Of unusual interest is the announcement of the ST. LOUIS GLOBE DEMOCRAT to be found elsewhere in this issue. The "Twice-a-Week" edition of that sterling publication, a great Semi-Weekly newspaper with a Weekly Farm and Home Magazine Section IN COLORS, is offered at the special rate of two years or two yearly subscriptions for one dollar. The DAILY GLOBE-DEMO-CRAT, six issues per week, is offered to Rural Free Delivery and Star Route patrons, yearly subscriptions only, for $2.50 per year, or if the Sunday paper is desired, seven issues per week, for $4.50 per year. The regular price of the DAILY GLOBE-DEMOCRAT including Sunday, is $6.00 per year. Sunday only $2.00 per year. Read the announcement and order the GLOBE-DEMOCRAT, either daily or "Twice-a-Week," to-day. Address Globe Printing Company, publishers, St.
Louis, Mo.

Society.

The annual holiday party of the P.
E. O.'s this year took the form of a delightful luncheon at the home of Mrs. M. R. Martin on Wednesday, December 30. The tables were beautiful in the Xmas colors of red and green. The Xmas spirit was further manifested by the work accomplished that day. The ladies were invited to come early and to stay late to seek for the Sponsoring Arms children in St.
Joseph. The committee has Chapter Z's thanks for a delightful and profitable day. N. N.

Misses Hazel Hulatt and Hazel Patterson entertained at the home of the former on Friday evening, January 1st. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and contests. The front rooms were decorated in red and green and the dining room in green and white. An elegant two-course luncheon was served. Covers were laid for twelve. N.

Miss Velma Markt entertained at her country home, a number of friends at a "watch party," New Year's Eve, December 31, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by the young people. The party from town was conveyed to the Markt home in a big bobbed by Jas. Riley, who also brought the party back to town. A two course luncheon was served.

Ministers' Alliance.

The Alliance met last Monday at tarnoon at the Presbyterian Manse in Oregon with ten ministers present.
Rev. Mr. Metzrow, pastor of the United Brethren church, of Madland, was present and became a member of the Alliance. Through him an invitation was extended to the ministers of Madland to join the Alliance. All ministers in the county are eligible to membership and we would like to have them all become members, the meetings being held from time to time at the various centers of the county.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Rev. J.
W. Anderson; Vice-President, Rev. S.
C. Disinger; Secretary and Treasurer, Rev. T. A. Clagett.

The special feature of this month's meeting was an address by Rev. T. D.
Roberts, of New Point, on "The Second Coming of Christ," which was extremely interesting and illuminating. It was followed by a general discussion of the subject, participated in by all the brethren present.

The Alliance will meet Monday, February 1, at the Evangelical parsonage with Rev. S. C. Disinger, T. A. CLAGETT, Secretary.

Burr Oak.

—Miss Ella Hopper visited friends in Craig, last week.

—Miss Etta Stone is visiting her sisters, Meslames Chas. and Harry Ramsey.

—Sam, Akire has built a fine cow shed. Sam says it is too cold to "pull the cows out in the snow."

—During the month of December farmers have been putting up ice out of the Missouri river—14 inches thick.

—Miller Blechly and family, Ed.
Anno and family, and Mr. and Mrs.
Vince Hopper were guests of S. W.
Anno and family, Sunday.

—An oyster supper and watch party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Dively on New Year's Eve.
Quite a number were present.

—There have been church services at the Burr Oak schoolhouse for several nights, conducted by Rev. Helmut.
Interest is good. Reinforcement is expected soon.

James Duke has been furnishing several of the farmers hogs for their meat. There have been more farmers hunting hogs to butcher than was ever known before.

—We understand Henry Foley, a former resident of Holt county, but now a resident of Falls City, Nebraska, was badly hurt while breaking a pair of bronches recently.

—Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Lunsford and son, Floyd, visited relatives here the latter part of last week. They were accompanied to their home in Savannah by his sister, Miss Della Lunsford.

—Joseph Hopper, in company with his brother, Fred, were visiting with their sister, Mrs. Robert Spoon, in Tarkio, during Christmas week.
While there Joseph accidentally shot the end of his forefinger off. Joe thinks this will bother him from learning to play the violin.

—Mr. William Hopper, who has been spending the holidays in Ness City, Kansas, with his sons, James and Jerry, and his daughters, Mrs.
Charlie Henley and Mrs. Will Henley, has returned home. While there we understand Mr. H. had the pleasure of attending the wedding of one of his grandsons—James Hopper's son.

January Whitewear Sale

Our First Big Sale this season begins Monday, January 11th.
A magnificent showing of Undermuslins and Waists in all the newest designs at prices made specially low for this event.

We take this opportunity to announce the date of this sale to the readers of the Holt County Sentinel in order that our out-of-town customers may share equally the advantages of this sale with our St. Joseph trade.

This will give you a chance to make arrangements so that you may attend the sale early, before assortments are broken.

Come prepared to see better values than usual, for it has been a long time since the market has been so much in favor of the buyer, and our buyers have certainly taken advantage of market conditions and you will reap the benefit.

This early sale of Whitewear will consist of Gowns, Corset Covers, Drawers, Petticoats, Chemise, Princess Slips and Combinations, also a very complete line of Waists in newest designs.

Every style that is new will be represented, the materials are all dependable and the workmanship is perfect.

The very low prices made in this sale are made for the purpose of inducing you to anticipate your wants. Come, inspect our offerings and you will be convinced that this is a great sale and one in which the advantages are very much in your favor.

Pie, Chicken and Shadow Supper.

Do you know that shadows fly at night?
Well, they do, and well they might.
For every lassie will bring a pie And laddies will sure to be nigh.
Now watch and roll your orris For something is going to happen at Forties.
On January 8, it will be At the schoolhouse you can't fail to see, So with your lassie come; don't be late,
For shadows will fly as sure as fate.
—HERNICK HULLOCK, Teacher.
