don't miss it. Adults, 25 and 35c, children 15c. Reserved seats now on sale at Teare's, 35c.

—Oregon now has a bakery, and the Fry Brothers, who have made this venture, should be given a liberal and remunerative patronage. They are excellent young men, have a snap and get up about them, that means business on every hand. They have secured the services of an experienced baker, and fresh bread, cakes, etc., can always be had at this place. They have opened a stock of groceries and meat market in connection, and they will be pleased to wait on you in their place of business, all the day long, in the Keeves building—on the "Korner."

Do you find it Difficult to read

By artificial light? Or to sew? Or to do any work that requires a good deal of eye work?

Headaches follow, more than likely accompanied by dizzy sensation.

It's your eyes without a doubt. The symptoms are well known to opticians, and they mean that the eyes are weak, or that they have been overworked.

Let me investigate. It is almost a certainty that glasses are needed.

If you will call some day I will tell you all about it.
