LAWRENCE, KANSAS.

The Warren Street Baptist Church assisted by the Colored students, is rendering some of the best programs in the history of the Forum. St. Luke has a pastor, Rev. Payne, who is well thought of by all the members. The Steward Board met at Mrs. C. Thomas Monday afternoon and elected all of their old officers except the Treasurer. Friday night there will be a grand Masquerade party given at McNutt's. The Lawrence Athletic football team plays G. R. College Friday, at Richmond, Mo. Lawrence Athletics would like a few more games this season. Write to Richard Elliott, 1508 Kentucky street, Lawrence, Kas., for dates.

ROSEDALE, KANSAS.

Prayer services are held every Wednesday night at the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church. We had splendid services last Sunday. The church will be comfortable and warm. This church is the stranger's home. Mrs. Leslie Berry, who has been quite ill, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Margaret Grant in Bryn Mawr addition. Mesdames Irving Johnson and Eli Tuppence spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lee in Fairmount, Kas. Mrs. Willa Lewis is ill at her residence on Division street. Mr. Henry Milton Kennedy died Tuesday at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Louis Moseley, 4020 Adams street. Mr. Kennedy came here from Minneapolis, Minn., and is survived by a wife, daughter, father, four sisters and four brothers and other relatives.

TROY, KANSAS, NEWS.

As the writer for the Troy news was out of the city the past week, the readers of this city will excuse her for not having any news and will try and combine the two weeks' happenings together.

Mrs. Dora Lee has recently returned home after having spent three weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. Oia Thomas of Sedalia, Mo.

Parties have been quite numerous this month in the city, it being the month for "noble" men, women and children. Mr. Willie Wilkinson was given quite a surprise, it being his seventeenth birthday, at the home of Mrs. Aaron Wilkinson, assisted by his sisters, Miss Mirtle Wilkinson and Mrs. William Gaskin. Several of the young folks were in attendance and presented him with several presents. A dainty luncheon was served, and music interspersed between, which made the evening very pleasantly spent.

On October 17th, quite a coincidence in being the birthday of three generations, namely: Mr. Charles Schumacher, father, Mrs. Lillian Webster, daughter, and Master Charles Webster, grandson, celebrated their birthday. Each one had a birthday cake, and you may imagine the number of candles were numerous. A few persons surprised Mrs. Webster by presenting her with a shower of handkerchiefs. Of course, Master Charles received presents in abundance.

Mr. Ernest McCurry has gone to Hastings, Neb., to work for the winter. Mrs. Allie Duncan of Wathena, Mrs. Lillie Webster and Miss Leona McCurry of Elwood, and Miss Emma Starr of Highland were the out-of-town teachers who attended the Teachers' Association held here last Saturday.

Miss Emma Fouts of Highland, Kas., was transacting business in the city Thursday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schumacher and Mrs. Nellie E. Howard attended the funeral of Mrs. Samuel M. Holt in Wathena, Saturday.

The Republicans and Democrats are having quite a campaign here this month, and speaking is being held in the Court House afternoons and nights.

The Republicans have been having the Troy Colored Band to furnish music for their speakers, and the Democrats had a fine Colored orchestra to play for them. They also sang quartets and solos that were appreciated by the audiences as much so as the speaking.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis attended services at the A. M. E. Church, Sunday. They are of Wathena, Kas.

Mrs. Mary Schumacher, Mrs. Hiram Hughes, Mrs. Lillie Webster and Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Howard attended the Bass-Crews wedding in Kansas City, Mo., last Wednesday, and report it as one of the swellest events of the season.

One of the saddest scenes that has occurred in Troy for many years was Saturday morning, when Hattie Louise Snyder, seven years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Snyder, was severely burned by a bonfire that she was standing near to get warm. The child was burned entirely over the body and ran to a neighbor's, Mrs. Mattie Eubanks, who tried to extinguish the flames by wrapping her in a carpet, but as this did not seem to take effect immediately, she put her in a tub of water and that was the only way to save her just then. The poor little thing had presence of mind all the time and asked the children around her to pray for her for she was burned to death. The doctor came immediately and said it was the worst case of its kind he had ever seen, and it made him so sick he could not be of much assistance only to tell the women what to do for her. She was conscious all the time and talked about how it happened, but on Monday morning she passed away about 7:30 o'clock. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon from the A. M. E. Church, where she was an active little Sunday school scholar. The family has our greatest sympathy in these sad hours of bereavement. God simply has plucked a flower before the fall dews have fallen on it and urging the parents to bear his warning and prepare to meet his darling child in the Great Beyond. Besides her parents she leaves one sister aged 8 years, and two brothers aged 5 and 2 years respectively, and a host of relatives.

The young boys and girls gave a party the past week, and as far as we can learn of it it was for the purpose of entertaining each other. I think the young ladies who were at the head of the affair were Miss Rosa

Snyder, Miss Beatrice Martin and Mrs. Oia Butcher. A very pleasant evening was spent in music and dancing. The house was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and Halloween colors, and a dainty three-course menu was served. The out-of-town guests were Misses Nellie Coleman, Gladys Henderson and Essie Davis and Mr. Grant Butcher and True Davis of Wathena, Kas.

CHILLICOTHE, MO.

Miss Clementina Banks is visiting in Macon, Mo. Mr. Turner, one of our new citizens and efficient plasterers, was happily married to Mrs. Kyles last Sunday evening by Rev. Charles Crews. They reside at the home of the bride. The body of Mr. Charles Wolfcade, whose death occurred at St. Joseph, Mo., where he has been ill for several months, arrived Tuesday evening. We learn that the Oddfellows will take charge of the body, yet the time for the funeral services have not been announced. Prof. Herndon of Brookfield, Mo., was a visitor in the city last Sunday. Through the kindness of Rev. Crews the young people of Bethel A. M. E. Church were privileged to hear an address from him. He spoke with good sense and good humor, and it was all spontaneous. Rev. G. W. Wright of Mexico, Mo., an ex-pastor of the Mt. Zion Baptist Church of this city, was the guest of Rev. J. L. Tally last Thursday and Friday. A brief notice brought out a large congregation to hear Rev. Wright Thursday night. He has not departed from his admirable manner of presenting glad tidings, and his farewell remarks were complimentary to the marked improvements made in the city and in our homes, churches and school. Rev. W. B. and B. V. Longdon will spend Saturday in Brunswick, where they will attend the "Ministers and Teachers Literary Convention," of which Rev. Harris of Carrollton, Mo., is the chairman. Mr. Longdon will stand in the "dress circle" and perform the part of a spectator and the Professor will appear on the program Saturday afternoon.

FARMINGTON, MO.

Rev. S. B. Anderson arrived from the Annual Conference at Cape Girardeau Monday afternoon. He reports that the sessions of this Conference were the best he has ever witnessed. Rev. Anderson has been assigned to Quinn chapel, A. M. E. church, in South St. Louis, and we wish him unbounded success in his new field of labor. Rev. T. L. Watson has been assigned as pastor of the A. M. E. church in this city. Rev. Watson and wife came from Washington, Mo., to us and their arrival is the most earnest wish of the members of their pastorate. Mrs. Alice Murphy of De Soto arrived Saturday to attend the sick bed of her brother, Mr. John Kennedy. Mr. Reuben Staten of Coffman was a visitor in the city Saturday. Mr. Benjamin Chappelle of Avon was a visitor in the city Saturday. The Ivy Leaf Club met with Mae Baker Wednesday afternoon. At the close of the meeting 5 o'clock tea was served. The Clover Bee Club met with Miss Dayse F. Baker Thursday evening. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed. Mrs. Eliza Overton returned Sunday from a two weeks' visit in St. Louis, having her eyes treated. She was accompanied by her granddaughter, Mrs. Buelah Cayce, who will visit relatives. Mr. Will Kennedy arrived from Poplar Bluff Monday afternoon, having come home to attend the bedside of his brother, John Kennedy.

LEXINGTON, MO.

Messrs. Thomas Stanton and A. W. Banton of Independence attended the street fair here last week. Mrs. Bertha Lear Page of Independence spent last week here with friends. Mrs. Allen and son spent last week here with friends. Her husband is pastor of the A. M. E. church at Independence. Mrs. Blanche Fagan of Kansas City spent Wednesday here on business. Mrs. Martha Woodson and son are here this week from Kansas City. Rev. J. Will Jackson of Independence is here this week. Mr. Dan Green passed away last Monday night after an illness of several months. He will be buried Sunday at 2 o'clock from the Second Baptist church. Mrs. Pearl Dabney is in town this week selling hair goods.

PHOENIX, ARIZ.

In order to formally welcome the new corps of teachers to the city a reception was given at the C. M. E. church Friday night. All present report an enjoyable time. The Y. M. C. A. movement is still the chief topic of discussion and very soon we hope to write some tangible results of these discussions. We propose to erect a $190,000 building and the committee on finance says they have some encouraging reports to make on November 1 at the Forum meeting. Jefferson street has been paved from First street to Seventh street, and now you will see property along that thoroughfare advance in value. We are indeed pleased to know that so many of our people will profit by this improvement. This is a very busy season here and all business men report a flourishing business. The Sun is the most fearless race paper distributed in Phoenix. Read it carefully and be convinced.

COLORED VOTERS ATTENTION!

Where Does Your Candidate Stand on the Race Question?

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has asked all the Democratic, Progressive and Republican candidates for the United States Senate and House of Representatives how they stand on the following:

- Abrogation of the 14th and 15th Amendments,
- Segregation in the Federal Service,
- Segregation in the District of Columbia,
- The Jim Crow Car in the District of Columbia,
- Anti-Intermarriage laws,
- Lynching,
- Reduction of representation in the States that disfranchise the Negro,
- Repeals of the various candidates in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma to these questions have been compiled and published on a large poster by the local branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. We are sorry that lack of space prevents us from publishing this long list of replies concerning the stand of the candidates on the race question. We advise all of our readers to see these posters before casting your ballot. Let no one vote for a Senator or Representative unless you are sure of his position upon the race question.

NOTICE.

The Second Christian Church, 24th street and Woodland avenue, will have their dedication the first Sunday in November. Watch next week's issue for the purpose.
