From current reports, it seems that a majority of people have recalled their "feathers and blankets" the last few nights, the temperature being unusually low for this period of the season. A government official said today: "Falm beach clothes disappear daily like snowflakes in —"

The Hesse-Bauer Schnaltman contingent, which is punishing the fony tribe at Balsam Lake, Wis., has sent to the horse editor of this paper a number of specimens of potatoes which are grown in that section, the tubers of which grow on the stalks above ground, hanging on like tomatoes. They are some curiosity, even if they do come from a dry state.

Sept. 7th will be the day for the big Republican pow-wow here, as local leaders have been receiving advance information regarding the coming presidential election in 1916. And the folks and cottons here do want to keep up appearances, so there will be much oratory, buttonholing and secret knife done on that date—Sept. 7th!

It is currently reported by E. I. McDonald that William Jones of the St. Joseph Union and Perry Moores have caught all the fish at Bean Lake—of such a size that a majority will make excellent watch charms, especially the bullheads. The two fishermen report that they have a superabundance of blue-chigger and mosquito mostly—but are out of bait. They forgot to take along some of F. L. Bauer's "decoy"!

East Atchison is now the mecca for "joyriders," as also is Atchison, Kans. It is said that joyseekers go to Atchison "dry" as fish out of water (and mind you Kansas is "dry"), and return loaded to the gunwales with rattlesnake and speed mania booze. Farmers along the route are making complaints regarding recklessness of returning pilgrims.

Motor car thieves persist in their trade, and have been "unlucky"
