Presbyterian Church Notes.

A good congregation was present at the quarterly communion service, last Sunday; quite a number of out-of-town people being in attendance. We are always glad to welcome visitors.

135 was the attendance at Sunday school. Every one of the 12 teachers was present.

The Christian Endeavor society had a good meeting under the leadership of Miss Carrie Seeman. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Ralph Moore; vice-president, Miss Grace McDonald; secretary, Mr. Byron Murray; treasurer, Miss Josephine Murray; pianist, Miss Virginia Netherland; assistant pianist, Miss Eleanor Kunkel. The following committees were appointed for the coming term: Look-out, Miss Edith Boyd, chairman; Grace McDonald, Mary Shaw, Prayer meeting, Mrs. Ralph Moore, chairman; Misses Margaret Boyd and Abbey Murray; Social, Miss Edna Markt, chairman; Misses Virginia Netherland, Emma Scott, Josephine Murray and Mrs. Clagett. Missionary, Miss Eleanor Kunkel, chairman; Miss Carrie Seeman and Mrs. Alberta G. Murphy; Flower, Miss Estelle Acton, chairman; Misses Leona Markt, Ruth Markt and Blanche Hodgkin. Miss Pauline Raley is leader next Sunday night.

The Ladies' Aid society met on Tuesday with Mrs. VanBuskirk. The Missionary society had their regular monthly meeting with Mrs. T. L. Price and daughter, Miss Lillian, Wednesday. After a discussion of the lesson topics, a very pleasant social hour was enjoyed, during which the hostesses served delicious refreshments.

The Airdome was filled almost to its capacity of four hundred for the union meeting, Sunday night. Mr. Perry Brooks led the singing in his usual effective and happy manner, accompanied most efficiently on the piano by his daughter, Miss Thelma. They make a fine team. Mr. Dawson took up a subscription and raised some $37.50 for the summer's expenses, so there will be no collections and no further appeal for money during the meetings. Mr. Frank Allen sang a beautiful bass solo, "Calvary," which was illustrated with twelve beautiful colored views. There will be an illustrated song every Sunday night. Next Sunday, Mr. Perry Brooks will sing "Ninety and Nine." Mr. Disinger, of the Evangelical church, preached a strong sermon on "Salvation," urging repentance and deliverance from sin through Jesus Christ. The Alliance has arranged for prominent ministers of the near vicinity to preach every Sunday night during the summer. Next Sunday, Rev. Samuel Carothers, of Oakland Park, M. E. church, St. Joseph, a former pastor of the M. E. church here, will preach. A cordial invitation is given to every one and it is hoped that all the people of the town and vicinity will attend these meetings.

Christian Church Notes.

Sunday school and church services were well attended at Union, last Sunday. The lesson of the morning was very difficult and interesting and the discussion was prolonged into the preaching hour. Some questions on the lesson were left over till next Sunday and I am sure that there will be a large number present to hear the discussion.

The women of the Union neighborhood are going to have a bazaar at Dawson & Campbell's clothing store, Saturday afternoon and evening, July 15th. The proceeds to go towards putting a furnace under the school house. If you want something real good for your Sunday dinner, let these women supply you.

Next Sunday is red letter day in our Sunday school at Oregon. The children are preparing a splendid program for the morning. This program is to begin with the Sunday school hour and close with the Lord's Supper about 11:30. There will be no regular sermon; just a short talk on the importance of the Lord's Supper. We are going to insist on every member of the Sunday school and church being present. If there are any that can't walk to and from the church, phone me and I will come for you in my car and will get you there in time for Sunday school.

I was delightfully surprised Tuesday morning, about 11:30 o'clock, when Mr. Lee Davis and Miss Lizzie Hendricks, both of Higgelow, Mo., walked into my office and asked me where the preacher was. They were told and after presenting the necessary papers they were made husband and wife and went on their way rejoicing.

M. E. Church Notes.

We had a good day Sunday in spite of the extreme heat. The Sunday school went far beyond the hundred mark, and the public audience was much larger than we had anticipated.

In the absence of the superintendent of the Sunday school in town, Mr. Reed Bailey, one of our best young men took charge of the school and did it in a very masterly way. He acted just like he was an old hand at the business. He greatly pleased the people.

We are to lose two of our best church and Sunday school workers this week, in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. Matthews. Mrs. Matthews has been connected with our church here for a long time and will be greatly missed. They are going to Norfolk, Neb., where Mr. Matthews will engage in the monument business.

Our Chautauqua is but three weeks away. Every Oregon citizen ought to be a booster for it. We have the greatest program this year we have ever had, and one that cannot help drawing from far and near. Two of the leading lecturers are Methodist preachers, and personal friends of the writer.

The union service was very largely attended last Sunday night, and the program was of a high order. Brother Dawson was asked to ask the people to finance the meetings Sunday night so as to obviate any future "offerings," and very quickly the people responded with $300. Mr. Frank Allen, of the Presbyterian church, sang "Calvary" while twelve views were thrown on the screen. It was very impressive. Brother Disinger, of the Evangelical church, preached the sermon, on "The Greatness of Salvation." He preached a good sermon.

Rev. Dr. Carothers, of St. Joseph, a former pastor here will preach in our church next Sunday morning, at the Culp school house in the afternoon and at the union meetings in the evening. All will want to hear him. Plan to come.

Perry Brooks, one of our townsmen, will sing at the union services next Sunday night, "The Ninety and Nine" while the views are being thrown on the screen. This will be very beautiful. Don't miss it.

Since our last report, a number of other of our families have gone on their summer outings. Brother L. I. Moore, wife and daughter have gone to Denver, Salt Lake, Los Angeles, Seattle, Vancouver and the far north and will be gone a month or more; and Dr. Whitmer and wife have gone to Ohio and will be gone a couple of weeks. We rejoice in the good vacation these good people are having.

We celebrated the "Fourth" in Maitland, and had the privilege of meeting many of our old-time friends and parishioners. We dined with our esteemed friends, Mr. and Mrs. James McHugh. We were very royally entertained. There was a large delegation of Oregon people present, and all had a good time.

Mrs. George Meyer and her daughter, Mrs. Kunz, left Wednesday of this week for Wyoming, where they will make an extended visit of several months. They will visit Mrs. Meyer's daughter in that state.

John J. Lukens and his daughter, Florence, returned from St. Louis and Warrensburg, Mo., where they visited last week. While in St. Louis, Brother Lukens was elected delegate to the National Convention of Rural Carriers, which meets in Washington, D. C. in August. This will be a great trip and our good friend is to be congratulated upon such a fine recognition.

THE PASTOR.

Remember that Wednesday, July 15, will be the opening day of Forest City's Second Annual Chautauqua, and as many of the leading business men of St. Joseph, to-day, were former citizens of Forest City, the committee has made this St. Joseph Day. Also on this day Dr. Frank E. Day, of the White Temple, St. Joseph, will deliver one of his interesting lectures. For further particulars, see program published elsewhere in this issue.

Delighted With Old Holt.

We were delighted by a call Wednesday, from J. H. Nolen of Jefferson City, who is the State Commissioner of Land Reclamation, and is one of the state's live wires, in pushing to the fore the greatness of our state. He was the guest of W. H. Richards, who took him up to Bigelow, and Minton townships and gave him a chance to see some of the great wheat fields of our county. He took several panoramic photographs of these fields, which will be exhibited in the Missouri department at the Pacific exposition in San Francisco, next year, in celebrating the opening of the Panama canal. Nolen is a splendid fellow, and is one of those if you ever meet him, you will ever look back to the occasion with pleasure, and unnecessary to inquire from whence came his ancestors.

Negro Farmers in Missouri.

There are 3,753 farms owned by negroes in Missouri. They range in size from three to 365 acres and are worth, lands, buildings, live stock and everything else on the farms, $27,795,750, with the average value of a Missouri farm, $7,405, as a basis for computation. The farm of the average Missouri negro farmer, just like that of his white brother, the bulletin says, is well-kept, the bulletin says, is very productive, growing wheat, corn, oats, grasses, water-melons, strawberries, peaches, apples and all other food necessities. Negroes raised poultry for the market, sell eggs, milk and butter, have bee hives and plenty of honey, produce sugar cane, which, in fall, they boil out for sorghum molasses.

At noon the long table, which had been erected by the men, was spread with all the good things imaginable. After prayers were sung, all partook of the many good things to eat. After dinner some of the men and boys pitched horseshoes, while others played ball, while the children and ladies spent the day swinging and in pleasant conversation. About 4:30 p. m. all gathered together and ate ice cream and cake and drank lemonade until all were satisfied. There were about 125 present. All went home glad they had been there. S. W.
