ALDERMAN BROTHERS

—Miss Gladys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. B. Dobyns, of Marceline, Mo., is here for a visit with her grandfather, D. P. Dobyns, and Miss Augusta Uppermann.

—The Keeves-Cook company have switched from the calendar presentation to that of giving away to friends who care to do the asking, of a neat and handy farm account book.

—Rev. J. H. Thompson has bought a Ford runabout; Will Donan, of Mound City, and George Pollock and son, Harry, have each bought a Ford touring car; from the Keeves-Cook agency.

—Miss Mary Moore, who is teaching instrumental music in private studios at Evanston and Chicago, is home for the holiday season, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Moore, and brothers, and other relatives.

—Roe Edwards, who is with the Santa Fe, at Keokuk, Iowa, accompanied by his wife, are here for their Christmas holiday, visiting her mother and sisters, Mrs. J. L. Dillon and children.

—Cam Moore, and Frank Walker, of Bigelow, were here Tuesday, on business. Cam is one of those souls that never grow older. Time comes and goes, but jolly Cam is as sunny as ever.

—Will Boyd, Frank Freeman, and Ed. Watt kindly remembered THE SENTINEL by sending a box packed with persimmons, grape fruit, grapes, pomegranate, etc.—products of their backyards. The bunch are all located at Sherman, a suburb of Los Angeles, Cal. We greatly appreciate the remembrance and we are enjoying the fruits.

Society.

Mary Zook entertained at cards, Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Price, a January bride. "500" was played at three tables and "Rummy" at two tables. After the games were finished, Miss Price was surprised with a linen shower, each one present having secretly brought a piece of linen for her. Mrs. James Hinde won the prize at "500," and Mrs. Roy Kunkel at "Rummy." Mrs. Kunkel presented her prize to the guest of honor.

The Priscilla Embroidery club, composed of sixteen plarning young ladies of Oregon, held their annual Christmas tree at the home of Mrs. Ralph Moore, last Friday evening. The tree was laden with beautiful gifts for the members and there were clever toy gifts for the gentlemen, who were present as guests of the club. Music was the entertainment of the evening; Miss West and Miss Lillian Price, furnishing the instrumental music, and Miss Mary Price and Miss Bonnie Greene, the vocal music.

Home for the Holidays.

Lloyd Thatcher, Grace and Reed Bailey, Asby Greene, Hanson and Avon Murray, all of Columbia; Blanche Markland, Castana, Iowa; Dale Zeller, Bowling Green, Mo.; Zinna Bragg, Tarkio, Mo.; Mayme Greene, Mound City, Mo.; Bonnie Greene, Forbes, Mo.; Mary Moore, Chicago, Ill.; Olive Kreek, Baker University; Oakley Morris, Cameron, Mo.; Mabel Dillon, Hastings, Neb.

Willard Meyer, of Lincoln, Neb., is here for a visit with his brother, Charley.

—Oakley Morris is home from the Cameron College for a two weeks' visit with home folks.

Sam Walsh is up to Castana, Iowa, where he will make an extended visit with his brother, Will.

—A. Swartz and wife, of El Reno, Okla., are visiting relatives and friends during the holiday season in Holt county.

Tom Boyd, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, is spending the holidays with his mother and sisters and brother, Ed., of Forest City.

—Joseph Proffit, of way up in Canada, has come home to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Proffit, of Notaway township.

—Henry B. Leigh, of Kansas City, and Miss Bessie M. Morgan, of Oregon, were granted marriage license in St. Joseph, Tuesday of this week, Dec. 23.

—George E. Anderson, who is a student of the Kansas Agricultural College at Manhattan, is enjoying his Christmas vacation with his grandmother, Mrs. Rebecca Anderson.

—P. A. Dooley and family, who went down to Kidder, this state, to try for their fortune, have come back to Old Holt and are residing near Napier. Glad to have you back, P. A.

—Frank Petree is enjoying the holiday season with his family at Lincoln, Neb., where his children are in the University, and Mrs. Petree is keeping house for them. It will doubtless be an enjoyable occasion.

—SALVET—Worm Destroyer and Conditioner. The Best Stock Tonic on the market for the least money. Sold under an absolute guarantee. If you don't get results you don't pay.

FRANK FOSTER.

We are grieved to learn of the death of Timothy Proud, a brother of the late C. O. Proud, of this city, which occurred at his home in Mound City, Tuesday of this week, Dec. 23, 1913. We hope for an obituary for our next issue.

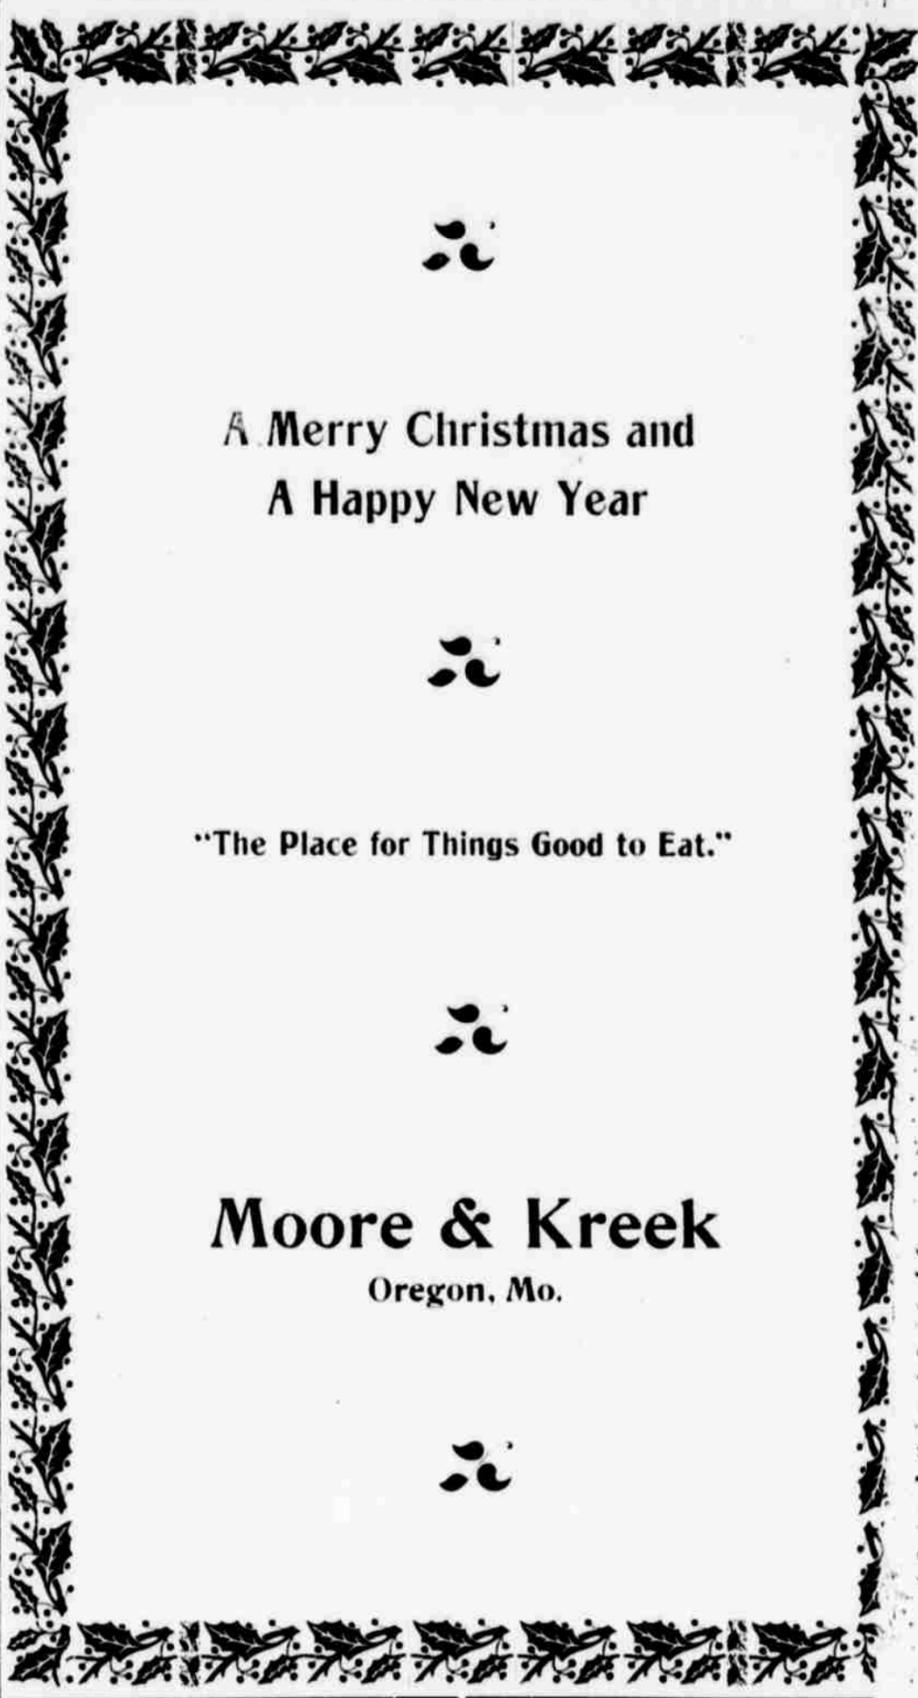

—A little in advance of the real date—but it is a little better to be a little early than that much late, so Mrs. Ed. Mergle and Dr. Thatcher presented her husband a Christmas package, December 17—a fine baby boy.

—Sam Simpson, Jr., who is a student of the Creighton Medical College, at Omaha, Neb., is home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Simpson, and brother, John. He was anxious to see what Santa was going to do for him.

—George S. Lukens and wife, and Master Charles W., Jr., are back from Nevada, Mo., where they enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Lukens' father, W. Garton. While down there George went to Monroe county, to look after some real estate matters.

—Samuel F. Brown, of Savannah, and Miss Linnie, daughter of James Colhour, the good natured, kindly lineman, of the Home Telephone Company, were married Tuesday of this week, Dec. 23, at the home of her brother, Ed., by Elder B. H. Dawson. We wish for the couple a long and happy life.

—We guess it has been the case for the past twenty years—snow or no snow, it's just the same with Sol Meyer; he never fails to hitch one of his best teams to a sled, and pa and ma must have a sleigh ride some day during Christmas week, and Tuesday of this week, Sol came in with the sled, and Father and Mother Meyer had their annual sleigh ride.

A Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year

"The Place for Things Good to Eat."

Moore & Kreek
Oregon, Mo.

New Point and Vicinity.

—Hazel Kearney came home, Friday, to spend Christmas.

—Mattie Glenn went to St. Joseph, Friday, returning Sunday afternoon.

—George Lentz and family and Miss Crown visited at Charles Fields, Sunday.

—Lester Painter came from Maryville, Saturday, to spend Christmas holidays with relatives and friends.

—Mrs. Lucy Donovan, of Rock Port, came Saturday, to visit her father, Mr. Atkins, and other relatives.

—Perry, Ora and Flossie Boswell, Frances Terry, C. C. Hardman and daughter, Elsie, and sister, Margaret, were shopping in St. Joseph, Friday.

—The Presbyterian Sunday school held their Christmas program Tuesday night, and the Sunday school of the Christian church, Wednesday night.

—Elder Augustine and wife, of Fillmore, came over Friday, returning Saturday. Mr. Augustine preached at the Christian church Friday evening.

—New Point was well represented in St. Joseph, Wednesday of last week. Among those trading there were: Ralph Meyer and family, Katherine Terry, Dan Dreher and son, George Lentz and wife, Mrs. Jack Wright.

—Charles Fields had a narrow escape from a serious accident, Thursday night, Dec. 18. The oil burner in the store had gone out, and he poured a little on it, and threw a lighted match, which caused a flash, burning his face and one hand, singeing his hair all around his cap, and singeing the front of his wool jacket.

—Elder Hardman is spending the holiday season with his son, Dr. Bert Hardman, at Joplin, Mo.

J. A. LEAS!

For Shame—for Shame.

What is meaner in the make-up of an individual that will be guilty of going about in a neighborhood, and "peeking in" the windows to see what they can see—we confess we know of nothing any smaller unless it is a mustard seed, and then it's a neck and neck race between the two as to which is entitled to the honors. It is said that there are some such people in some neighborhoods in this county, and we are mortified to have occasion to make this announcement. It might be pardonable to degree in a young kid or would know no better, or as to be influenced by older when grown up young men women, who are mothers, selves to be guilty of such simply reprehensible it their eyes could not be guilty of cayenne pepper. Please it any more, and your name be published.

—Mrs. Philip Markt and are spending their Christmas with her parents at Barab.
