Good Roads Meeting.
The Holt County Automobile and Good Roads Association, held its meeting here Saturday last week, and adopted its by-laws, fixing the annual dues at $2.00, and added the name of G. H. Minton, as the second vice president, John S. Smith having been chosen first vice president at the previous meeting.

Two members at large of the executive committee were also chosen. These were: Charles McCandlish and H. C. Hitz.

There were a large number of names added to the membership roll, and a real live meeting was held. Mr. Cowan, the president presided, and Secretary Jno. H. Peret, was active in keeping the record.

The association adjourned to meet at Mound City tomorrow, Saturday, February 10th and we refer to this meeting elsewhere in this issue.

Business Changes.
The Teare Brothers, for many years identified with the commercial life of Forest City, have disposed of their stock of general merchandise to a Mr. Connell, of St. Joseph, who took possession last week, and is now "it" at the old Teare Brothers stand.

It is to be regretted that this old firm has concluded to quit. But as the time comes and goes, waiting for no one, it is presumed that they concluded to retire at a time when they could enjoy the years to come to them. It matters not where they go, they will ever be an asset to any community. We welcome the new owner, and trust his every expectation may be fully realized by his coming to Forest City.

The Maitland Herald gives us the information that James B. McHugh, last week, became the sole owner of the D. W. McHugh grocery stock at Maitland. "Jim" is a splendid, all-around good fellow, and he surely knows the business and how to run it.

SCHOOL NOTES.
The Senior class will give a literary program Friday night, February 9th. An admission of 15 cents will be charged. The proceeds are to be used to purchase a gift for the High School by the Class of '17.

Program.
Vocal solo, Eleanor Kunkel.
Instrumental duet, Pauline Ealey and Virginia Netherland.
Song, girls' chorus.
Play: "Fun In a Photograph Gallery."

Misses Pauline Ruley and Virginia Netherland visited rural school last week with Mrs. Alberta Green-Murphy, county superintendent—the young ladies taught school. Mrs. Murphy inspected other schools in the same neighborhood. Mrs. Murphy is taking the members of the teacher-training classes to visit the rural school to observe and do practice teaching.

Chapel exercises are now held on Thursday of each week in the High Schools. A number of patrons have promised to make talks for us. The hour is 9:30 to 9:50.

—Born to James Murray and wife, of this city, at Dr. Gray's Maternity Home in St. Joseph, Tuesday morning, February 6, 1917, a fine girl baby. All concerned are doing well, especially J. H. and wife.

—J. H. Murray, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Josephine, will leave this week by automobile, for Joe's big ranch near Dighton, Kansas. We understand they will be away for a month, we are informed.

—Lawrence Walker writes us from Macon, Mississippi, under date of January 30, 1917, as follows: "This leaves us all in good health. This is a lovely day, 75 degrees in the shade—flowers blooming. I am very busy, as spring work has begun."

—Miss Anna Eiegenbaum came up from St. Joseph last Saturday evening, and remained over Sunday, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Tom Curry.

—A. W. Kelley, of LaCygne, Kansas, has returned to his "first love," and is now located on what is known as the Wylie place, on the White Cloud road. Webb has been away six years. We extend him a hearty welcome back to the old home.

—Miss Hattie Meyer has returned from a few days' visit with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Mont Curry, of Kansas City.

—Mrs. Amos Moore and son Harold, and Mrs. Fuller and daughter, Alma, were St. Joseph visitors, one day last week.

—Born to Leslie Burrier and wife, February 2, 1917, a fine girl baby, Dr. J. L. Hogan in attendance.

—Abbie Green, who is in the chemistry department with Swift & Company, St. Joseph, has recently returned from Chicago, where he was sent to take an examination in the chemistry department of Swift & Company, in that city. It is needless to say that he made a fine average and passed with a big margin. If we do not miss our guess, Abbie will be the head man in this department in one of the Swift establishments.

BIGELOW NEWS.

Many Items of Interest From Bigelow Township, as Told By Geo. A. Canaway.

—The sun shone brightly all day Saturday and there is no doubt that Mr. Groundhog saw his shadow and immediately returned to his home for another six weeks. People in this vicinity, at least, will not say the legend is untrue as the weather man got busy right away and early Sunday morning another northern blizzard was on the job and the thermometer dropped to zero with prospects of going far below before the storm was over. Indications seem to be that our winter weather is just beginning and that February and March will make up for all last time.

—John Coughlin returned last Sunday afternoon from a business trip in Lathrop and Kansas City, Mo.

—On account of the cold weather last Thursday evening the debate at the school house was postponed.

—Imogene Thompson of Mound City was visiting with Gertrude and Marion Maier last Saturday.

—Miss Sallie Acock visited with home folks south of Mound City last Sunday.

—Jim Smith and wife were shopping in St. Joseph last Saturday.

—J. C. Melvin shipped a car load of alfalfa hay to Kansas City one day last week.

—It is reported that a car load of alfalfa hay sold on the track here last week to Hay King John Coughlin for two hundred and seventy-seven dollars. No doubt the largest price ever paid for a single car load of hay at this point.

—Mrs. T. J. Bridgman, Mrs. S. W. Skelton and Mrs. W. F. Bain were passengers to Mound City last Saturday morning.

—Mrs. M. B. Williams was visiting with friends in Skidmore, Mo., one day last week.

—C. S. McKee was in St. Joseph last Saturday purchasing new goods for his up to date store.

—Mrs. and Mrs. W. M. Whaley were down from Maitland last Saturday visiting with relatives.

—Ceel Curry who was recently discharged from the regular army was quite sick last week at the home of Henry Overlay. He is much better this week and it is thought will be all right within a few days.

—Ridley Larkins and wife are occupying the Mrs. J. W. Heckathorne residence during the absence of Mrs. Heckathorne and son Lew in Montana.

—Mrs. F. E. Hogan who has been visiting with her sister Mrs. Dick Graham and family in Santa Barbara, California, for several weeks returned home last Saturday afternoon.

—There is quite a lot of sickness in the neighborhood, almost every body is having a case of the grippe and Dr. Hogan is kept pretty busy looking after the sick folks.

—The following delegates to the Head Camp of the Woodmen of the World to be held in Columbia, Mo., March 29 were elected at a regular meeting of Bigelow Camp, No. 35, last Saturday evening: T. J. Bridgman, Fred St. John and V. A. Solleder, alternates are W. H. Wilson, Tom Bunker and Ralph Lease. These gentlemen will no doubt represent the Camp with both credit to themselves and the order. A good selection.

—Rev. C. B. Duncan of St. Joseph held services at Tarkio chapel last Saturday evening and on account of the cold weather services Sunday morning were postponed. While here Bro. Duncan was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Slater.

—Ed Preston spent the week end visiting his sister, Mrs. J. H. Dunham, in Westboro, Mo.

—The Woodmen Circle held their regular meeting at W. O. W. Hall last Saturday afternoon, there was a good crowd in attendance, lunch was served and considerable business of importance was transacted. Mrs. J. T. Dodson was elected a delegate to represent the Grove at their next convention which is to be held next March. At the next regular meeting there will be several applications to be voted upon and all members should be present.

—Frank Walker was a business visitor in Mound City last Saturday.

—John Gresham is on the sick list this week.

Forest City and Vicinity.
—The Epworth League of the Methodist church of Forest City met at the parsonage when the Rev. was at St. Joseph, Mo. On his return he found his home occupied by about thirty Leaguers who were seemingly enjoying themselves. They left a substantial donation of good things to eat, and departed at a late hour leaving their best wishes to the preacher and his family.

—H. B. Connell of St. Joseph bought the Teare Brothers store last week. He will move to Forest City later on.

—Corbin Cliff and family visited in Forbes, Wednesday.

—Mrs. Ella Watson visited with Ben Crouser and family in Oregon, Sunday.

—Kenneth Sentney of Hutchinson, Kansas, is here visiting Emil Weber and wife.

—Mrs. Lawn Elder of Mound City, Mo., visited with her mother, Mrs. Susan Bledsoe, a few days this week.

—Dr. Chandler reports the birth of a fine baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. George Foster, on the 24 instant.

—Jim Hulatt, of Richland, Earl Noelsch of Maitland, were here Saturday on some business matters.

From J. W. Morris.
J. W. Morris writes us under date of January 27, 1917, from La Pryour, Texas: "We have had a very dry winter. Last season was a very bad season for this vicinity. The big storm in September, 1916, destroyed our cotton crop, and our grain crop was a failure. Most of us are getting into the cattle business, so we will soon be all right. La Pryour will make a fight for the county seat this fall and we are going to get it. Give my regards to all my own friends."

From C. W. Hurst.
McAllen, Texas, January 29, 1917
The Sentinel, Oregon, Mo.

Dear Friends:—
As per my promise to write, we arrived at Mission in fine shape, and are living one-half mile east of town, on the Mission, McAllen, Boulevard. Our car came through all O. K., and was twelve days on the road. A few potatoes were frozen, but were not hurt much. Chickens were six days, but came through without any loss and are doing fine. We are building and will move within the next three weeks. The weather is fine except a couple of cold rains, which were fine for truck. There is estimated to be about 8,000 acres of cabbage in the Valley. Cabbage is averaging eight to ten tons per acre, and is selling at $90 per ton, F. O. B. Was out on the Edinburg road yesterday, and saw several planting corn. Grape fruit and oranges were plentiful, but are getting scarce, and are selling at fancy prices. Fancy grape fruit is $5.00 per box. Chickens are high, 2-pound fries, $1.00 each; eggs are 45 cents per dozen. The Valley is booming. You can look in any direction you please, and you can see new houses going up and new groves being planted. This country has the usual number of boosters and knowers, but take the country as a whole, I believe it will be one of the best agricultural and citrus fruit sections of the United States. I send best regards to all friends in Old Holt, and invite you, when convenient, to visit the Valley. I assure you that you will find the larch-string on the outside.

Respectfully, C. W. HURST.

The Darned Old Crank.
The crank, no matter where you find it, will cause trouble some time, and while John Lukens, the affable and accommodating rural carrier on route one, out of Oregon, has never before been opposed to the crank, he is now dead set against them, and is positive that the crank is a nuisance and as treacherous as a Sioux Indian. While out on his route in his auto Monday, of this week, February 5th, he had occasion to crank his car, and while in the performance of this duty, the crank got mad at John, and in the dispute, the crank broke John's right arm for him, which the crank knew would put him out of business for a few days, and Ray Lukens will deliver the mail on his route for him.
