NEEDS COURAGE AND SPIRIT. Passive Obedience Has Never Made for Man or Woman a Place in Pages of History.

We moderns are popularly supposed to have been the first to profess admiration for the strong-minded woman, whom we proudly or derisively call the "new" woman. Yet if we study history, and not merely hearsay, we find that the heroines of the world were by no means gentle, submissive creatures.

Electra, whom the ancients exalted far above her milder sister, Chrysothemis, would certainly have been a suffragette, had she lived in this century.

Cleopatra, Hypatia, Joan of Arc, however diverse otherwise, were at least alike in rebelling against authority and following their own way. Rowena would have seemed more attractive had she eloped with Ivanhoe, and we all prefer the nobler Rebecca, who nearly died a martyr because she was among the first lady doctors.

From time immemorial courage and spirit have been extolled, and justly so, too. People who feel deeply can not always be passive. They wish to control destiny, not to be controlled by it, and sometimes they actually succeed in their desire, through their very refusal to accept the inevitable.

Obedience is apt to be often overrated virtue which may be the result of indifference or laziness, a mere craving for peace at any price, instead of a genuine and unselfish humility.

Making a Home. The home is spiritual, but it arises through the vehicle of the physical. We may not be able to track it down to any one material aspect. Sleeping under one roof does not make a home; eating together does not make a home; gathering about a common lamp or a common fireplace does not; possibly even children in a nursery cannot make a home. We may eliminate one or another of these and still keep the spiritual thing that we prize. Sometimes we must eliminate, when the very multitude of its outward signs blur the real meaning—you cannot see the woods for the trees. But a proverb usually needs a supplementary gloss, and in this one it should be no woods. And so, in the case of the home, if in one extreme there is danger of submerging its significance in the mass of its physical expressions, there is at the other extreme the danger of dissipating significance through a paucity of physical expression.—Elizabeth Woodbridge, in the Atlantic.

THE WHEATLEY PROVIDENT HOSPITAL FOR COLORED PEOPLE. For several years there has been a great need of a well organized hospital in this city for Colored people. Dr. J. E. Perry, with his well equipped sanitarium did much in the way of hospital work. A little more than one year ago, the Provident Hospital was organized, incorporated and assumed the control of "Perry Sanitarium." During the same time the Phyllis Wheatley Hospital was organized, and each of these institutions proceeded to raise means for the purpose of establishing and maintaining the two hospitals. It was soon discovered, however, that it was hardly probable that two institutions of this kind would be supported by the people of Kansas City. Therefore, the management of these institutions came together and decided that it was for the best interest of the Colored citizens of the city that the two institutions be merged into one body, which was accordingly done under the name of "The Wheatley-Provident Hospital." All parties heretofore connected with each of these institutions have pledged to use their best efforts in the raising of funds to purchase sufficient ground, and erect thereon, a hospital building in this city, as will meet the crying needs of our people.

The Wheatley-Provident Hospital has assumed control, and is now operating the Hospital at 1214 Vine Street, Kansas City, Missouri, which building was formerly occupied by the Provident Hospital. There is in the treasury of said Wheatley-Provident Hospital Association the sum of $1,700, which is to be used only for the purchase of a site on which a building is to be erected.

SUMMER MUSIC SCHOOL. R. G. Jackson and Miss Beulah Douglass are going to conduct a summer school of music at Allen Chapel, 10th and Charlotte, Kansas City, Mo.

All persons who may desire to take lessons will find it to their advantage to speak to Mr. Jackson early, for a number of periods have already been given away to city, and out of town persons.

The advantage in enrolling early is, that you may have a choice of periods and avoid coming for lessons in the heat of the day.

The studios at Allen Chapel are nicely located, well appointed and are equipped with pianos that are kept in fine condition.

Special attention is given to children between the ages of seven and twelve years.

The pipe organ of the church is at the service of pupils for practice, who are doing organ work.

On account of the large enrollment in piano, organ and voice, only a limited number can be admitted into harmony classes, so it is advisable for persons wanting to do work along this line to enroll now.

Mr. Jackson invites interested parties to call at Allen Chapel on Saturdays, between 8 a. m. and 8 p. m. to talk over music for the summer, or address him at 531 Nebraska Ave., Kansas City, Kansas, Bell Phone West 1032 and West 1102-W.

WORDS OF APPRECIATION. More Mothers Testify to Merits of XXth Century Hair Preparations.

Nelson, Mo., April 13, 1913. Dear Madam Dabney: I am writing you for a small order. I want you to please send by mail 3 bottles of shampoo, 3 boxes of hair grower and 2 boxes of pressing oil. I like the remedy just fine; I would not be without it for anything. I am using it on my little girl's hair; it seems to be helping it greatly.

MRS. ANNA BRUNER. Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 20, 1913. Dear Madam Dabney: I am a mother of four girls. In trying to improve their hair I had tried several preparations, but none gave me good results until I used Madam Dabney's XXth Century Preparations. Their hair was thin, bare and would fall out so that I dreaded to use a comb. Now their hair is growing nicely—does not fall out—has no dandruff—is soft and pretty. Three of these girls are attending Wendell Phillips School, Howard and Vine streets. Investigation will bear out my testimony. I would not be without the XXth Century Preparation in my house.

MRS. DORA HAWKINS, 2455 Woodland Ave.

A six week's treatment of Madam P. M. Dabney's XXth Century Hair Preparations sent on receipt of P. O. money order of $1.25, or a single package of XXth Century Hair Grower, Pressing Oil or Shampoo sent for 50c. Write today to Madam P. M. Golden Steam Dye Works

1605 EAST 18TH STREET

When sending your clothing to be cleaned and pressed have you ever realized, and every clean minded man would shudder with disgust at the thought, that the cloth used to press your suit had just previously been used to press the suit of a man suffering from Disease, Filthy Habits, etc.—the cloth in the interim being wet and wrung out in a pail of probably dirtier water, especially so toward the end of the day's work?

OLD WAY OF PRESSING

To overcome unsanitary methods we have installed an up-to-date Sanitary Steam Press. A garment that passes through this machine is disinfected, as no germs or microbes can exist under a temperature as high as the dry steam we inject. At the same time it removes any odor, takes away the grimy appearance, raises the nap, revives the colors and imparts to the garment that freshness desired by all dressers.

NEW WAY OF PRESSING

We are Hatters, Tailors and Cleaners. No delay in getting your work. We do everything in our own shop. When you send us your work we do not have to disappoint or delay you, as our equipment is equal to anyone's. We specialize on quality and carefulness, for it pleases you it pleases us.

We have one of the best Dyeing and Tailor Shops in the city. Everything new and up-to-date. We are prepared to clean any garment, no matter how richly trimmed or flounced, without injury. We employ only expert workmen and guarantee to satisfy every customer. Soliciting an opportunity to serve you, we are yours,
