The Weekly Shoot.

The Oregon Gun Club is again holding weekly shooting events on the grounds of the Oregon Park association, just north of the city.

The meeting Thursday of last week, was very interesting and well attended, the drawing card being an exhibition given for the benefit and instruction of the club by Mr. Ned Castle, of Fort Arthur, Texas, who will be with us again next Thursday. All those desiring to see just how a perfect score is made are cordially invited to meet with us and witness the performance of Mr. Castle, and observe his wonderful skill in "crumbling the clay." He will show us how to shoot "doubles" at the next meet.

Henry Alkire, of Forest City, was with us and participated in the shooting, although not eligible to enter the contest for the medal, which is contested for by regular members only. Other visitors were present, but did not participate in the shooting.

The medal was hotly contested for by Hanson and Raley on a tie, the same going to the latter on a score of 21.

Those contesting and score follows:
 Hanson ..... 21 Raley ..... 21
 Carson ..... 20 Zeller ..... 20
 Turner ..... 19 Williams ..... 18
 Banker ..... 17 Lukens ..... 17
 Richards ..... 16 Pierce ..... 16
 Martin ..... 15 Kahn ..... 14
 Fry ..... 13
 On tie:
 Raley ..... 21 Hanson ..... 20

Obituary.

Catherine Ann Hawks was born January 23, 1822, in Madison county, Ill., and died at White Cloud, August 3, 1914.

She was married to William D. Beeler, October 3, 1839, in Springfield, Madison county, Ill. She was the mother of eight children, of which four boys are still living, John S., George H., Abraham L., and Louis W., three girls and one boy having preceded her.

After her marriage they moved to Dallas county, Mo., and from there to Jefferson City, Mo., and then to Holt county, Mo., where they were run out in the flood of 1844. In February, 1855, they moved to Iowa Point, Kan., and from there to White Cloud, on the old home place, two miles southwest of town, where they have since resided, with the exception of four years spent in Troy while Mr. Beeler was sheriff.

She united with the Christian church at the age of 16, of which she was a faithful member.

She was a devoted mother, ever ready to serve her children at any time. They cannot say too much in praise of their departed one; and they have not waited until life was extinct to strew flowers.

She has been administered unto by her children for years. Too much cannot be said especially in favor of one, George H., who for years has denied himself of every privilege to stay at home with his mother. For months and months he has scarcely left her room. Louis has also been attentive for years. John has been stricken with paralysis. Surely all have been most faithful. She lived to a good old age, was a highly respected neighbor, having always been one to stay at home and attend to her own affairs.

The funeral was conducted by F. Ellsworth Day, of the Christian church, at Highland, on Wednesday, on the beautiful lawn at the home of Louis W. Beeler, and the remains were laid to rest in the Beeler cemetery at their country home. This was one of her late requests to be placed in their own burying grounds, near to the loved ones gone on before.

The family has the sympathy of the community in the loss of their mother and friend.—White Cloud, Kas., Globe, August 6.

The Union Meetings.

The Union services will be held again in the Airdome next Sunday night. Rev. Mr. Snodgrass, the pastor of the Christian church in Savannah, Mo., will be present and preach the sermon. Mr. Snodgrass is a preacher of unusual ability, strong as an evangelist, congenial as a brother, and will give us a great service. Invite your friends and come and fill the Airdome to its fullest capacity. Perry Brooks sang most beautifully last Sunday night, "Where Is My Wandering Boy Tonight," while the views were thrown on the screen, and we shall have a special song again next Sunday night, and every Sunday night. Signed, J. H. THOMPSON, Secretary Alliance.

—We are sorry to learn that George Reed, of Forest City, recently suffered a slight paralytic stroke, but at present is getting along as well as could be expected.

Peculiar Accidental Shooting.

On last Thursday evening, August 13, 1914, a rather peculiar accidental shooting occurred at, or near Forbes, about 8:30. It seems that Grover Harper, aged about 20 years, in company with Miss Bertha Davis, of St. Joseph, aged about 20 also, and who was there visiting, were out buggy riding. The team became unmanageable and ran away about one mile south of Forbes, so we are informed, and in attempting to stop them he dropped one of the lines, but finally succeeded in stopping them by pulling on one line and running them into a fence. He then stepped out to recover the line, then starting to get back into the buggy, some one fired a shotgun at them, loaded with fine shot, about 20 shot lodging in the left side of the face, chest and arm of Miss Davis, and two shot passed through the nose of Grover.

Dr. J. L. Hogan, of Oregon, was called, and succeeded in removing the shot from Miss Davis' face, arm and chest. The doctor informs us that there will not be any serious results. But it certainly was a close call, especially for the eyes, and it is almost a miracle that the result was not serious.

At the point where the shooting occurred, or near there is a tent, occupied, so we are informed, by three men, who are engaged in making hay. And now it is alleged that one of the men, occupying the tent, who says his name is William Taylor, admits that he fired the shot, but that it was accidental. He alleges that he fired the shot, as parties had been annoying him, and on this occasion, thinking some one was coming to annoy him, he fired the shot to scare them, and aimed to fire up in the air, but the night being dark, he fired lower than he expected. However, no complaint has been filed, hence no arrests, and we presume this will likely end the chapter.

Grover Harper, who was out riding with Miss Davis, is a son of John Harper, section foreman for the Burlington, at Forbes, and is said to be an exemplary young man.

Terrible and Fatal Accident.

Gus Roecker, of Mound City, received a telegram, Friday of last week, August 14, from Mrs. Emma Bonnie, of Lima, O., that her husband, Robert Bonnie, had been killed in an automobile accident, Friday, August 14. Mr. Roecker and wife immediately took the train for Lima. A letter received here since they arrived at Lima, states that Mr. Bonnie and three other gentlemen were riding in an automobile, and in crossing a railroad track, near Lima, the train struck the automobile, killing all four of them. Mrs. Bonnie was formerly Miss Emma Stahl, and made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Roecker, who nearly raised her, having lived with them in Oregon for a short time, and afterward when they moved to Mound City, she lived with them for eight or ten years, and was married at their home. Mrs. Bonnie's many friends in Mound City and Oregon, extend heartfelt sympathies to her in her hour of bereavement.

Kicked By A Horse.

Max Baker, the little ten-year old son of Harry Baker and wife, about three miles northwest of Oregon, was quite severely kicked in the face and nose by a horse, Thursday evening of last week, August 13th. The nose was quite badly mashed, and a gash was cut underneath the nose, extending across the face. Dr. J. L. Hogan, of this city, was called and patched the little fellow up. Fortunately no bones were broken, and while the little fellow suffered considerable, he is now resting as comfortably as possible, under the circumstances, and will recover in a few weeks, but it is likely he will carry a scar through life with him.

Taken to Girls' Industrial Home.

Ora Wall, the 16-year-old daughter of James Wall and wife, was taken to the Girls' Industrial Home at Chillicothe, Saturday evening last, by Sheriff Gelvin. She had been placed under parole by Circuit Judge Burnes, but on Saturday noon, August 8th, 1914, it is alleged she entered the jail, during the brief absence of Sheriff Gelvin and wife, and securing the keys tried to unlock a cell in which was confined Miss Daisy Miller, for a year, on a charge of vagrancy, and release her. She did not succeed, however, the result being that her parole was revoked, and she was taken to the home, where she will likely remain for several years.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

Preaching by the pastor next Sunday morning. Sunday school at 9:45. There was a good audience last Sunday morning, but the Sunday school was not up to normal. Let us get back into the work heartily, as the fall is almost here and vacation time is almost over.

Mrs. Clagett is visiting at her old home in Appleton City, and will be away a couple of weeks.
