The St. Joseph Appeal is a new publication which came to our desk this week with Mrs. Ida A. Walker, one of the race's most useful and successful business women, as editor in charge. It is a neat and newsy little paper, well edited and full of live ads, which demonstrates its filling a long felt want in that community. St. Joseph should be able to support an excellent race paper and that's what Mrs. Walker is publishing.

A CORRECTION.
Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Dabney sent one rug instead of 1 ring as was published in our last issue in the list of presents received in the Robinson-Barker wedding. Also we omitted a library runner by Miss M. Williams and niece, and that Mrs. A. Maxey and Mrs. J. E. Cavell assisted at the wedding.

Mrs. Julia Jackson, 72 years of age, died last Monday morning at the residence of her son, Elmer Jackson, 37th and Barber, Kansas City, Kas., after a very brief illness. Mrs. Jackson's home for more than fifty years was at Jefferson City, Mo., where she was possibly one of the best known and best loved women of the community. She was one of the organizers and contributed largely to the building of Quin Chapel, the A. M. E. church of that city, to which she has belonged for more than fifty years. She was also a charter member of Tabitha Court No. 28 of Jefferson City, and her funeral was attended by the Royal Matron, Mrs. Saunders, assisted by the Courts of this city. The funeral services were held at the home of another son, Harrison Jackson, 1325 Vine street, last Thursday morning. Mrs. Jackson was the mother of ten children, of whom only Timmer, a small child of this city, and Harrison and Edward of St. Louis, survive. Harrison and Elmer are two of Kansas City's prominent and progressive young men and the Sun extends its deepest sympathy in this hour of bereavement.

IN MEMORIAM.
In sad and loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Josie Shumaker, who died February 11, 1913:

Just one year ago you left us,
How we miss you, mother dear;
And we remember all your kindness
As we drop a silent tear.

More and more each day we miss you,
Friends may think the wound is healed;
But thy little know the sorrow
Lies within our hearts concealed.

The Fortnightly Recreation Club is holding regular and pleasant meetings. Reopening after the holiday season with Mrs. Luella McCarty, January 7th, as hostess. The president being absent, Mrs. Mable Dixon, chairman of the Executive Committee, presided.

Each lady responded to roll call with very beautiful and appropriate quotations. The games of the evening were whist, seven-up and five hundred. The honors were won as follows: Whist—Mrs. Fitzgerald and Mrs. McKnight; Seven-up—Mrs. McCarty; Five hundred—Mrs. Herriford. Mrs. Dixon led the Round Table Talk on Race Progress. The talk was very interesting. Several new names were added to the roll. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Burgett, 1011 Virginia avenue, January 21st. The meeting was called to order by the president. A goodly number was in attendance. Enjoyable music was played throughout the evening. Twenty-five steps of the much talked-of Tango was exhibited for the benefit of the ladies and the features were discussed with varying opinions. Splendid quotations were given. A number of new names were given and accepted. The games of the evening were whist and checkers. The honors at whist were tied. Mrs. Burgett won the honors at checkers. Mrs. Edwards led the Round Table Talk of Eugenic laws. The discussion which followed was spirited and pleasing in interest. The graceful quadrille of other days was danced, much to the enjoyment of all present.

The president presided. Progressive whist was played. Mrs. Collier and Mrs. Chloey Clay won the honors. Mrs. Herriford led the Round Table Talk on "Suffragettes." The discussion which followed was interesting and often amusing. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Porter, 2430 Woodland avenue. After each of the above meetings the club was served with most delicious refreshments. Mrs. McCarty's refreshments were particularly pleasing. Each hostess vied with the other in making the meetings a success.

Mrs. Lewis, 1228 Nebraska avenue, died suddenly Sunday evening, February 8th, on her way to church from heart failure. She leaves a son and other relatives to mourn her loss.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Fulbright, 845 Freeman avenue, were among those who joined the Metropolitan Baptist Church recently, and were baptized Sunday evening. Mr. Fulbright is a popular mail carrier here.

Mrs. W. A. Jarrett, 923 Freeman avenue, entertained the Hyacinth Art Club Wednesday afternoon at her beautiful residence. A large number of ladies were present. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. D. W. White, president.

The greatest revival of the First A. M. E. Church, 8th and Nebraska avenue, during its history, closed Sunday, February 8th. Rev. J. R. Ransom is indeed proud of the success with which he met during this soul stirring series of meetings. There were 124 additions and 136 souls saved.

Miss Eva P. Washington, representative for the Sun, received an invitation from Douglas School to visit the Parents and Teachers' meeting and was highly elated with the deep interest manifested. An excellent program was rendered. The special feature was the discussion of the Gary system by Mesdames Ella Smith, G. Brown and S. H. Thompson. Mrs. Laura Harlan made a talk on the new standard of grade work and the benefits derived from it.

ROSEDALE, KANSAS.
Mr. Paradise, 41st and Lloyd avenue, is ill.

Mrs. B. B. Jackson, 1105 Kansas City avenue, who has been seriously ill for two weeks, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Adolph Washington left Saturday for Clarksville, Texas, being called there on account of the serious illness of a relative.

Next Sunday morning the services at Pleasant Valley Baptist church will be given over to the elderly people in Rosedale. All are invited to attend.

The program rendered by young people, friends of the Pleasant Valley Baptist church, Tuesday evening, was good, and the young men and ladies deserve credit for their splendid effort to do something for the church. $10.20 was realized from the entertainment and it was put into the building treasury.

Rosa Barbee and Grace White were the other two gracious entertainers. A very interesting and enjoyable time was spent guessing articles which are used in a bride's trousseau. Miss Jenkins received a beautiful lot of dainty goods for which her gratitude runs high. A most delicious two-course luncheon (carrying out the occasion of the affair) was served.

GRADUATES TAKE NOTICE.

To the Editor of the Sun:
Dear Sir: I desire through the columns of your paper to call attention to an organization about to be formed in our city of the Colored graduates from the various Colleges and High Schools of our country. It may not be realized that we have in greater Kansas City, graduates from many of the leading Universities and Colleges both North and South, such as Chicago University, Atlanta, Fisk, Oberlin the State Universities of Michigan, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa and Kansas; Cornell, Dartmouth, Brown, Washburn, Denver University, Lincoln, Pa., Howard, Wilberforce, Hampton and Tuskegee, besides our own institutions of Lincoln Institute, Western University, Sumner High and Lincoln High. The graduates of all professional schools would be included in this list, whether of Theology, Law, Medicine, Dentistry or Pharmacy. It is true that some of these schools have formed local Alumni Associations and it is not desired to disturb any of these, but to form one whose scope and influence would be even greater.

These young men and women of education and culture, if welded together would be a potent force in our community for social and intellectual uplift. A strong club like this could bring to our city men and women of distinction as speakers and guests of honor. It could even aid some worthy, struggling student by means of a scholarship. Organization is the great power of the 20th Century, and if our educated men and women cannot unite to wield it, who can? The Board of Education has kindly granted permission to use the Auditorium of Lincoln High School for organization of this body, and we hope to see every graduate of College, University, Normal School or High School who has a four year course, at that place Thursday evening, February 26 at 8:45.

We hope that each Alumnus, young and old, will make himself a committee of one to find and notify young people who may be strangers in our city, but who are eligible to membership in such a club. Come, bring your school colors, badges, yell to Lincoln High School, February 26 at 8:45 p. m. Roll call of Institutions, 9 p. m.

ANNA H. JONES,
Chairman of Committee.

HIGH TIDE OF WAR IN FRANCE

Old Files of a Paris Newspaper Contain an Appeal to Patriotism of the Citizens.

Our frontiers are threatened! Impenetrable enemies, whose ranks have been swelled by treason, wish to invade the French territory.

The war, lighted in Europe by the influence of England, cannot be subjected to the common calculations of policy. The question is not partial concessions of territory, it is the north precipitating itself on the south. France is the great obstacle to the success of the northern nations. Our country has always been the bulwark of civilization and an object of jealousy to the other powers, because it is also the country of the arts, the center of improvements and the model for nations in everything which is great and glorious.

Our public monuments, the chefs d'oeuvre of arts, immortal trophies of our victories, each part of our native land so favored by nature, all that is French, is under the safeguard of all. From Mayenne to Perpignan, from Brest to Toulon, from the Alps to the Pyrenees, every citizen will be ready to fly to the assistance of his country. Our enemies have forgotten that France is the land of the brave and the country of honor; they have forgotten that at the voice of the country menaced, there is no Frenchman who does not know what is his duty, or is unready to fulfill it. They imagine that we will quietly wait their undisciplined cohorts; but their expectation will be deceived.—Journal de Paris of 1813.

CAN MAKE HOME IN TROPICS

Official of Department of Agriculture Thinks Dominant Races Have a Duty There.

Preparing the white man for his coming occupation of the tropics by teaching him how to live there is the substance of a suggestion made to the Pan-American Union by Prof. Nathan A. Cobb of the department of agriculture. The establishment of an international bureau of research is the recommendation he makes. He would have this bureau make a careful scientific study of how the white man will have to adapt himself to conditions, food, climate, etc., so that he may inhabit the tropics, and work there without injury to his health.

The present sporadic and scattered study being made along this line, Professor Cobb does not consider of much value. It should be on a broad scale, and comprehensive, he says, taking up the whole field. Because of the wonderful possibilities of production in the tropics, Professor Cobb says he has no doubt but that the white man must go in and live there, and make the yields greater than they are at present. He holds that proper study will give the information needed to make the tropics not only possible for a happy and healthful home for the white man.

Court Green Sacred.

A West Virginia county judge in Keatley vs. County Court says: "In the Virginia, as elsewhere, the court green is historic and sacred. Upon it generations gone have met from all parts of the county in social and friendly intercourse. A great place for the communion of the people. Upon its green grass, under the shade of its trees, our people have thus met time out of mind and rested during the sessions of the courts. Suitors, jurors, witnesses, instead of being tied down to benches in the hot, crowded courtroom, repair there to await the clerk's call. There, too, the children play. It is a park for the poor who have not the rich man's lawn. And where shall be held in the hot summer those great meetings of the people in the political canvass to hear the orators? How valuable within the experience of all of us is the courthouse ground for this important purpose. Away goes the old court green. Commerce is taking even it away."

The Human Machine.

Is there one of us who does not sometimes treat a person like a machine? Do we always think of the railroad conductor as more than a machine for taking tickets? Do we not often treat our fellow creatures like machines or flat cards without respect and personality? I have been advising for years to overcome in myself and in my medical fellows the professional habit of treating a person as a "case" or a walking disease, writes Richard C. Cabot, in the Atlantic. But the habit of impersonality persists, like original sin, in myriad forms and unexpected ways. In law courts we treat a human being as a "prisoner at the bar," as the "plaintiff," or "defendant," to the exclusion of the fact that he is as real and sensitive as ourselves.

All Treatment Experimental.

All treatment, however carefully chosen, is in the nature of an experiment, writes Dr. F. M. Sandwich in the Clinical Journal, for none can know the exact effect of any treatment or drug on any individual patient until he has tried it. A drug may suit 99 persons but be injurious to the one hundredth because of some idiosyncrasy.

Hustling Texas Farmer.

The first carload of new Texas cabbage is now on the way to market. This is the 1914 crop. The 1915 crop will begin to move about March and the 1916 crop about two months later.—Houston Post.

According to a French statistician, males are more subject to aural diseases than females, and out of every seven middle-aged persons there are two who do not hear so well with one ear as with the other. In every thousand children under fifteen years of age, 4 per cent. show symptoms of ear disease, and 6 per cent. a marked deficiency in hearing power. The liability to disease increases from birth to the age of forty, and then begins gradually to decrease as old age advances. Out of the total number of cases subjected to surgical treatment in France in one year it is estimated that about 57 per cent. were cured and 30 per cent. permanently improved.

WRONG TO SHRINK FROM PAIN

Eminent English Divine Points Out How Its Action is for the Benefit of All Mankind.

An address dwelling upon the value and benefits of pain was delivered by Doctor Inge, dean of St. Paul's, at the annual meeting of the Southwark branch of the Charity Organization Society, says the London Globe.

"A revolt against pain," he said, "is one of the most prominent features in our life at the present time. We dislike the very thought of pain as our ancestors did not dislike it, and we shrink from inflicting it even with good reason. The recollection of pain suffered is a safeguard; and in other ways pain is the best effectual means that could be devised to protect us against various dangers."
"It is quite clear that God does not consider death to be an evil or an injustice, and it is equally clear that he intended his creatures to suffer pain. Pain is a condition that is most precious in this world. Would motherhood be what it is without pain and self-sacrifice? Would pity and charity have any scope in a painless world? Would a world in which no one deserved pain be a moral world at all? We must not shrink from pain, for it is in itself beneficial and part of God's ordering of the world. It is a great purifier; we cannot get rid of moral evil without it. Where pain ends gain ends. Success is rooted in apparent failure, and in the highest pleasures there is always an undernote of pain."
