ed by their children, and the decorations were in harmony with the occasion, yellow and white predominating.

A number of valuable presents were given by the relatives and friends, both here and abroad.

The groom of fifty years ago, like his wife, is of Scottish-Irish stock. He was born in Crawford county, Ohio, March 29, 1844. He grew to young manhood near DeKalb in that county, and received a fairly good education at the DeKalb Seminary, and it was here that he met Eliza Cahill, a school-mate, and they learned to have a fondness for each other.

When a lad of 13 he took to the mercantile life by clerking in a store at DeKalb, until he was 17 years of age, when he answered his country's call by enlisting in Company H, 6th Ohio Infantry of Sherman's famous brigade, and received his baptism of blood at the Battle of Shiloh, and also participated in the Battle of Chickamauga, where he was severely wounded by a shell in the right hip. He was also in the battles of Murfreesboro, Prarieville and many others, going through the Atlanta campaign, and took part in the Hood-Thomas campaign in the battles of Franklin and Nashville. He was also wounded in the battle of Murfreesboro.

Closing his army career with an honorable discharge, he concluded to come West and grow up with the country, and in May, 1865, following his pa and ma, he came to Oregon, and in the fall of that year began his business career, by associating himself with the late George Anderson in the hardware business. He disposed of his interest to Joseph Hoblitzell, and then clerked for the late Samuel Watson until 1871. In 1872 he went to the farm known as the Roecker place, now owned by A. H. Bailey. He continued on the farm until 1878, when he formed a partnership with George Anderson in the general merchandise business, and continued this until 1888, when he and Hiram Hershberger formed a partnership, Mr. H. buying the Anderson interest, and they continued this business until 1893, when Mr. Cummins took over the business, which he conducted until 1907, when Mr. Hershberger bought the stock and moved it to Eskridge, Kansas. Since this time Mr. Cummins has lived a retired life, with the exception of holding the office of county treasurer from 1905 to 1909, inclusive, and is now public administrator, serving his third term. In his entire business and public career, Mr. Cummins has proven himself a high-minded, honorable, safe and conservative business man.

The school-day courtship culminated in the marriage of G. W. Cummins and Eliza Cahill, at the farm home of the bride's parents, near DeKalb, Ohio, on May 28, 1867, the ceremony being performed by Dr. D. Simmons, of the Lutheran church of that place. Mr. Cummins grew weary of being West, and boarding round, concluded to go back to the old scenes where he had a girl he had left behind him.

The day following the marriage, the couple started West for Oregon, and came to St. Joseph, over the old Hannibal & St. Joseph railroad, arriving at St. Joseph, on May 31, and here they took the steamer, "Colorado," for Forest City, leaving St. Joseph at 9 a. m., and arrived at Forest City, June 1, 1867, about 3 p. m. The boat tied up near the old brick warehouse, and the gang-plank reached from the boat's fore-castle to the old plank walk near the warehouse. They came over to Oregon, and the couple soon began the task of home-building in our city, where they have constantly resided.

Here their two children came to them, and have proven a blessing in the fullest—the son, Guy L., is the cashier of the Zook & Roecker bank, of this city, and Gertrude, now the wife of Rev. A. D. Seelig, of the Presbyterian church, at Humboldt, Nebraska.

Mrs. Cummins prior to her being led to the altar was Eliza, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Cahill, of DeKalb, Crawford county, Ohio, where she was born October 25, 1845. At the age of 12 she entered the DeKalb Seminary, taking a six-year course, and then entered the Springfield, Ohio, Female Seminary, from which she graduated in 1865, and then, well, just fifty years ago Monday of this week, she became the wife of Geo. W. Cummins, and they have journeyed together side by side, amid storm and sunshine, living the life beautiful together.

Shortly after coming here, she identified herself with the Presbyterian church, under the pastorate of Rev. W. H. Smith, who had this charge during 1865-69, and during this half century of time she has ever been an earnest, faithful worker in the church, and for forty-five years she has been a devoted teacher in the Sunday school, and never away from her post of duty unless caused by sickness or absence from the city. During these years of her faithful work in the Sunday school, some 300 or 400 boys have come under her teaching and many of them are numbered among our prosperous young business men and noble women, both here and elsewhere.

Mrs. Cummins was also a charter member of the Oregon Chrysanthemum society, developing her share of the flowers and taking her load of responsibilities, which was necessary to make the society the success that it proved to be, and a source of pride and pleasure to all our people.

She, too, like her companion, has ever been active in everything that looked to the good of our city, and is still ready to do her part—even more than her strength and advanced years will permit her to do.

It was a long way to Tipperary, but just the same, Warren Cahill and wife, of Tyro, Ohio, and Joseph Davis and wife, of Toledo, Ohio, brother and sister of Mrs. Cummins, came to enjoy the happy occasion with them. The guests were welcomed within the portals by the son and daughter of the couple who were being honored, and as the guests came they were in-

Mrs. Osborne Says Strength Has Returned Since Taking Tanlac.

Hannibal, Mo., May 31, 1917.—"I couldn't walk four blocks without getting all out of breath, and to walk upstairs without stopping was an impossibility for me, to say nothing of the trouble I experienced in doing my housework, but now I walk down town—ten blocks—without the least difficulty and doing my housework with pleasure. That is what Tanlac has done for me."

Mrs. Rose E. Osborne, a well known and highly respected Hannibal woman of 1612 Turn Street, made this remarkable statement on March 5.

"Yes, sir, I was in such bad condition that it was drudgery for me to clean up four rooms of our house. For a long time I had suffered from kidney trouble. Gas would form in my stomach after eating and I seemed to be smothering. Severe pains due, I think, to kidney trouble came in my back.

"Shortly after I began taking Tanlac my strength returned and now I feel stronger than I have for many years. My nerves are in such good condition that I can go to bed and get nine hours' good rest. The pains in my back have been relieved. The gas formations have ceased and I feel better in every respect."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is especially beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney trouble, catarrhal complaints, loss of appetite, nervousness and the after-effects of a grippé, pneumonia, severe coughs and colic and the like.

Tanlac is being explained and introduced in Oregon, at Henninger's Drug Store, Leading Prescription Druggists.

roduced to those composing the receiving line—Joe Davis and wife, of Toledo, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cummins, who were seemingly as happy as they could be; then came Warren Cahill and wife, of Tyro, Ohio, and Mrs. Guy Cummins. The reception was generous and cordial from those people so that it relieved the guests of formalities, and they at once entered into the spirit of the occasion. Mrs. Guy Cummins ever keeping an eye over the field to see that every one had a good time.

From the receiving line the guests passed on to the punch bowl, which was presided over by the Misses Pauline Rubeley and Blanche Hodgkin. Many of the guests were delighted to again have the opportunity of meeting Mrs. Ella Allen-Hoblitzell and Miss Maggie Allen, former Oregon girls, now residing in St. Joseph, who came to greet the couple in whose honor the occasion was brought forth.

The entire afternoon was taken up in receiving and feasting the relay of friends, who came and went, and this was done with that ease and graciousness that has ever characterized the social functions of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cummins.

The luncheon was a most delicious one of the lap order, and each guest was nicely waited upon by the two Brown sisters, Cecil and Lindell, and were served in the spacious dining room, and as the guests finished they retired, bade adieu and wended their way home, their places only to be taken by another relay.

Surely it was one of the most beautiful landing places in the life voyage of this dearly beloved couple, and one that will ever be pleasantly remembered by each guest, who had that honor conferred upon him.

The Old Sentinel, of which Mr. and Mrs. Cummins have been readers for 50 years, sends its kindest greetings, wishing for them many more years to sojourn here, and each and every day find them as happy and in as good health as they were on their 50th wedding anniversary.

plaintiff, wherefore, for all the said wrongs so alleged, she asks for judgment against her son for $20,000.00. This case did not go to trial, but was settled and dismissed at cost of defendant.

R. L. Minton vs. John F. Shipley, et al. This was a suit to revive a judgment alleged to have been rendered against the defendants in May, 1910, for the sum of $680.66, and the plaintiff says that $50 was paid on this judgment, but that the balance, including interest, amounting to $854 is still due the plaintiff, and he therefore asked that the judgment be revived. Judgment as prayed for ordered by the court.

B. L. Hinkle vs. Corneal Twyman. This was a suit in attachment. The plaintiff states that on or about October, 1900, he sold and delivered to the defendant a top buggy for the sum of $35 and that the defendant failed to pay him, that the defendant left the state, and had remained away. Plaintiff asked for 6 per cent interest for all these years, and the sheriff's return shows that the defendant's interest in the south half of the northwest quarter of 28, 61, 39 had been attached for the debt. Judgment by default for $69.69.

Alva D. Tilson vs. J. P. Monach, attachment. Judgment by default.

Round Prairie Bank, of Fillmore, vs. A. M. McArthur, Donald McArthur and Ralph R. Kelley, suit on note. Finding for plaintiff by court, with interest at six per cent.

Entertained The Boys.

Mr. and Mrs. William Morris were the kindly host and hostess to the members of Meyer Post, on last Saturday afternoon, May 26, and in addition to the 20 members present, Revs. Hand and Johnson were also guests, who doubtless had come to keep a watchful eye over the "boys" while away from home and to see that they did not "gobble up" things not useful.

These meetings are very greatly enjoyed by the old veterans, and they seem to enjoy every minute they are together.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris were given a vote of thanks for their generous entertainment and Commander Cummins and wife were congratulated on being so near their 50th wedding anniversary, which occurred the following Monday, May 28.

As soon as the Post adjourned, they were invited into the spacious Morris dining room, where they were served with a delicious two-course luncheon, and like Jack Sprat they "licked the platter clean."

The home was elaborately decorated for the occasion, and go where you would Old Glory was in evidence, and each guest was given a handsomely embossed souvenir card.

Mrs. Morris was assisted by Misses Mildred Tochterman and Gusta Upberman.

Liberty Bonds.

Editors, Sentinel:—As requested, we herewith submit the following regarding the two billion dollar loan to the government:

The denomination of the bonds are as low as $50.00; interest at rate of 3 1/2 per cent per annum, payable December 15 and June 15 each year; bonds due in 30 years, with option of government to pay after 15 years from date, June 15, 1917. Both principal and interest on these bonds are payable in gold and are exempt from all federal, state or local taxes.

Before the termination of the loan, the government issues any bonds bearing a higher rate of interest than these Liberty Bonds, then the holder can exchange his bonds for the ones bearing the higher rate of interest, and the new bonds will be made to mature at same time as these bonds.

Subscriptions will be received to June 15, 1917, and payments are to be made as follows: 2 per cent on application; 18 per cent on June 28; 20 per cent on July 30; 39 per cent on August 15, and 30 per cent on August 30, 1917, or the full amount can be paid on date of allotment.

If subscription is made for one $50 or one $100 bond, the full amount can be paid with the application.

As each bond has a six months' coupon attached, payable December 15, 1917, therefore when the last payment for any bonds applied for is made after June 15, 1917, there must be interest added for all payments made after June 16 to date of such payments, at the rate of 3 1/2 per cent per annum from June 15.

The Zook & Roecker Banking Company, of Oregon, Mo., has application blanks and places themselves at the disposal of any one desiring to apply for these bonds, and we will be glad to attend to any subscriptions and all the details relating thereto, free of charge.

Respectfully,

L. L. MOORE,
Vice-President.
