Particular attention may be given to the following subject, since there are hundreds of thousands using the Eureka Comb throughout the United States and Isles. They give the best of satisfaction as to our recommendation, straightening the hair beautifully with one stroke, and as assistance in causing a rapid growth. Evidences coming to us from every source, of which is pleasing, that the Eureka Comb performs precisely as advertised.

No better comb on the market for purposes as we have been advised that other combs are toys, when it comes to benefits and effectual influences when used as to directions, for which every comb placed goes with it instructions, how to use and for what purposes. Wherever introduced the Eureka comb is preferred. Merchants and agents are successful when they are placed conveniently in quantities for the public.

They are usually sold for $1.50 (one dollar and fifty cents) each complete. The only thing is to be careful in the purchase as there is no other comb that will answer the purposes so well as the Eureka. We wholesale the Eureka Comb, being the manufacturers and promoters, and are the only wholesalers of this special device; if there are others we would be pleased to be informed.

The devices are patented and registered. For prices and further information write

A very pretty wedding occurred on Saturday, July 11, at the Vine Street Baptist church, when the Rev. Dr. T. H. Ewing united Miss Mamie Eileen White and Mr. Floyd Howard in holy wedlock.

The church was very artistically decorated with palms, and the bride and groom stood under an arch of pink ribbon which was held by six small boys. Charlie Johnson and Nathaniel White as pages carried the ring on a white satin pillow. Little Marjorie Jackson and Elizabeth Grant carried tiny baskets of flowers in the wedding march, and preceded Mrs. James Cordell White who was the matron of honor. de chine, and wore a pink plume in her hair. The maid of honor was Miss Mabel McAfee, of Topeka, Kan., and she wore a gown of pink mull with a paradise of pink in her hair.

The following young ladies, all gowned in pink, were the bridesmaids: Misses Hazel McFadden, Lydia Lewis, Ethel Browne. The little ribbon bearers carried out the color scheme of pink and white, and were dressed in white with pink ribbon sashes and hair bows.

The bride, gowned in white liberty satin with a four-corned train, marched to the altar on the arm of her brother, Mr. Cordell White, who gave her away. The groom met her at the altar, and was attended by Mr. Wayman Browne, the best man, and the following groomsmen, all of Higginsville, Mo.: Messrs. Jasper Beverly, William Browne and Wayman Lewis.

After the ceremony all the participants were whisked away in automobiles to the home of the bride where a reception was tendered the happy young couple. They received many valuable presents. Their honeymoon was spent with his mother in Higginsville and with friends in Chicago, Ill.

CHILLICOTHE, MO.

Misses Clementine, Bessie and Annabelle Banks are visiting relatives at Triplet, Mo. Messrs. Ralph Anderson, Lucillus Sawyer, Daniel Monroe, Richard Wolfe, Henry Beach, Mrs. Carolina Ballen, Miss Estes and others whose names we did not get, departed for Kansas City, Mo., Monday, some to see the circus and their relatives connected therewith, and others to visit friends in and about the city. A party was given in honor of Miss Rosa Morton last Friday night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilbert. The well-attended affair, held at 7 o'clock, was the conclusion of the guests, after they had spent hours in games and social conversation. A delicious refreshment course was served by Mrs. Gilbert, who was assisted by Mrs. Ruth and Mrs. Jennie Anderson. Misses Minnie Payne, Sadie Saunders, Lizzie Jones, Effie Alex, Bertha Monroe, Marguerite Estes, Alice Talley, Clementine Banka, Josephine Anderson and Messrs. Lucillus Sawyer, William Longdon, Ralph Anderson, Benjamin Longdon and Floyd Dawson were the guests. It was at this time that Miss Morton declared her positive delight, and expressed a wish to stay longer, but business called her home. The elder members of Golden Rule Lodge No. 77, A. F. & A. M., are one in confessing the activity for good going on in the lodge, as a result of their taking in several men a few years ago who are creditably filling prominent offices. At present several men, like the motifs, are endeavoring to get to the light that men receive. Several petitions go before the lodge for acceptance or rejection this week. Mr. Thomas Quinn is the W. M. The importing of many colored workmen into this city by paving and building contractors is proving quite a business asset for the restaurant and rooming houses; these are thriving wonderfully because of the reliable patronage. Additionally, a number of new homes have been established because of a number of the new workmen were either widowers or bachelors, and have since taken unto themselves a helpmate.

ROSEDALE NOTES.

Mrs. Rosa Morton has returned from Chillicothe, Mo., where she spent her vacation, with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gilbert, and her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. C. Denny. Miss Morton was very pleasantly entertained during her stay and met many prominent people, and she was very much impressed with the beautiful residences owned by some of the residents of that city. Mrs. Joseph Collins, 3921 Lloyd avenue, with little daughter, Katherine May, were pleasantly entertained Friday and Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. John Washington, 3811 Jackson avenue, Kansas City, Mo. Williams, Mrs. Sophia Reed, Miss Sophia Bates, of Leavenworth, Mrs. J. O. Dolman, Miss Della Boaz, Miss Rosa Morton, Mr. F. E. Jones, and Mrs. T. T. Morton. HARMONY OF MIND.

The music of my soul, the tender strains of harmony,
Then the wild weird notes of distant chimes,
As dreams which lead me on to worlds unknown,
Sometimes a tenuous instrument lures to sweetest rest,
With charms of strangest symphonies,
Sometimes a mighty orchestra engulfs the soul,
Rising and falling in grandeur, and astounding,
Again the dulcet lulls and then the inexpressible
Music that hints of peace divine.

A world of poetry and song, touching, then solemn
I soar to realms of beauty, of love, then contentment,
This manna that feeds the hungry soul,
When relaxation of things material,
Then mind knows harmony for its very own
'Tis the music of the muse, Divine Thought Blessing,
And the whispering of angels which delight
To drink in the rich notes of Truth-mid.
To have the dark waters of mentality or thought
Turned into sparkling wine or inspiration
Is sweeter than chiming bells or heavenly notes of the harp.
—Charles A. Startz.
