—Surveyor Morris and John Peret, engineer for the Nodaway drainage district, were up investigating the work of the drainage contractors, and tried tenting out, and were thankful they had not taken down their stove. Engineer Peret certified to the removal of 1,300 cubic yards of dirt during the month of March. Also they located two 75 foot steel bridges; one to be on the Mrs. Clibby land, and the second 1 1/4 mile east of the Triumph school house.

—Monday next will be the regular April term of our circuit court, and Circuit Clerk Cook has issued his docket. Court will only convene, and then adjourn to the following Monday, the 29th instant. This is occasioned by reason of Judge Ellison having been called to preside at an important case to be heard in one of the districts east of here. On the 29th court will convene and the docket will be taken up in the same order as it began on the 22d.

—THE SENTINEL extends its hearty congratulations to Miss Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. —We are sorry to learn that Mr. Benton's condition has not improved since he has been at the Burlington Junction springs. He is suffering greatly from rheumatism.

—A woman writer for a magazine declares that it isn't safe for a man to marry on $15 a week. "We have observed that, when two young people make up their minds to marry, they do not take much time to consider whether he is getting $15 a week or not.

—One runs no greater risk in securing a wife through a matrimonial agency than he does in purchasing grass seed from a catalogue house. No man who has any horse sense or morality about him will indulge in either of these speculations. They're gold brick games of the worst type.

—We work hard, but we don't work you, when we sell you a pair of shoes, to do a day's work in, or a dress shoe for a Sunday. It is not always the man that whistles the goods, that makes good. It is the man that delivers the goods. We deliver Gilbert & Co., clothing for the people now on earth, Oregon, Mo.

—The April rise in the Missouri river reached this section a little ahead of schedule this year owing to the early thaw in the mountains, and it is thought the stream will be within its normal limits before the big June rise comes. The April rise began on the 7th, and since the 12th there has been a gradual fall.

—We still contend in the face of all good reasoning that you can't make a whistle out of a pig's tail, because nature never intended it to be so. But nature did intend you to fit your feet comfortable, and buy them for your money's worth or your money back, for your money comes hard. Ask Gilbert & Co., the kind to buy. They keep shoes for the people now on earth, Oregon, Mo.

—Uncle Dan Huatt is getting along fine since he had a large tumor removed from the back of his neck. It had been troubling him considerably of late, so he concluded the best way to get permanent relief would be to have the "p-sky" thing removed, so he just took his seat in a chair and told the doctor to proceed, he did not have to take any anesthetic. Uncle Dan is doing nicely, and his many friends will be glad to hear it.

—If a grocery clerk would tell a customer that the only thing they had in the shape of cucumbers at this time of year, was a banana, that would be about the right sort of an answer to give a customer, and if you would ask us what we had in the shape of work shoes, that we could get right in behind and sell with a good clear conscience, we would say "Barker-Brown All Leather Shoes." Gilbert & Co. keep shoes for people now on earth, Oregon, Mo.

—The Bank of Conception, at Clyde, Nodaway county, closed its doors Wednesday of last week. Liabilities, $120,000. The bank has been in existence about 20 years. Of course, if you believe the statements of its officers, depositors will be paid in full. Who ever heard of a bank failure, without this old, stereotyped saying: "Depositors will be paid in full." Not one bank in ten when their doors are closed ever pay 100 cents on the dollar to its depositors—as a general rule that isn't the object of their failing.

—Whit Maupin has returned from his visit with his father, Elder Maupin and wife, who are now taking life easy in Hennessey, Okla., where Mrs. Maupin owns nearly 500 acres of good farming land, all of which is under cultivation and rented. He also says her son, Elmer, is doing well, having 150 acres, 50 of which is in fruit, having 3300 peach trees, 2400 of which are the Elberta variety, and 1200 apple, 300 plums, 250 cherries and many other varieties; he also has 14 acres in blackberries. With the establishing of the canning factory at Hennessey, put in by the farmers of that section, he expects to fully realize $2,000 the coming season from blackberries alone. We are glad to hear of the success and contentment of Father and Mother Maupin, and Elmer. The coming of Whit and brother Will, was a complete surprise to their father. While there the Press Democrat tendered a banquet at the Rhodes hotel in honor of Will, and the occasion was a most brilliant and enjoyable affair, in full keeping and compliment to the brainy young man of the Commoner staff, and of course Will was equal to the occasion, for when called upon to respond to a toast, read an exquisite poetical tribute to Oklahoma His venerable father and brother Whit were also guests of honor.

—LADIES:—I have just received a fresh supply of "Velvet Cream," a cream for the complexion. Call on Mrs. Clara Maupin, or phone No. 2, Farmers' Mutual, and it will be delivered. Price, 50c.

—Congratulations go to George W. Meyer and wife, of Moon City, on account of that fine boy that was left at their house, by the stork on the 11th inst. Gosh but Grandpa Tom Frye is stuck up.

—The postal special delivery law will not go into effect until July 1. After that date, 10 cents in stamps of any denomination in addition to the regular postage together with the words, "Special delivery," written on the envelope, will insure immediate delivery. This will be a convenience, as few keep special delivery stamps on hand.

—A Henry county woman lost her pocket book while shopping in Clinton the other day and was nearly distracted until it was returned to her. The purse contained some receipts, chewing gum and $1,700, which she had been carrying ever since the Salmon bank failure. After all, the only safe place for woman's money is in her stocking.

—A good many folks are getting swindled every day on deals that are just as insane, if not quite as ludicrous, as the one that a certain lady of adipose propensity who answered a fat reducer advertisement in a cheap weekly magazine got mixed up in. The reply which was forthcoming upon receipt of 10 cents in stamps was, "sell your fat for tallow."

—A certain Maitland young lady, so we are told, who some 18 years ago had her picture taken, clothed in atmosphere and sitting in a wash bowl, does not like to have it mentioned now. A certain young "smarty" stole the picture out of the family album and sprung it on the now grown up young lady at a party one evening some two weeks ago, and it almost stopped the proceedings.

—The boy's Pa says to the Harness Man Smith, have you any of that there real good strong leather? —The two cent mileage law in Missouri will go into effect June 14, and according to latest reports work is in progress on the new tariff sheets. The law, if not contested by the roads, and is obeyed by them will make a vast change in the tariff. One way from St. Joseph to Kansas City, for instance will be $1.29 instead of $1.90. From St. Joseph to St. Louis the rate will be $6.52 instead of $8.50. From Forest City to St. Joseph the rate will be 58 cents instead of 85 cents, but there will be no reduction on account of round trip. Even with the removal of the old-time 10 per cent, discount concession, the round trip rate between Forest City and St. Joseph will be $1.16 instead of $1.55. Should the Illinois legislature pass a two cent rate law, which now seems probable, the rate from St. Joseph to Chicago will be $9.38 instead of $12.50 as at present.

—This month is the anniversary of the killing of the great Missouri bandit, Jesse James. "It was just 25 years ago, April 3d, and just about 10:30 o'clock in the morning, that Jesse James was killed," said Colonel Joe Hansen, superintendent of the St. Joseph Union Depot company. "Here is a telegram which I received that day," he continued. The message read: Jeff City, 4 3, 1882, 11:10 p.m. Maj. Hansen, Commander Militia, St. Joe., Mo.—You are ordered to place as many of your men as necessary to safely guard the body of Jesse James at St. Joseph and to Kansas City. Thos. T. Crittender, Gov. "There were special trains running in here all day long," said Colonel Hansen, "bearing people from down in James' part of the state who wanted to see his body. There was fear that the body might be stolen, so that a claim could be advanced that James was not killed, thus defrauding the Fords of their reward. The body was taken to Sidenfaden's establishment, where the late Tom Finck, a deputy sheriff in those days, with six others, guarded it." At the time THE SENTINEL furnished its readers with a 16 column supplement, giving the particulars.
