

WHERE IS BUSTER BROWN?

WATCH THIS SPACE EACH WEEK YOU WILL SEE. HE WILL TELL YOU SOMETHING

Tige will soon be happy. Buster Brown will come back. They will be on this page a long time. They will delight you and talk to you about our business. Perhaps you wonder how we got Mr. R. F. Outcault, the creator of Buster Brown and the world's highest paid artist, to make for us a fresh, signed drawing each week. But we did—it cost us no small price. We are glad they will be here. Buster believes in truth. We do. We make a profit, every merchant must. We do not "cut prices"—except on broken sizes or when overloaded. We make prices right in the beginning. We wish to make money who doesn't? But we can make more selling at a fair profit and doing a bigger business. Help yourself by making our volume larger. We invite you to look each week at Mr. Outcault's cartoons.

Respectfully,

MURRAY & MOORE

WANT TO HANDLE YOUR APPLES.

They will have packing houses at OREGON and FORBES. See Joe H. Murray or L. I. Moore before you sell. Engage your Barrels from them. Apples received here at Canning Factory.

A $ SAVED IS A $ MORE ON YOUR BANK ACCOUNT.

Whether you want to set out a commercial orchard next season, or only a few choice varieties for family use, I can save you from 25 per cent to 50 per cent on the bill. I handle no inferior grades, but can furnish anything in my line at "live and let live" prices. No need to pay exorbitant prices for any kind of nursery stock simply to build up distant industries. Of course we could all send our money to the mail order houses or pay it over to agents of outside concerns for such things as we need on our farms and in our homes, but we are not going to do it. Let us spend our money where we make it—at home—then we will all be more prosperous.

Let me have your orders now—there is nothing gained by putting it off—and then you will not be annoyed by agents. I will not bore you, but I will appreciate your business.

There was a time, and not so very long ago, when stock yards and packing house people were credited with a low standard of humanity; they were called butchers and were not supposed to care much for the comfort of animals. But if one wants to see a lesson in the humane treatment of animals he has only to take a ride to the St. Joseph stock yards any of these hot afternoons. The packers buy great herds of cattle one day and they are often held over until the next day for slaughter. In the pens Wednesday last there were hundreds of cattle that were suffering under the boiling

CANADA LAND

Excursion From Oregon, Mo., to Canada, $27 Round Trip.

The biggest excursion of the season will go from Holt county on August 16 to the Canada country. The fare will be $27 round trip from Oregon, Mo. Now is the time to see this wonderful country you have heard so much about. It is the country where the land pays for itself in two years. See us and get some of the pamphlets describing this country, then go with us on the 16th of August and see this country for yourself, and if we have made any representations about the country that are not true we will pay you $10 a day for your expense in going to look at the land.

You realize that the men who have made money have invested in land and let the land increase in value and if you see this land priced at $16 to $25 per acre where they grow 40 to 50 bushels of wheat to the acre you can't keep from making a good investment and buying some. There is a new railroad almost completed through this country and the first buyers get the land closest to the railroad. See us and we will arrange for you to go with us on this excursion of the 16th.

"Prayer of the Horse."
To thee, my master, I offer my prayer, feed me and take care of me, be kind to me, do not jerk my lines, do not whip me when going up hill. Never strike, beat or kick me when I fail to understand what you want of me, but give me a chance to understand you. Watch me and if I fail to do your bidding, see if there is not something wrong with my harness. Do not give me too heavy loads; never hitch me where water will drop on me; keep me well shod, examine my teeth when I fail to eat, I may have an ulcerated tooth, that you know is very painful. I am unable to tell you in words when I am sick, so watch me and I will try and tell you by signs. Pet me sometimes I enjoy it and will learn to love you. Protect me in summer from the hot sun. Keep a blanket on me in winter weather, and never put a frosty bit in my mouth, but warm it a moment first in your hand. I carry you, pull you, wait patiently for you long hours of day or night. I cannot tell you when I am thirsty, give me clean cool water often in hot weather. Finally when my strength is gone instead of turning me over to a human bird to be tortured and starved, take my life in the easiest and quickest way, and your God will reward you. X.

Dead From Heat.

During the siege of extraordinarily hot temperature of the early part of last week, when the thermometer averaged 102 degrees for four consecutive days, there were hundreds of dead hogs pulled out of cars at the unloading chutes at the St. Joseph stock yards, and thereby the profits of shippers went glimmering. In other words, the profits were hauled over to the rendering tanks to be cooked and ground up into soap grease and fertilizer. The death rate among hogs in transit has been enormous, great loads of dead hogs being hauled out of the cars and to the rendering tanks.

This is to a large extent the result of overloading. There has been a suspicion sometimes that the shipper has crowded an extra hog or two into a car with a view to thus beat the railroad. It is all right if the hogs don't die in transit. But it's doubtful if it is good policy at any time, and in 100 degree hot weather for that matter. One or two dead in a car load at present prices will soon send a shipper home loser, whereas by careful loading and proper attention on the road, there should have been a profit.

Some Skinned Faces.

Levi Thompson, of Maitland, and Frank Petree, of Oregon, are going about with their faces patched up as though they had been at a Denybrook fair. They were out in an automobile several miles northwest of town Monday, July 25th. The weather being hot, the cover was put on the auto. While they were going along at a pretty stiff clip, the hind wheels of the machine struck some kind of an obstruction and the rear end went up in the air. Likewise did Petree and Thompson. Their faces struck the bows of the canopy, with the result that great patches of hide were removed. All were bruised some but there was no serious injury.—Maitland Herald.

This farm is a good producer and money maker. Would consider some trade or would divide and sell in two tracts and still take some good property on each tract. About 100 acres of this farm is being plowed and mowed, including 10 acres of orchard which is in grass and the balance is in timber pasture, well and running water. 1200 rods hog tight fence, in fact it is an up-to-date stock farm and one among the best in the county. Price $17,000, and considering the fertility of the soil and the splendid improvements, it is cheap at the money.

For Miss Bagby.
Mrs. Pearl Frye, on Saturday forenoon, entertained a jolly bunch of her young friends in honor of her guest, Miss Lucille Bagby, of Mound City. "I've Hundred" was the principal entertainment, to which an even dozen participated, and when the score was made up, a handsome Japanese picture was given Miss Dale Zeller, as the best player in the bunch, a beautiful Sterling spoon, was the guest of honor prize. Relishable refreshments were served, and it was close to the noon hour when they took their departure. Mrs. Frye is a charming hostess, and those who were there were glad they were given a place on her list.
