"I come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly."—John 10:10.

—National Y. W. C. A. Motto.

The Editor received a letter from J. T. Fox enclosing two years' subscription and saying, "It's hard to live without the Sun."

More than three hundred subscribers have taken advantage of our special offer of one dollar for a year's subscription during the month of January and we hope to record a thousand subscribers before the expiration of the month.

The Sun forgot to mention the fact that in the recent contest for original musical composition at the Interstate Literary Society held in Atchison, Kas., that Miss Alma Bass, a student of the Musical Department at Western University, under the direction of Prof. R. G. Jackson, won the first prize.

That Kansas City is one of the best Masonic fields in the jurisdiction was again demonstrated on last Sunday night when twenty-five men were given the three symbolic degrees of Masonry, making seventy-six men initiated since the 15th of December. Sixteen of them went to the new lodge, Mt. Oread, U. D., giving that lusty and promising youngster a membership of fifty-three. Undoubtedly this is to be a big year in the Masonic fraternity.

The meeting of the Business League last Tuesday night was largely attended and excellent addresses were delivered by T. G. McCampbell, Sr., and H. P. Ewing. Prof. A. A. Anderson and family, just home from Europe, furnished some delightful music and Mr. Anderson made a few remarks that were highly interesting. On next Tuesday night President Smith of the Commonwealth National Bank will address the League promptly at 8 p. m.

The Editor, Dr. E. C. Bunch and John Hurdus were the guests of Lieutenant John Todd, Captain Elliott, Amos Smith and Eugene King of No. 11 Fire Department at a splendid stag dinner last Monday noon. A delightful menu was spread consisting of wild goose, rabbit, squirrel, celery, salad, cranberries, pickles, macaroni, hot corn bread and cigars. And it is needless to say that everybody did justice to the occasion. The boys of No. 11 are not only good fire fighters, but good cooks as well. They were assisted by Frank Sayers and Mr. T. H. Hines in preparing the spread.

While the Negro has not had a great deal to say relative to things political during the past few weeks, he has been watching carefully the trend of events and will be found a solid and formidable force in the next campaign. The Negro is naturally a Republican and would be found solidly within the ranks of that party were it not for a few white-livered, contemptible and time-serving alleged Republicans who have been permitted to secure control of the organization and cater to that element who think it is popular and wise to assail and vilify the Negro. But we have the satisfaction of knowing that that class of demagogues can never be elected to office in the ranks of the Republican party, and the sooner the decent, manly and courageous Republicans realize that and drive them from its ranks the better it will be for the Grand Old Party. In the meantime keep your eye on Henry L. Jost who is one of the most courageous little men that ever sat in the mayor's chair.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN.

Thus far no clamor of remonstrance has been heard against the discontinuance of the Allen Chapel advertising bureau. The people are getting along quite well without being told over and over that "Class meets on Tuesday night."

What is planned to be the greatest school event ever held in Kansas City will be the grand music festival next May. All the schools will participate and the colored schools section will include every pupil in the city. Rehearsals are now under way and admittance will be free.

Manual training is to be introduced at the Sumner School. Mr. Joe E. Herriford, Jr., is teaching special classes in refra and paper cutting at the Lincoln High School. Mrs. Sue Hutchins has been appointed substitute teacher in the grades. Principal W. E. Griffin is still unable to resume his work at the Booker T. Washington School.

WHERE CAN YOU FIND ITS EQUAL?

It has been said the value of advertising lies in its power to convince the public of the advantages to be gained in dealing with the advertiser. It is not the intention of the management of the Delmonico Cafe and Home Bakery to deal at length with customary advertising phrases that long since should have been cast into the rag bag of time. We have no desire to advertise in the sense in which that term is most generally accepted; we simply desire to state a few open facts which your investigation will necessarily verify.

A STATEMENT OF FACTS:

The Delmonico Cafe and Home Bakery, located at 1512 East Eighteenth street, Kansas City, Mo., is the most thoroughly equipped Cafe west of the Mississippi, rendering as it does a service almost wholly to Negroes.

The rooms in connection are centrally situated at the Hub of the Negro District, and are the most modern and neatly furnished in their various appointments.

The Home Bakery in connection, while comparatively a new enterprise to the Negroes of greater Kansas City, has from the day it was installed measured well to the standard in the quality of their products. And has today in service the most finished Bakers ever employed by Bakeries of small capacity anywhere.

Our solicitation for your patronage, either to the local trade or the traveling public, is based on the foregoing facts coupled with service and as a guarantee of our position in this matter, the management of the Delmonico Cafe and Home Bakery willingly makes this proposition: To supply anyone of the recognized Charities of our people in this city with their bread and pastry for one year if the foregoing statement of facts can be disproven.

HENRY C. COMPTON, Prop.
 Delmonico Cafe and Home Bakery,

THEY SAY

—That whatsoever a man sows, that shall he reap.

—That he who climbs alone climbs to barrenness.

—That you're out of date if you do not belong to the Negro Business League.

—That a certain Negro lawyer in representing Negro clients invariably refers to them in addressing the jury as "niggers." Cut it out.

—That many of the social leaders of greater Kansas City were very much in evidence at the Evelyn Nesbit Thaw performance. Oh, well!

—That every man who has a tender memory of home and mother will demonstrate it Sunday, Feb. 1, by going to some church, somewhere.

—That those Negroes who paid exorbitant prices to vulgar Thaw show were grossly insulted by the "anecdotes" of one of the bum actors. Served 'em right.

—That a prominent young gallant thought to surprise his girl by carrying her a brick of Morton's best cream, but when he reached the house he found another dude being entertained and he proceeded to bounce the brick off the dude's head as well as to smear up the scenery. Oh, what a night.

My name is Eugene Edward Vaughn.

'Tis for renters that I yawn I'd like for him to surely be a purchaser of some property.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

The annual fee for membership in the Young Men's Christian Association, Paseo Department, is now $3.

On last Monday evening a civil service class of eight was organized. The members of this class are studying together, preparing for the next examination to be given for railway postal clerks. Other Association members may join.

Friday evening will be the last opportunity to enroll in the men's new Bible class. The older Lincoln High School boys have requested that the Association organize a High School Boys' Bible class. This request will be granted this week.

The following persons made payments during the past four days; most of which are final payments: Miss E. Naomi White, D. N. Crosthwait, R. S. Turner, A. V. Pepp, Miss Amanda Wheeler, N. C. Crews, W. W. Penn, Wilson Dawson, Richard Allen, B. J. Nesbit, J. E. Herriford, Miss Clara V. Lynden, W. M. Bradshaw, A. V. Barton, R. W. Foster, E. R. Thompson.

The Men's Meeting last Sunday was of the usual high standard and Rev. Bowen, the speaker of the afternoon, delivered an inspiring lecture on "Individual Responsibility." Dr. Garnett of the Western Baptist College at Macon, Mo., also made a few timely remarks. Next Sunday Rev. J. R. Beckham of Independence, Mo., will deliver the afternoon address at 2:30 p. m. His subject will be, "Shall We Save the Boys or Reform the Men?" Come and bring a friend.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

The Hospital Association held their annual meeting Wednesday 14th, of last week. Much interest is being shown by the community relative to the Hospital for Negroes. Rev. T. H. Ewing was re-elected President; Prof. Herriford, Vice President. They reported over $1,700 on hand. Let the good work go on. St. Mark Class No. 2 presented a fine Bible to Bro. G. W. Taylor, their teacher. This great book, the greatest of all books will be held in high esteem by Bro. Taylor in remembrance of his 'amorous class of which he has been a teacher for many years. Rev. Jackson was ordained Sunday the 18th, by our pastor and other visiting preachers and deacons. The charge was delivered by Rev. Richardson of Kansas City, Kansas. Morning and evening services were good. Eight additions were made to the Church.
