

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL
SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. BELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago.)
(Copyright 1918, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR MARCH 31

JESUS OUR EXAMPLE IN SERVICE.

GOLDEN TEXT—Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus.—Phil. 2:5

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus our example in helping others.

MEMORY VERSE—Follow me.—Matt. 23:10

EASTER LESSON.
LESSON TEXT—1 Cor. 15:36-38
GOLDEN TEXT—Thanks be unto God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.—1 Cor. 15:57

(Read Phil. 2:1-11.)

A great many Sunday schools will probably omit the review lesson and devote the day to some special Easter exercises. This practice we cannot wholly condemn, but we would urge every school to devote some time to a consideration of the lesson text.

Review Sunday is dreaded by many superintendents, but it is a test of knowledge and skill in teaching, as well as the character of work done during the past three months.

Some excellent Bible-school teaching by comparing it disparagingly with that of the day school without taking into consideration the difference between paid and volunteer teachers, the limited time devoted to study, discipline and other features. It is manifestly unfair to judge the Sunday school by the same pedagogical standards as are applied to our public schools. The Sunday school deals with spiritual realities and not alone with moral issues. It is a wonderful testimony to the blessing of God that with such meager equipment, training and time at our disposal, the results of the Sunday school are so wonderfully effective in the Christian development of our country. With religious education legislated out of our public-school system, almost entirely neglected in our homes, and not one family in five or six connected with the Christian church, this suggests a conditionavoring of cultured paganism. This ought not to discourage the Sunday-school worker, but rather challenge him to greater concentration and more valiant endeavor.

If a review is desired, summarize the lessons by allowing twelve classes or twelve persons to each bring in a brief digest.

Lesson 1 gives us the testimony of John the Baptist concerning the one "mightier" than himself, "whose shoes he was not worthy to unloose." Lesson 2 shows the Impeccability of Jesus, in that he was "tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin." Lesson 3 reveals him as the holy one of God, with power over unclean spirits and other sicknesses. Lesson 4 shows us Jesus as Savior who has power on earth to forgive sins. If he be not the Son of God the worship of Jesus is nothing less than paganism or idolatry. Lesson 5 shows us Jesus as Lord of the Sabbath. Lesson 6 as the Son of God, not only in his healing power but in his authority over unclean spirits with power to delegate that authority to others. Lesson 7 shows Jesus as the great teacher who will bring forth abundant fruit and eternal life. Lesson 8 shows the marvelous germinal power of the divine seed. Lesson 9 shows Jesus as the Son of God, whom even the winds and the sea must obey. Lesson 10 shows us Jesus as the Son of God with power over death. Lesson 11 shows us Jesus as not only having authority over unclean spirits, but possessing power to impart that authority to others, while Lesson 12 shows us his compassion upon the unshepherded multitude, and the exercise of his divine creative power in feeding them.

Of course such a review will be rapid and perhaps incomplete, but it will show that Jesus meets every situation and that his grace is sufficient for all the conditions of life. It will also show that his words communicate vitality to society but that their effectiveness depends upon the response which is accorded to them.

If a test is required of the pupils, a set of questions covering the work of the quarter should be prepared and given to them a week in advance, from which a half dozen might be selected for written review during the class hour. This is no theoretical plan. The writer knows of many Sunday schools where written reviews are being successfully conducted.

The Holy Land where Christ lived, suffered, died and rose again, has recently been captured from the control of the Ottoman empire, and current history indicates the probable early establishment of a Jewish state in this land of prophecy.

A Christian on his knees can get a clearer vision of heaven than a sinner can with a telescope.

The first law that God gave unto man was the law of pure obedience—for as much as to obey is the proper office of a rational soul.—Montaigne.

"It is only when tomorrow's burden is added to the burden of today that the weight is more than we can bear."

An Inconsistent Christian is no evidence that the Bible is not true.

He who keeps close to God will not be close with God.

Back Home.

Charles Anselment and wife, and daughter, Mrs. Della Crews, have returned from their four months' visit with D. P. Kyle and wife at Los Angeles, California, and if there was anything in and around Los Angeles worth seeing that he did not see, it was so infinitesimally small that he couldn't see it. He greatly enjoyed the trip, and he says that his brother-in-law surely showed them a great time. He kindly remembered the old man of the Sentinel force with a beautiful polished hickory cane—a cane for service; one that will support us as we go tottering along during the days that are left us. While there he enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Stephenson and family. Mrs. Stephenson was formerly Mrs. Robert Howell, and her many friends here will be glad to know they are all well and prospering.

—Mrs. Andrew Foster, of Topeka, Kansas, who has been visiting her father, T. J. Partridge, left for her home the latter part of last week.

—Mrs. Lulu Edwards, who has been in Kansas City for several weeks, returned home Thursday last, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Bonnie Tays, and three children. On Friday, Mrs. Tays baby boy was taken alarmingly ill, and is in a serious condition.

—The Junior editor of this old paper is back from Corpus Christi, Texas, where he spent several weeks, for his health, and a visit with that prince of good fellows, Will Everhart, and wife. We, as well as everybody and all their relations are glad to know that Tom comes back feeling better than when he left.

Trustee's Sale.

Whereas, Harry E. Miller and Minnie Miller, his wife, by deed of trust, dated July 13th, 1912, and recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of Holt county, state of Missouri, in book 121 at page 272 thereof, conveyed to the undersigned, in trust, to secure payment of two certain promissory notes in said deed of trust, particularly described, the real estate, situate, lying and being in Holt county, state of Missouri, described as follows: All of the fractional northwest quarter of section number one (1) of township number sixty-two (62) range number forty-one (41) together with all accretions thereto.

And whereas said notes are long past due and unpaid, and whereas the owner of said notes has requested me to execute the power vested in me by said deed of trust, to sell said real estate and out of the proceeds of said sale pay the indebtedness secured thereby. Therefore, in compliance with said request and in pursuance of the power vested in me by said deed of trust, I will sell said real estate at public vendue to the highest bidder, for cash, at the court house door in the city of Oregon, county of Holt, and state of Missouri, on Tuesday, the 30th day of April, 1918.
