—Oregon and Forest City are to be regularly visited by the veteran eye-sight specialist, of St. Joseph, with office in the Lincoln building, 7th and Felix. Dr. A. F. Barnes was here two years ago. Many will recall his satisfactory services. A graduate under men of national reputation, and a yearly post graduate course, have made him a master of vision, and we get his "high-class" eye glass service at less cost than in the city. He will be at Forest City, October 25, and at Oregon, October 26, 27 and 28.—Advertisement.

—Miss Gwendolyn Fay Martin made her bow to her parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Don B. Martin, on Thursday, Sept. 30, 1920, the introduction being made by Dr. W. S. Wood, who told the especially interested parties that she was some girl, and that it would be worth their while to look after and care for her for many years, and you can bet Papa and Mamma Martin will do it.

—It will be remembered that on August 25, Everett Wright fell from his horse and dislocated his shoulder. His younger sister, Alberta, was on the horse with him. Now his sister, Alberta, is laid up with a broken collar bone, caused by falling from a wagon, September 25, and Dr. Wood was called and rendered the necessary aid. They are children of Charles Wright and wife of the New Point section.

—We understand that Earl, son of Oscar T. Bloomer, now of Joseph, and who was born near New Point and served in the English army during the World War, will soon return to England and later return with an English girl as his wife.

—E. O. Phillips and wife drove to Maryville, one day last week, and took Judge Dungan, wife and Robert along with them, who made a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Bantz, who, we are glad to hear, are enjoying the best of health.

—Mrs. H. B. Cobb, mother, and Mrs. J. D. Reece, sister, of Savannah, are enjoying a visit with Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Evans.

—Wm. M. Morris, aided by Harold Rostock, are now making survey and estimate for finishing the work of digging Nodaway Drainage District, No. 2.

—Tom Partridge has returned from Topeka, Kansas, where he visited his daughter, Andrew Foster and wife, and his grandchildren. While there he took in the reunion of the 35th division.

—We were glad indeed to have the pleasure of meeting Dennis Reynolds, of Forest City, one day last week. He is surely one of the old timers of our county, coming here in 1848, with his parents, Job Reynolds and wife, who located on the now John Anno place in the Burr Oak district. He is now 79, and we are sorry to say he is quite feeble.

—J. I. Henninger, our druggist, has returned from Peoria and Forest City, Illinois, where he visited for several days with his sister, Mrs. A. J. Kennedy.

—Salesmen Wanted.—Lubricating Oil, Grease, Paint, Specialties, whole or part time. Commission basis. Men with car or rig. Samples free. Write for the attractive terms. Riverside Refining Co., Cleveland, Ohio.

—We regret exceedingly to hear of the painful and serious accident that recently befell Mr. Roy Callow, one of Holt county's former residents, who now resides near Lamont, Idaho. Roy, who is a son of William E. Callow and wife, who formerly lived near the Lincoln school house, was working at his tractor, when a small piece of steel splintered therefrom, flew violently in his direction and struck his left eye, resulting later in his being obliged to go to a specialist at Salt Lake City, Utah, and having the entire eye-ball removed. At last accounts he was reported as getting along as well as could be expected, under the circumstances. The Sentinel extends to both Roy and his parents its sincere sympathy.

Bunk!

"The farmer is the backbone of the nation," says one great political party; "he's the bone and sinew of the country," says the other. True, but how does that help the farmer? asks Dean Davenport, in next week's issue of

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

"The crux (a good word) of the present agricultural condition lies in prices, labor and credit," reads one party platform. Very good, Mr. Politician, so we understand, but what is your constructive program for bettering this condition? . . . No answer!

In his smashing article Dean Davenport describes some of the vital agricultural issues facing the country today. How do our candidates plan to supply the farmer with adequate help; assist him in getting machinery and equipment; insure him good roads, accessible markets and a fair profit; help him drain, fertilize, irrigate, harvest; enable him to borrow on reasonable terms for reasonable security; encourage farm-bred children to stay on the farm? Their platforms are silent; but it's up to the farmer to find out before he casts his vote!

This important article is just illustrative of the intimately helpful service that is offered week by week in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN. You'll read it, you'll like it, you'll profit by it, and through you get—

Evangelical Church.
Our evening service last Sunday was dismissed in order to give the pastor and congregation an opportunity of attending the Methodist church and greeting our brother, Rev. F. J. Smith. We heard a very splendid and helpful sermon. We are glad to have Brother Smith in our midst and we feel sure that his coming will be a help to all the church work of Oregon.
Our morning service will be held next Sunday in town, but the evening service will be dismissed at Nickell's Grove. Many of our people will want to attend the special meeting at Richville, and we want to encourage this spirit of co-operation.
E. A. PAULI, Pastor.

Back to Childhood Scenes.
Mrs. Ed George, of San Francisco, Calif., who was formerly Mae Miller, and was born in the Union district, has been here the past week visiting her father, "Uncle" Thomas Miller, now in his 90th year, and a regiment of relatives and old-time friends. She was up in the old town, one day last week, in J. P. Lacey's fine car, accompanied by her father and Mrs. Lacey, and she said she enjoyed every minute while here.
Father Miller felt and fractured his arm September 4, and we were glad to know that he was doing so well as to be out riding.

—Alpha Hayden, a former Oregon boy and a graduate of the Moody Bible Institute, of Chicago, began a series of revival meetings at Richville, Sunday last, in the old historic Richville church. It is reported considerable interest is being shown.
—Hi. Montgomery and Mrs. Amanda Hobbittell, of Skidmore, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Frances Schenberger and baby, drove down and spent Sunday with Father and Mother Montgomery. In the bunch were grandparents and great-grandparents.
—Strayed—A Red Brood Sow, weight about 300 pounds, strayed from place, about Sept. 30. Finder please notify Oregon, Mo.

—Paul T. Frye, one of our hustling real estate men, reports the following sales during the past month: James Conn's two farms, one of 100 acres, and the other of 191 acres, both in the Richville district, to Philip Markt, for $33,000. He also negotiated the trade whereby Z. B. Greene traded 160 acres of land in Arkansas to Alvin Greiner for 60 acres in the Culp district.
