DANIELS TELLS THEM THE PLAIN TRUTH (Continued from Page 1) saying they do not like the brand of notes coming from Wilson's typewriter. No more does the latter or the Juniors. But Great Britain, France, Italy and all democratic nations in Europe induce them and make them their own. Let the people know the secret of the big money the reactionists are putting up to elect a Republican con-

man, who has for weeks been playing politics with the gravest questions that ever confronted mankind. It is the Republican politician who sometimes poses as a statesman, who has hoodled himself with raising false issues in order to try to get control of congress. He is not pro-German. He simply has forgotten his duty as an American and dropped down to his lower plane as a partisan. Forgetting the weightiest matters, he beats the party tom-toms and raises ancient political catch-phrases in the hope that the people can be made to forget the one dominating issue: 'Is America to bring the war hards to their knees and lead in securing permanent peace?'

Tears are nought in this bright autumn to fall. That white-robed angel from the unseen land Has touched with death one who was loved as well, And rent the clippings of a household band, That loving hearts are crushed, a beautiful light Forever quenched in dark and starless night. For she is gone, the wife so fond and true, The mother, rich in expectations bright, Gone e'er a cloud had dimmed life's rosy hue, Or marred her hopes and aspirations bright. But now these hopes, these joys and anxious fears Are only memory, tenderness and tears. Her little son never on earth will feel The thrilling clasp of his mother's hand, Her loving voice like some remembered strain Comes not to cheer his ear, his hushed and still. Her husband strives to say they will be done * To crush the tears back to his heart unshed, But widely longs to hear the missing tone, And cannot think his loving wife is dead, His happy home she filled with joy and light, Now dimmed for aye, in death's dark night. Fold back the ringlets from the dear one's head, Strew snowy blooms above the pallid breast, Then breathe a prayer while burning tapers are shed, And gently bear her to her dreamless rest. For she is thine Almighty God thy hand * With endless bliss and joy has crowned her now. She dwells in heaven, amid that radiant host, Christ's seal is set upon her faithful brow, No doubt, no fears, no earthly fears to weep, Blessed hope, we'll meet her there when we sleep. —A Friend. Many Thousands of High Class Men and Women Annually Released from Slavery to Drink or Drugs by the Modern "Neal Way" and Are "Prepared" to Again "Fight Life's Battles" Successfully

ALREADY ESTABLISHED IN 60 AMERICAN AND FOREIGN CITIES

The Beautiful Story of the "Neal Way" Reads Like a Page from Romance AN UNPARALLELED RECORD

As a result of a professional lifetime exclusively spent in study, investigation and experiment, Doctor Benjamin E. Neal, a native of Indiana, solved the world's greatest problem in Medical Science. He found not only the CAUSE of high class men and women indulging until they became mental, moral, physical and financial wrecks, but he found the "REMEDY."

He demonstrated that the cause of continued and FORCED indulgence in the diseased condition resulting from the poison of alcohol or narcotic drugs retained and "stored-up" in the system from previous indulgence. SYMPTOMS OF POISONING Inability to overcome nervousness, or to eat, sleep or work without "stimulation" and the drink or drug users customary "bad stomach," "weak heart," "singsong liver," and "kidney trouble" are some of the symptoms of alcoholic or narcotic drug poisoning. If this serious diseased condition is neglected or aggravated by further indulgence it is most likely at any moment to "DEVELOP WET BRAIN" or sudden COLLAPSE—usually the last and final "stages" of alcoholic and narcoticism.

FINDS THE REMEDY Having found the cause and observing the symptoms and results, Doctor Neal sought and found the ANTIDOTE provided by nature for the virulent poisons of alcohol and narcotic drugs. By combining this antidote with other well known remedies that neutralize the effects of the poison upon brain and body tissues and ELIMINATES them from the system. The Neal Treatment REMOVES THE CAUSE of and overcomes the diseased condition. Then by the use of TONIC remedies the drink or drug user is soon restored to a NORMAL condition, with a LOATHING instead of his former "craving" for more STIMULATION. SECRET OF SUCCESS The secret of this great world-wide success is that the "Neal Way" effects
