Myrtle Baker went to Forbes Monday to visit relatives. Mrs. Martha Wood went to Bigelow Monday to visit her mother. Miss Nettie Wylie spent Saturday and Sunday in Forest City with her sisters. James Beard has returned to old Forest. He thinks this is the last place after all. Mrs. Worley, of Forbes, visited her sister, Mrs. G. B. Baker, the latter part of last week. Mrs. Elmer and son, Ray, returned from St. Joseph Monday, where they spent several days. Miss Emma Smith went to St. Joseph Saturday to spend a few weeks with Mrs. G. B. Baker. Dr. Roy Taylor and wife came in Sunday to visit the parents of Dr. Roy, returning Monday. The meetings closed at the Christian church Tuesday night. There were about 40 additions. Oscar Bullock is visiting home folks after a four years absence. He has been in Utah for several years. Mr. W. H. Morgan came down from Craig Sunday. At who once lived in Forest, likes to come back occasionally. John Turney Jr., and wife have moved to town. They will be "at home" to their friends. The house now occupied by Mr. Nathan's family. Mr. Smith and family left Monday. Mr. Smith was overseer over a gang of R. R. workmen. He and family made many friends while here.

Fortescue.

J. R. Minton loaded four cars of wood, this week. Lewis Cropp was a fiske visitor the first of the week. J. W. White visited friends in Falls City, Wednesday. J. W. Hill spent Sunday with his wife and family of Forest City. E. L. Craig is helping his father in the store at Napier, this week. Minton & Slater shipped three cars of cattle to St. Joseph, Tuesday night. Mrs. W. G. Craig, of Napier, was the guest of Mrs. G. W. Craig, Tuesday afternoon. Vess Howard purchased several head of sheep at the J. C. Hinkle sale last Tuesday. Chas. Williams is getting along nicely, and it is not likely that the rest of his hand will ever be taken, which was feared for a while. Owing to the reason that some of the parties who have parts in the plays for the entertainment, are not taking the best of interest in them, it is not known just exactly what date it will be. L. M. Minton is having his old store building remodelled for a stock of drugs which will be sold by W. A. Lowe, who is now at Napier. Mr. Lowe is in all respects a fine fellow, besides being a first class druggist, and we are glad to see him back in Fortescue again. Wonder why there wasn't any Fortescue items in the Jeffersonian this week? was the question asked by different persons. Well, we are sure no one knows, only the fellow who puts them in, but probably he had his eyes full of "smoke" and could not see how to write them. Reporter.

Lincoln.

Miss Tina Peters is very low at this writing. Ollie Kieffer spent Sunday with Inza Guthrie. Claire Stevenson, who has been quite sick, is convalescing. The literary was well attended last Friday night. Frank Kieffer is the new president and Inza Guthrie, secretary. Cora and Berice Cunningham are recovering nicely from an attack of pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham are also sick.

Woodville.

We understand Freddie Markit and family are coming home soon. Wm. Klinepeter and son, we understand, have five farms to build this spring. The roads are very muddy almost impassable between Woodville and Oregon. Miss Lucy Buntz and father have been very sick with the grippe. Mr. Buntz is very poorly yet. Wm. Smallwood and son, Davy, are on the sick list. Grandpa Smallwood has recovered from her attack of grippe. Mrs. Ora Gevin is much better and hopes are entertained for her recovery. Grandma Gevin is quite sick with grippe. Melva Vogel is doing the house work for Ora Gevin and family. Mrs. Frank Knate was over from Filmore, helping with the work, last week, a few days. Rev. Walton came to Woodville to preach last Sunday. He came horseback. He said he did not know the mud was so deep. We had a good Sunday school and sermon. Perry Kee moved in the tenant house of E. K. Christensen, last week. Sherman Kee and wife and father will move on the Jerry Markit place and will farm it this summer. Matt Gevin is rumored, intends moving to Oregon this spring and take it easy. It will also save him going to town every day and save him the trouble of hitching up to go. We understand that Mrs. Webster has a number of hens setting. She is going to have early chickens. She makes quite a bit of it. They do not go for the fun of it. Bows, get your bows ready for there is to be a wedding in Woodville in the near future. Reporter has it is a widower. They say he goes twice a week and on Sunday. When these widowers start out they mean business. Last week, one day, while it was sleighing, George Webster and wife hitched up to the big sleigh and drove to Wm. Klinepeter's and took his family and drove to town to Rev. Walton's, where they took Rev. Walton and wife and drove to Forest City for a sleigh ride. Mrs. Walton said it was the best sleigh ride in her life, and she enjoyed it too. Indeed, they all had a big time and wished for more snow. Basso.
