Celebrated Anniversary.

Monday evening, Sept. 19, was one of the most enjoyable evenings spent by the members of the Forest City Rebekah lodge and their families in a long time. September 20th being the 70th anniversary of the Rebekah lodge, Forest City Rebekahs voted to celebrate on Monday night, Sept. 19, that being their regular meeting night. All Rebekahs and their families were requested to be present, and as a result had a good crowd out, but owing to the threatening weather, a number were kept away. The program committee arranged a good program, which took place after the business session of the lodge, which was greatly enjoyed by all. All enjoyed the Shumate saxophone quartette, and the Shumate boys are very generous with their talent, and Forest City people are very proud of the boys, as there are not many towns that can boast of a saxophone quartette and all members brothers. We also greatly enjoyed the Dutch song by Mrs. N. H. Cook, and so we did the vocal and instrumental solos rendered during the evening, as well as the readings and dialogue.

After the program the crowd enjoyed the bountiful lunch of fried chicken sandwiches, nickles, cake and coffee, after which games were played, talks given and more music by the quartette, and singing by those present. Every one left at a late hour, hoping that many more such pleasant evenings might be spent together.

Mrs. N. H. Cook, a charter member, gave the following report showing the history of the Forest Rebekah lodge:

January 14, 1902, New Point lodge, of New Point, Mo., met in the I. O. O. F. hall at Forest City, Mo., for the purpose of assisting in instituting a Rebekah lodge, known as Forest Rebekah Lodge, No. 289. Sister Fannie Secrest, of Craig, Mo., officiated as instituting officer, having been commissioned by Brother E. M. Sloan, grand secretary of the I. O. O. F. of Missouri. The lodge convened at 7:30 p. m., with Sister Fannie Secrest in the Noble Grand's chair. Other stations were filled by sisters of New Point degree staff. At 8:30 the ceremony of initiation was begun and twenty-three charter members being present were admitted and obligated and seated; a ballot was then taken on seventeen candidates, who were in waiting for initiation, the ballot being favorable, they were admitted and obligated and seated. Sister Eva Hitt was chosen to take the mysteries of the Rebekah degree. After initiation nomination of officers were made, N. N. Sheats performing the duties of organizing secretary. Sister Elizabeth Hovey was elected noble grand; Sister Eva Hitt, vice grand; Sister Chloe White, recording secretary; Sister Louise Austin, financial secretary; Sister Jennie Cain, treasurer; there being but one name mentioned, the rules of the lodge were suspended, and the officers were all elected by acclamation. A short recess was taken, and luncheon was served by the sisters of Forest lodge. The lodge was called to order and Sister Emma Secrest installed the officers. Sister Hovey appointed as her right and left supporters, Sisters Maud Austin and Grace Jones. Sister Eva Hitt appointed Sisters Etta Hahn and Martha Wood as her right and left supporters. Sister Laura Hovey was appointed warden; Sister Cynthia Shumate, conductor; Sister Mary Gelvin, chaplain; Sister Stella Sheats, inside guardian; Sister Rhoda Watson, outside guardian. Brothers E. M. Austin and A. J. Wood and Sister Eva Hitt were appointed to draft the by-laws of the lodge. Every other Monday night was agreed upon for the Rebekah meeting night, and for several years met upon that night, but an amendment to the old law has changed it to every Monday night, and election of officers is held twice a year. The lodge was under dispensation from January to September, when it received a charter from the Grand Lodge. The New Point degree staff exemplified the work in such a beautiful and impressive manner that it will be a lasting memory to those who were fortunate to have witnessed it.

"When Forest Rebekah Lodge was instituted it consisted of women with brains, talent and 'pep,' but no money. They realized the state of affairs and went to work with a zeal to raise money to buy regalia and all the necessary articles to furnish a Rebekah lodge. A degree staff was organized and Sister Martha Wood was chosen captain. With the aid of their captain and their talent, a play entitled 'The Spinners' Fortnightly Club,' was given in the city hall, and was a decided success. With the proceeds of the entertainment and by the members paying a year's dues in advance, the lodge was put upon a financial basis. From time to time the lodge has given socials, bake sales and entertainments for the good of the order.

"The first regalia was made of White Henrietta cloth and each member of the degree staff made her own robe. They were decorated with ribbon, emblematic of her rank and station. Occasionally one would have to substitute in the staff, then a short person would put on a tall person's robe, or a slim person would put on a stout person's robe—the result was embarrassing and laughable for the staff, but what about the candidate? 'First impressions are lasting memories.' In a few years the robes were converted into comforts and sent to the Home at Liberty. Sister Corda Anderson was the noble grand of the degree staff, and for a number of years was the only one that could give the secret work letter perfect, but several of the members have the work letter perfect at this time. The degree staff spent many hours in perfecting the work, and under the leadership of Brother Howard Teare, they were rewarded by being called the best drilled staff in the county. The staff now donned 'wings,' not because they were angels, but it was a suitable name for the drapery, and the degree staff all presented a like appearance and did look pretty with the pink and green ribbon, but they, too, have been designed into dainty aprons to wear in serving visiting members. Not many of the old original staff remains. The lodge has more up-to-date work, and the work of the numerous other captains has been successful. At the present time the degree staff wears the short skirt, with pink and green ribbon draped from the left shoulder, and their work is beautiful to look upon. E. M. Austin was the lodge's first installing officer, but was soon followed by Sister Corda Anderson, who had the distinction of being district deputy installing officer for a number of years, and only resigned her office on account of poor health. It can be said of Sister Anderson that she attended more regular sessions, visited more sister lodges and held more offices than any other member in this lodge—much to her credit. She might be called the most faithful in service. Sister Elizabeth Hovey, now past her 85th milestone, has the honor of being the oldest member, the first noble grand and the first past grand to attend the Grand Lodge Assembly as a delegate sent from this lodge. Sister Mae Bullock-Burke was twice noble grand of this lodge—much to her credit. Sister Alta Watson-Beavers filled her office as noble grand without a book in sight, which was complimentary to her rank and station.

"The Rebekah District Association was organized in Forest City lodge room, delegates being present from all the lodges in the district. The Rebekah order has been and is a great social center, where all classes can meet and enjoy an evening's entertainment. The evenings are spent in music, games and refreshments. This being the 70th anniversary of the Rebekah order in the state, the president, Sister Ora VanPelt, invited this lodge to celebrate. These meetings are for the purpose of calling together socially members of the lodge who seldom attend regular sessions, and to create an interest in lodge work. Mary Lodge, of Mound City, was the first to visit Forest Lodge, June 9, 1902. Forest Lodge has been royally entertained by Mound City, Craig, Savannah, Oregon and St. Joseph lodges. Lasting friendships have been formed and the good work is still going on. Many amusing incidents have been enacted to increase the social side of lodge life, but time will not permit one to recall them— suffice it to say there are always comings in all social affairs to make life interesting. The Old Phantom party given on October 31st each year is a pleasure of the past, and the old penny drill has been done away with. There are but few of the old charter members left, but this lodge, now in its 20th year, is still in a prosperous condition, and all that is needed is 'pep' to build it up and all work together in harmony to bring it up to the standard. The great teachings of the order are what one needs to apply to their daily life and obey the Golden Rule.

"Be friendly one to another; love thy neighbor as thyself, and you can truthfully say you are guided by the Great Ruler of the Universe."

"What's a little sunshine, but the little more That makes all the difference in our daily store? And while the little heart-ache is gone and soon forgot, How the little happiness changes all our lot."

Obituary—Brassel.

Robert Lawrence Brassel, son of Samuel and Mary Ann Brassel, was born near Salem, Ill., March 14, 1860; died at his home, near Mound City, Mo., Sept. 25, 1921, aged 61 years, 6 months and 21 days.

He was of twelve children, eight of whom survive him. February 8, 1885, he was married to Louella Ganice, and to this union were born nine children, six of whom are living: Lotta, Harry, Hazel and Gerald, who are still in the home with the wife and mother; Lloyd Brassel, of Fairbury, Neb., and Wilma Brassel, of Bartlesville, Okla.

Brother Brassel united with the Church of The Brethren, and was baptized Sept. 15, 1919, and died as he had lived, in the faith.

Beside the widow and children there are to mourn his decease, the seven sisters, who are: Mrs. John Townely, Rickeron, Oregon; Mrs. John Waggoner, Forest City, Mo.; Mrs. Scott Waggoner, Forest City, Mo.; Mrs. Martha Wilson, Hale, Mo.; Mrs. Thomas Waggoner, Diller, Neb.; Mrs. Richard Rogers, Minneola, Kansas; Mrs. Everett Lamkin, Los Angeles, Calif., and two brothers, Claud Brassel, of Troy, Kansas, and Oscar Brassel, of Fairbury, Neb.

Robert Brassel has lived in this community for many years, and leaves a large circle of friends who sympathize with the bereaved family, and who will ever remember him as a man of upright and honest life, industrious, faithful and sincere; a good husband and indulgent father—and as such we commend him to the Father above.

Funeral services were conducted at the North Bethel church by his pastor, G. W. Ellenberger, who chose as the text for his discourse, John 13:7, "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." A large gathering of relatives, friends and neighbors attended the services, Sept. 26, at 2:30 p. m. A FRIEND.

Forest City School Notes.

The Senior class met and organized Thursday, Sept. 22. Officers of the class are: President, Floyd Lease; vice-president, Elijah Alkire; treasurer, Donald Shumate; news reporter, Gertrude Lyons. Mr. Ramsey was chosen a sth class sponsor. The class has decided on scarlet and white as their class colors. The following are the members of the Senior class: Lucy Reynolds, Nellie Wilkes, Gertrude Lyons, Fern Louden, Donald Shumate, Katherine McKee, Floyd Lease and Elijah Alkire.

Last Friday night, as a result of the churches getting together, a Parent-Teachers' meeting was held at the city hall. The purpose was for all the patrons of the school and all of the faculty to get together and get acquainted. A short program was given and after that the "eats" were served in cafeteria style. Then after visiting a while everybody went home. The school certainly appreciates this support. It makes it easier for all the teachers and the pupils, if they know each other.

The high school orchestra was organized last week under the supervision of Miss Kelly. The music has been ordered and the orchestra will soon be under way. The orchestra consists of the following pieces: Three cornets, one trombone, two saxophones, trap drum and piano.

Last Friday evening the high school basket ball team played a game with a team composed of the town boys. The score was 31 to 20, the high school getting the long end of the score. The team has been practicing hard and is showing some class. Forest City will play Oregon at Forest City, September 30, and a tight game is promised.

Forest City was very fortunate in securing a Lyceum Course this year, despite the fact that the course last winter did not pay out; but, due to the fact that we have secured so many signers this year, we feel certain that the course will "pan" out.

For the first number, we have Marion Ballou Fisk, cartoonist, lecturer and entertainer, on October 6th. Let's see a big crowd out to greet her, for it will be well worth your while to hear her and it will also be a help to Forest City, so everybody come.

BIGELOW NEWS

DOTS AND DASHES, BY RUBE.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chuning attended the Children's Sunday school program in Mound City, last Sunday afternoon.

—Mrs. Nelson McKee and son, Dick Miles, who were enroute from St. Joseph to Lincoln, Neb., stopped off here one day last week and visited with relatives and friends.

—Don't forget the date, John, October 1st.

—Ted and Ralph Walker leased two acres of ground from their father last spring and planted the ground to potatoes. The returns were 200 bushels, which are worth $2 per bushel, or $400.

The expenses for preparing the ground, planting and cultivating was $40; land lease, $25; total expense, $65, and the net earning, $335; a pretty good record, boys. Try it again.

—Mrs. Guy Jones and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, returned Sunday afternoon from St. Joseph, where they had been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spellman and seeing the circus.

—John Dougherty, the watermelon man, one day last week, received a set of iron wheels by freight, and says he is thinking of putting them on his jitney to get rid of the punctures.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Poynter, of the Fortescue neighborhood, were last Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Poynter.

—The record of the Bigelow schools a few years back was that every teacher who taught in our schools, if not already married, would be within a very short time and present indications are that we are going to regain this reputation. Of course, we don't know who is "holding hands," but when some of our teachers get anxious about getting home early from a shopping tour, it looks just a little suspicious.

—L. R. Porter, of Hamburg, Iowa, is working second trick at the depot during the absence of V. A. Solleder, who is on his vacation. No, girls, he is not married either, and he wears the smile that won't come off, too.

—A large number of friends from here attended the funeral of Nelson Luther at the Christian church, in Mound City, last Sunday afternoon.

Nelson was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Luther, and for the past twenty years was an engineer on the Northern Pacific railroad, and lived with his wife and four children in Mandan, N. D. The latter part of last week, while riding in an automobile, he was struck on a crossing by the engine of passenger train, an engine that he had run for a number of years, and he was injured so badly that he died within a few hours of the accident. Mr. Luther was one of the city commissioners of Mandan, and was on his mission to the city water works pumping plant to look after the city's interests when the accident happened. The when the accident happened, the family has a large circle of friends who mourn with them in their saddest of hours.

—Mrs. Lucinda Goyer died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Worley, Sept. 30, 1921, at the age of 79 years, 7 months and 5 days. Mrs. Goyer was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Sipes, and was born in Page county, Ind., coming to Holt county with her parents when she was three years old and lived in this county the balance of her life. At an early age she was united in marriage with George Carter and to this union three children were born. Mr. Carter served in the Civil War, was stricken with fever and brought to his home where he died. Six years later she was married to James Goyer, and to this union six children were born, four surviving. Mr. Goyer died Sept. 4, 1912, at Napier, and since that time Mrs. Goyer has made her home with her children.

Up to a short time ago she was in her usual health, and did not take down until about two weeks ago, and she died from the infirmities of old age. Everything possible was done for her by her relatives and friends up to the time of her death. She leaves children, Mrs. Chas. Worley, Bigelow; Mrs. Ed Noland, Napier; Mrs. Chas. Carter, Forest City and Mrs. Richard Karr, of Amazonia, besides a large circle of friends to mourn her death.

The remains, accompanied by the relatives and a number of friends of the family, were taken to Forbes last Thursday morning where funeral services were conducted by Brother L. A. Hunt, who took his text from Isaiah 55:7, "Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and he will have mercy upon him, and to our God for he will abundantly pardon." After services at the church, which was filled by relatives and friends, who had gathered to say a last good-bye; interment was in the Forbes cemetery. The relatives have the sympathy of the entire neighborhood in their sad bereavement.

Card of Thanks.
We wish to thank the many friends for the kindness shown during the recent sickness and death of our mother, CHARLEY WORLEY AND FAMILY.

—Forty two scholars attended the Christian Sunday school, last Sunday morning, and the collection amounted to $1.72. The high school faculty has promised some special music for next Sunday. This alone will be worth your while. Everybody invited to come.

—George Dean, who has been working for John Dodson the past season, left the latter part of last week for Falls City, Neb., where he has secured employment for the winter.

—V. A. Solleder was visiting with relatives and friends in Thurman, Iowa, last Sunday.

—Jim Smith and Mr. Kimmell last week built a new brick flue at the Cottonwood school house. This is an improvement that has been needed for some time, and will be very much appreciated by both the teacher and pupils.

—Robert Asher came down from Omaha, last Saturday evening, and visited until Sunday morning with his mother, Mrs. W. B. Asher.

—Mrs. Jesse Duncan was shopping in St. Joseph, one day last week.

—Wonder what Fred Keeney, our general assistant cashier, has up his sleeve? What's in the wind, Fred?

—Mrs. Henry Borchers was over one day last week from Mound City (East Bigelow), visiting with relatives and friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walker and daughters, Misses Edith and Erma, were St. Joseph visitors, last Saturday.

—Henry Dougherty was a business visitor in Craig, one day the latter part of last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Solleder left the first of the week for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will visit with Mr. Solleder's brother, Carl and wife. They go through via Denver, D. & R. G., Salt Lake and the Southern Pacific lines and will return the same route.

Besides visiting in Los Angeles, they will also visit other points of interest in that vicinity. Their route takes them through San Francisco, and they will, no doubt, enjoy the fine scenery along the route thoroughly.

—Guy Jones was a business visitor in St. Joseph, last Saturday. Had it not been for the fact that he returned home on the afternoon train, we would have accused him of going down to take in the circus.

—J. F. Iden was transacting business in Omaha, one day last week.

—Jay Burke was here, several days last week, from Kansas City, visiting with John Coughlin.

—One of our prominent attorneys, one day last week, picked up a five dollar bill on the floor of our union depot, and immediately made the fact known, and even went so far as to make inquiry in an effort to locate the owner. We just mention this in passing, because so many people give our attorneys the worst of it, and to show that this class of people are honest. Brother L. A. Hunt had lost the bill, and, of course, appreciated the honesty of the finder and to have the bill restored to him. Thank you, Bill.

—October first (get it, one) is the limit, John.

—V. A. Solleder was in St. Joseph, last Saturday, taking in the circus.

—Bob Gardner and family drove down from Fairfax, last Sunday morning, and spent the day visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Willie Smith, west of town.

—Recently Fortescue correspondent expressed a great deal of pride in the fact that they had in that vicinity a family of four generations, and we agree with them that it is quite an honor. However, this is a common occurrence in this vicinity; in fact, so common, that we had not thought of the matter until we saw the item in the Fortescue department. Here are just a few—J. F. Bridgman, daughter, Mrs. Will Schatz and her daughter, Katherine and two children. Aunt Matt Hinkle, son, J. C. (Butch) Hinkle, his son, Otho and daughter, Miss Julia Frances. Mrs. M. B. Melton, son, James Coups, daughter, Mrs. Goldie Perry and her daughter, Aunt Ann Chaney, daughter, Mrs. Henry Jones, son, Guy Jones and daughter, Miss Elizabeth. Mrs. W. C. Dodson, son, John Dodson, son, Howard Dodson and son, Mrs. J. F. Bridgman, daughter, Mrs. Will Thomson, daughter, Segus Haigler and little son, H. N. McKee, daughter, Mrs. F. K. Allen, son, Don Allen and daughter, W. F. Caton, daughter, Mrs. J. M. Wilson, son, Geo. Wilson and son, Cleveland. Total, eight, and chances are we have left out one or two.

—Ira Chuning is tearing down his big hay barn this week, and will use the material for building a large, modern chicken house. Mrs. Chuning is an expert at raising chickens, and Ira says he is going to do his part toward providing a modern house for their comfort. A part of the barn will be used for a small shed. Pard Wilson is the chief architect on the job.
