

—T. A. Long, Veterinary.

—American wire fencing at Ruley & Kunkel's.

—Maitland will soon be lighted by electricity.

—C. D. Zook was in St. Joseph, Friday of last week.

—Kenneth Welch is rustating in St. Joseph, for a few days.

—Everybody in the county expects Oregon to celebrate July 4.

—Mrs. C. D. Zook was in St. Joseph, Saturday of last week.

—Miss Pauline Jones visited with friends in St. Joseph, last week.

—G. H. Price was in St. Joseph, this week, for medical treatment.

—W. S. Gifford, of Carson, was in St. Joseph, Monday of this week.

—Judge B. F. Morgan had business in St. Joseph, Saturday of last week.

—Will Hanna transacted business in St. Joseph, Thursday of last week.

—Paul Elliott, of Mound City, was a St. Joseph visitor, Monday of this week.

—Wanted—Housework by an experienced girl. Enquire at SENTINEL office.

—Get ready at once, and let us make July 4, 1915, a grand event in Oregon.

—Just the season for Kodaking. Send your finishing to Weary, Oregon, Missouri.

—H. C. Cook and son, Fred, were looking after business in Corning, last Saturday.

—Robert Noelstein, of near Oregon, was a St. Joseph visitor, Monday of this week.

—Charles Adkins, of Corning, had business in St. Joseph, Thursday of last week.

—Jacob Marks visited with his brother, John, and family in Mound City, this week.

—E. E. Weary, the photographer at Oregon, sure has his prices right on Kodak finishing.

—A. J. Sommer, of the Mayflower school district, had business in St. Joseph, last Monday.

—James Thompson, of Mound City, had business in Oregon, Friday and Saturday of last week.

—V. L. Swain, of Hickory township, was transacting business in Oregon, Friday of last week.

—George Greiner, of the Culp school district, has returned from a few days' visit in St. Joseph.

—Dr. Whitsell, eye and ear specialist; see corner 6th and Edmond, St. Joseph. Both phones, 913.

—Mike Prussman, of Forbes township, was called to St. Joseph on business, Thursday of last week.

—Attorney James Stokes of Craig, was attending to legal business in St. Joseph, Monday of this week.

—Don Morgan, our railroad agent, and his son, Max, had business in St. Joseph, Monday of this week.

—Miss Helen Seaman is visiting in Kansas City, the guest of her uncle and aunt, J. W. Hill and wife.

—Miss Bess Smith left this week for Kirksville, where she will attend the summer term of the Normal.

—Tom Stewart, of Forest City, is in St. Joseph, visiting his daughter, Mrs. Carl Baker, and husband.

—R. S. Stephenson and wife, of the White school district, had business in St. Joseph, Monday of this week.

—Baled Timothy and Alfalfa Hay for sale. Farmers' Phone, 449.

J. A. MITCHELL.

—Gerald Arthur Hulser, born May 19, 1915, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hulser, of the Bluff City school district.

—We are glad to learn of the improved condition of Paul Frye's eye, which was so badly injured recently.

—Buy that farm now that you have been wanting. Lukens & Keown will furnish the money at a low rate of interest.

—Mrs. James Carder, of St. Joseph, is visiting here, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary K. Seeman, and other relatives.

—Gulnn Quick and Mamie Tucker, of Forest City, were married in St. Joseph, May 22, by Justice of the Peace Forgrave.

—George S. Lukens and Ed. Keown, real estate dealers, of this city, were looking after business interests in St. Joseph, Friday of last week.

—John F. Foster, Uncle John Meade and Al. Guser, of Forbes township, were transacting business in St. Joseph, Monday of this week.

—O. P. Babb, of Mound City, who has been visiting for a few days with his son, Col. P. M. Babb, and family, returned to his home, this week.

—A carload of the old original American wire fencing has just been unloaded by Ruley & Kunkel. See them for the best fencing made.

—It is time our business men and citizens were completing arrangements for a great Big Fourth-of-July celebration in Oregon, July 4, 1915.

—Mrs. Amos Moore and son, Harold, left Sunday last for a week or ten days' visit with relatives and friends in Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Omaha, Nebraska.

—All sizes glazed tile at Ruley & Kunkel's.

—Carl Huntsman visited an aunt in Kansas City, Mo., Saturday and Sunday last.

—Mrs. Will Tillery is the guest of her mother, and other relatives in St. Joseph, this week.

—Mrs. E. C. Benton is visiting her niece, Mrs. Moody, and husband, at Fair City, Nebraska.

—See Lukens & Keown about that well-improved acre tract near Oregon. One of the best in the neighborhood.

—Mrs. Emma Dray, of this city, attended the commencement exercises at Mound City, Friday evening of last week.

—Born to James Wall and wife, of Oregon, Mo., Tuesday morning, May 25, 1915, a fine baby boy. Dr. J. A. Klipp in attendance.

—Born to Walter Springs and wife, in the Wilson school district, Forbes township, Holt county, Mo., Monday, May 24, 1915, a girl baby.

—Films, all sizes developed, the roll. Write for prices on finishing "24 hour service." THE KODAK FINISHING CO., St. Joseph, Mo.

—Crouse, Painter & Co., of Mound City, Mo., have a new well-boring machine, depth 150 feet. Farmers' Phone, 55. Independent, 246.

—Lost—Pocket book, containing a $50 bill, two silver dollars and some change. Finder please return to this office and receive suitable reward.

—The Fourth of July will be celebrated on Saturday, July 3, at Maitland. The people of that town are making arrangements for a grand old time.

—Miss Ethel Kreek is visiting in Baker, Kansas, the guest of her sister, Miss Olive, who is an instructor in the Baldwin University, of that place.

—Charley Brooks, living on the Robert Kneal place, had 40 head of cattle out on Tuesday, that averaged 1300 pounds. He shipped to St. Joseph.

—Katherine Reeves and Glenna Holatt are now the owners of new and handsome bicycles, and they are inseparable only when asleep in their little beds.

—Edmund Roselius, of Corning, was in Oregon on business, Tuesday of this week. Mr. Roselius reports everything in a prosperous condition in his neighborhood.

—Irvin Metzler, of Forbes, is now smiling as he never did before; his wife presented him with a fine girl baby, Saturday last. The introduction being made by Dr. J. L. Hogan.

—Mrs. Grace Stone, of Robstown, Texas, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. C. Stallard and family, of Forest City, for a couple of months, left for her home in Texas, this week.

—Misses Anne Kinzie and Nellie Prussman left this week to enter the Maryville Normal school for the summer. The former will teach in the Oregon public schools the coming school year.

—D. M. Martin had his new lay barn, 22x30, in the Chambers school district, about six miles southeast of Oregon, blown down by the storm, Tuesday morning of this week. His loss will be around $100.

—Miss Dale Zeller, who has been the principal in the High school at Bowling Green, returned home, Tuesday of this week, for the vacation period. She has been re-employed again by the school there.

—Mrs. Susan Pinkston, of Kansas City, is visiting here with Mrs. Charles Ruley and other friends and relatives. She reports her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. Frank Kreek and wife, as well, happy and prospering.

—Miss Lydia Acton left Tuesday for Kirksville, where she will attend the Normal, taking the teachers' training course for the summer term. She will have charge of the Forbes school for the next school year.

—Joseph Garrett, of near Craig, was in St. Joseph, Thursday of last week, where he was having an ulcer on one of his eyes treated by Dr. W. C. Proud, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. He says he is being greatly benefited by the treatment.

—Mrs. G. W. Cummins was in St. Joseph, Thursday and Friday of last week, where she attended a luncheon in honor of Mrs. Dr. Bell, the retiring president of the Ladies' Presbyterian Missionary Society of the Westminster church, of that city.

—The next examination by the State Board of Pharmacy will be held at Pertie Springs, June 14 and 15. All applications for examination must be in the office of the secretary, E. G. Cox, Craig, Mo., at least ten days before the examination is held.

—Linn Derr and son, Master Charlie, of the Woods school district, were in St. Joseph, Monday of this week, Mr. Derr going down to see his wife, who was operated upon at the Entworth hospital, in that city, about three weeks ago. Mr. Derr informs us that his wife is now getting along nicely, and that he hopes, within a short time she will be able to be removed to her home.

—Our sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Smith Derr, of Benton district, over the loss of their baby boy, who came to brighten their home August 29 last. The little one was laid to rest Sunday.

—Robert Montgomery and wife attended the commencement exercises of the Skidmore High school Friday evening of last week, and witnessed the graduation of their grandson, Neil, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Montgomery.

—Mrs. C. C. Bell and daughter, Frances, are visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Minnie Bell Piper, and husband, at Bellingham, Wash. Mrs. Bell was formerly Anna Luckhardt, of Oregon, and was one of the youngest of school tots, in the days of long ago.

—From now on our young friend, Fred, son of Mrs. Sarah Hershey, of this city, will have the right to write D. D. S. after his name, having graduated from the Western Dental College, at Kansas City, last week. We hope for his success in his chosen profession.

—Miss Midge Randall, the 14-year-old daughter of Samuel Randall, of the Brush College school district, was operated upon for appendicitis, Sunday last, May 23, 1915, by Drs. Wood and Simmons, assisted by Dr. J. L. Hogan. Late reports state she is getting along nicely.

—Horace Larson, of Clay township, was in Oregon, Friday of last week, attending to business, and renewing acquaintance with his many old-time friends. It looked mighty natural and good to see Horace on the streets of Oregon, again—reminded us of the times of long ago.

—Frank Baker and wife, of Forest City, are in St. Joseph, at the home of his son, C. B. Baker, who is operating a rooming house at 510 1/2 King Hill avenue, South St. Joseph. Frank's wife is in poor health and is there for medical treatment. We sincerely hope that she will be greatly benefited.

—D. P. Smallwood and wife, of Excelsior Springs, Mo., are here, visiting his brother, R. J., and wife and other relatives. They are both looking fine. D. P. says his son, Will, who has been in poor health for a long time, is now much improved, and is able to look after his own business.

—We are glad to learn that Ed. Ratser, formerly of this city, but now with his wife and family residing in St. Joseph, and who has been very sick for several weeks, is now much better, is able to be up and around, and will soon be able to "make a hand" again. This will be good news to Ed's numerous friends in Holt county.

—Mrs. A. D. Piper, of Kansas City, is here on a visit with her children, Charles W. Bartram, wife and children. She will also visit with her many friends while here. She and her sister, Mrs. Sue Pinkston, who accompanied her, are certainly looking fine, and shows that this world is treating them well.

—B. F. McGinnis, of Wray, Colo., is visiting here, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Lawrence Walker, and family, and will remain for a week or ten days. He came to market with stock, and availed himself of this opportunity for a visit with his sister. He says every prospect in his section is good for a bumper crop.

—A handsomely engraved commencement card comes to us from Russel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eccles, formerly of this city, but now at Eldon, Mo., where the senior is engaged in the telephone business, as he was while a resident here. Russel's former school chums here send him their greetings on his graduation.

—Miss Saloma Smith is at home for the vacation period, from Centralia, Mo., where she has been employed as a teacher in the High school, of that city, having charge of the Teachers' Training Work. That she gave the best of satisfaction is evidenced by the fact that she has been re-employed for the coming school year.

—John Rogers, who made the Big Tarko and Mill Creek drainage ditches in this county, has been awarded the contract for the digging of the Little Rivers drainage canal in Southeastern Missouri. It is the biggest job of its kind ever awarded in Missouri, and will entertain and keep Mr. Rogers out of mischief for three good, long years. The people of that part of our bully good state will find Mr. Rogers a splendid fellow, of the all-wool-and-yard-wide variety.

—Although a little late, the many friends of Miss Grace Colvin, formerly of this city and Maitland, and who numbers her friends by the score, will be glad to learn of her marriage at her home in St. Joseph, Mo., April 3, 1915, to Mr. J. S. Mitchell, also of the same city, and who is connected with one of the leading stock commission firms of South St. Joseph, occupying a responsible and lucrative position with his firm. They are now at home to their friends in St. Joseph. Her many friends join with THE SENTINEL in wishing her a long, happy and prosperous journey through life.

—Attorney W. H. Richards had legal business in St. Joseph, Monday last.

—Pete Galbraith journeyed to St. Joseph last Monday, and visited for a few hours with his son, Will, and family.

—J. H. Kneith, our tailor, was visiting with relatives, and looking after business interests in St. Joseph, for a day or so, this week.

—Miss Margaret Boyd attended the State Federation of Women's Clubs, in St. Joseph, Monday of this week. They will be in session there all week.

—Dr. Sherman Hibbard and wife, of Kansas City, are here for a few days' rest and visit with Mrs. Hibbard's parents, C. D. Zook and wife, and other friends and relatives.

—Rev. J. S. Cunningham and wife, who have been stationed at Hollister, this state, are here for a few days' visit with relatives. They are removing to Albany, Mo., near which place Rev. Cunningham will have a charge.

—Mrs. D. A. Geivin and her sister, Miss Sarah Myers, who arrived last week from Pennsylvania, left Monday morning for Rochester, Minnesota, where Miss Myers will be treated for internal trouble. Miss Frances accompanied them, but will remain there only a few days.—Maitland Herald, May 23.

—H. E. Chamberlain, of the Highland school district, southeast of Oregon, was on the St. Joseph market, Monday of this week, looking after some feeding cattle, but as he said, "they were higher than a cat's back," so he did not invest. Harve moved from Hickory township, to where he is now located, and he says he likes his new home, and also says Oregon is a good trading point.

—The C. E. Society of the Christian church enjoyed one of its old-fashioned meetings last Sunday evening, with Miss Myrtle E. French as leader. The attendance was large and much interest was taken in the lesson. A full hour was used in songs, special music, and addresses upon the topic, and Scripture reading and Bible study. Only two to whom parts had been assigned, were absent.

—Ollie Cole, chief engineer at the Oregon water and light plant, in Forest City, met with a serious accident to his left eye, Tuesday, May 11. He was working with a casting when a piece of steel flew and struck him in the left eye. He was immediately taken to St. Joseph, where the steel was removed from the eye by Dr. W. C. Proud, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, and he is now getting along all right.

—Mrs. F. S. Morgan, daughters, Mrs. George F. Seeman, and daughter, Mary; Mrs. John Crider, Mrs. A. J. Kreek and Miss Ella Castle have returned from St. Joseph, where they attended the graduation exercises of the Ensworth Training School for Nurses, Miss Olive Morgan, a daughter and sister, being among the graduates. The exercises were held at the White Temple M. E. church, Monday evening of this week.

J. C. WHITMER, DENTIST.
PROUD BUILDING,
North Side of Square,
Both Phones.

A LIVE WIRE

Every citizen of Oregon and vicinity is urgently requested to be present at the Court House, Monday Night, May 31, for the purpose of organizing A New Commercial Club and to elect officers and have a general mass meeting to make Oregon the best town on the map. This doesn't only mean the people in town, but the people in the country as well.

Let Us All Get Busy!

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

DODGE BROTHERS,
MOTOR CAR

With the joy of spring in your blood, there is a constant temptation to be at the wheel of a car like this.

Its instantaneous responsiveness, the ease with which it gets under way, the abundance of power, the pronounced gliding sensation, the steadiness at high speed, the freedom from gear shifting, the soft, full-leather cushions, the sensitive springs—these and other qualities enable you to realize to the full the delights of motoring.

The wheelbase is 110 inches
The price of the car complete is $785
(f. o. b. Detroit)

COOK & FOSTER, OREGON, MO.

—Miss Pauline Zeller, of near Skidmore, visited relatives and friends here the latter part of last week and attended the Commencement exercises. Her brother, Wayne, was a graduate. Miss Pauline has been teaching the King Grove school the past school year and will enter the summer school at the Maryville Normal this week.

—We congratulate the Woodmen of the World organization at Bigelow on being granted articles of incorporation at the recent session of our circuit court. This is one of the liveliest of live wires in the fraternal insurance organizations of our county and nation; and he is not wise if he does not avail himself of membership in Bigelow camp. They are surely a lively bunch up there.