Winona Lake, Indiana.

The journey was safe, and after spending two days at the beautiful city of Naperville, Ill., our alma mater, and one day in Chicago with relatives, at noon Friday the conductor called out Winona Lake. As we stepped from the platform a bit of God's beauty in nature presented itself to us. Before us, to our right, lay a beautiful lake of blue, 3 miles long and 2 miles wide; to the left, a beautiful hillside of trees, at their feet a beautiful carpet of green, the like of which we had not seen for weeks; in front of us and a little further down a pond of lilies were beautifully in bloom. Here and there fountains of water from artesian wells. A most beautiful place to spend a summer vacation. Winona is backed and controlled by such men as C. Dickey, W. E. Biderwolf, Chas. T. Wheeler, Billy Sunday and Wm. Jennings Bryan and others.

Our first introduction to the services was a five-dollar bill for a reserved seat, for one has no time here to search for a good seat. But money is not all. There were over 4,000 seated in the spacious pavilion. These were mostly ministers and Christian workers from most all parts of the world. E. O. Excell, with a choir of nearly 300 voices, seated about a large pipe organ and two pianos, were singing as one voice, "Oh, the Touch of His Hand on Mine." Following the song service spoke Mel. Trotter, superintendent of missions in the slums. This man before his conversion, took the shoes from his little girl, who lay a corpse, to buy another drink of liquor. After an experience of many years in slum work, this great man of God said: "The slums do not make the drunkard and debauch the girl, but it is the up-town and fashionable saloon, the wine garden and social card table and society circles that make them. Then the slums afford a place for them." Following Mel. Trotter, Mrs. Booth Clibborn, of England, daughter of General Booth, of the Salvation Army, held the audience spellbound for over an hour. At 6:30 Jerry Smith was to address the open-air meeting, but his train being four hours late, Mel. Trotter again lead the service. At 8 o'clock Campbell Morgan, of London, England, preached from the subject: "Who Touched Me?" This represents one afternoon and evening at Winona Bible conference.

As to the management of the grounds, for the first time in my life I found my idea realized. To smoke a cigarette is against the law of the association, and a hint to the wise is sufficient, so one need not scent the smoke of the weed at all. It was urged that all buying of every sort be made on Saturday. On Sunday all stores, meat shops and confectionery stands were closed and their furnishings were concealed. You could buy a meal or necessary lunch, and nothing more at the hotels or lunch counter. The gates to the ground and services were thrown open with free admission to all who cared to attend. The steamer and the small boats on the lake were silent, and the fish had a jubilee, for they could eat anything they could find and go anywhere and be safe. It was their Master's Day and it was observed. Oh, how refreshing to my soul in such an atmosphere.

As to the thermometer, we are comfortable in our coats and wraps in day time, and at night we sleep under comforts. I wish I could share some of the refreshing coolness with friends in Missouri.

G. W. WEIDEMIER.

In Memoriam.

At a meeting of Oregon Lodge, No. 54, I. O. O. F., held August 27, 1913, the following resolutions in regard to the death of Charles Bahler, and Mrs. George E. Gelvin were adopted and ordered spread upon the records:

It having pleased Almighty God in the dispensation of Providence, to remove from this temporary existence to one of eternal duration, our worthy brother, Charles A. Bahler; therefore, be it

Resolved, That it is with unfeigned feelings of regret we have been called to realize the loss of so estimable a brother from among us; and that in his death we feel sensibly our deprivation of an exemplary man, an ideal husband and father, and worthy citizen.

Resolved, That this lodge in which he was taught the beautiful lesson of the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man, and of which he remained a member until his death, experiences in his passing to the other shore, the loss of a worthy member; the fraternity at large are also deprived of a true brother.

Resolved, That in testimony of respect to the memory of the deceased, the emblems and charter of this lodge be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days, and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the widow and little son, to whom this lodge extends its keenest sympathy in the loss of their beloved one, and commit them to God, the Ruler of the Universe, Father of the fatherless, and support of the widow. May He ever watch over and protect them.

GEORGE SHERMAN,
PERRY MOORE,
D. P. DOBYNS,
Committee.

Whereas, It has been the will of the Supreme Ruler, that the will of our dearly beloved brother, and past grand, George E. Gelvin, has been called to her Eternal Home, and

Whereas, Mrs. Gelvin was a good woman, a kind wife, a loving mother, with the traits and virtues that endeared her to her husband, daughter and relatives and gave her the highest esteem of her friends and neighbors; and

Whereas, Her devotion to the higher life of her husband, her daughter and friends and to the higher standard of Christian duty she set for herself has made her a noble example of womanly virtue; and

Whereas, Her husband and our worthy brother has lost a devoted wife, the daughter a loving mother, her friends a friend of crystal virtue whose memory shall ever be a shining light in life's pathway; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we extend to our beloved brother, George E. Gelvin, and Miss Hallie, our sincerest sympathy in this, their sad bereavement, and that a copy of these resolutions be furnished them that they may know how we cherish her memory and console their sorrow.

GEORGE SHERMAN,
PERRY MOORE,
D. P. DOBYNS,
Committee.

M. E. Church Notes.

Dr. C. J. Chase, the district superintendent, will be in town, next Saturday night and Sunday morning, and will conduct services at our church. On Saturday night he will preach and hold the last quarterly conference for this year, and on Sunday morning he will preach and administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The public is most cordially invited to attend any and all of these services.

We did not get to the Culp appointment last Sunday, on account of the funeral of Mrs. Gelvin, but will preach there next Sunday afternoon at the usual hour. The public is very cordially invited.

The list of official members have been selected and will be practically the same for next year as for this year. We hope to accomplish much for God and the church in our next year's work. So let us begin now to plan the work.

With tearful eyes and tender hands we assisted in laying away the beloved wife of our esteemed friend and neighbor, Bro. George Gelvin, last Sunday afternoon. It was a sad service, but the God of all grace will sustain.

The grind of the annual conferences is on. Several have been held already, and some are being held this week. Bro. Meyer, pastor of the German Methodist church, of Oregon, left for conference, on Monday of this week. But four weeks remain of this conference year for this pastor. How quickly the time has gone. It seems but yesterday since we began the year. I will begin next week to collect the benevolences. Kindly have them ready so I will not have to make a second trip for them. My time from now until conference will be limited. You can help me by being ready to meet them.

There were 100 in the Sunday school last Sunday morning, and that with the disturbance we have had the past few weeks. Our average for the month thus far is much above the hundred, and let us rally sufficient next Sunday morning to keep it up. Suppose we make a special effort next Sunday morning to be in the Sunday school and promptly on time. The pastor and the superintendent will greatly appreciate it.

We had our second marriage last Saturday morning at the parsonage. The contracting parties were Carl Henry Snell and Edna Mae Beeghly, and they came from Sabetia, Kansas. The witnesses to the wedding were Mrs. Minnie Curry and William Markt. The young people returned immediately to Kansas after the ceremony.

Fifty members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Oregon and the vicinity hereabout went to the Nodaway M. E. church and assisted in laying away Charles Bahler, a member of the order. Bro. Dobyms acted as Noble Grand for the service and this pastor served in the capacity of Chaplain. It was a sad service. Brother Bahler was but 31 years old and leaves a young wife and a precious boy to mourn his death. May our Heavenly Father sustain them in their sorrow.

The Mid-week Meeting this week will again be held in the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening and the subject will be "Paul and His Writings." We ought to have a large congregation present. Brother, Sister plan to be there. The meeting will last but one hour.

Our service will be held in our own church next Sunday morning, as the work of repair will have been done by that time. Dr. Chase will preach there at the regular hour for service. Don't fail to hear him. Let's make our quarterly meeting time mean something to us spiritually.

The evening service for next Sunday night will be held in the park at the usual time. The public is very cordially invited to attend this union meeting.

THE PASTOR.

—Dr. Thatcher has reported that the stork flew over the home of our young friend, Clare Culp, and left at their home a nice, sweet little girl baby, August 23. Mrs. Culp says she thinks Clare will get quieted down in a week or two.

—Willie Gubser, aged 7 years, living with his parents, five miles north of Corning, in Atchison county, suicided, by shooting himself, on Sunday last, August 24th, dying instantly. Despondency over ill health is thought to have caused him to take his life.

—Elmore Kunkel, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kunkel, entertained a bunch of her little girl friends, Tuesday afternoon of this week, and you need not ask them what kind of a time they had—you know the dear little hostess, and that is a sufficient guarantee for a delightful time as well as an enjoyable luncheon.

—Will Hulatt, of Clay township, is now riding around with his family in the "Silent Knight"—Stearns-Knight, 5-passenger, "38" electric-lighted and started, Klaxon horn, and all the latest improvements. It is a beauty and must certainly be a joy. There is no one who is more entitled to a car of this kind than Mr. Hulatt—he has earned it, and is abundantly able to own it. The price paid was $4,000. H. L. Leeper, who is agent for this company, made the sale.

—Frank Petree returned Tuesday morning from Lincoln, Nebraska, where he left Mrs. Petree and the children busy getting settled in their new home, ready for the opening of school. Lou and Leo will enter the University. Harry intends to take a year in shorthand and typewriting, and then enter the University. Jay and Charley will attend the city schools. Frank will stay in Oregon and continue to conduct his abstract business and law practice. We are sorry to lose the family even for a few years, but are glad that Mr. Petree will remain for we hate to lose any of our hustling business men.

THE STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

at MARYVILLE will open for the Fall Term Monday, September 15. It is a state school of College grade whose function is to prepare young men and women to become competent teachers in the public schools of the state. It must do this and more. Efficient service to the teacher, the school, the home and to the community is its constant aim. We have many calls for teachers which we cannot answer because we have too few prepared to do the type of work called for. The teaching profession is becoming a lucrative field for the high school graduate who wishes to prepare for leadership. We maintain courses for secondary (High School) and College grade, taught by broad minded, experienced, and well prepared men and women. Courses of study lead to the Rural and Elementary (Regent's) Certificates and to the Life Diploma. Its standards are right, its results must be right.
