MOBERLY, MO.

By MRS. W. H. DAVIS.
Sunday services at the Pilgrim Rest Baptist church were well attended. The pastor, Rev. J. H. Swancy, preached two soul reviving sermons, with one addition. Mrs. Alice Sivan of Columbia, Mo., arrived in the city to attend the bedside of her daughter, Miss Anna Mae Livan. They departed for home Sunday at 5:30 u. m. The entertainment given by the Ladies' Sewing circle of Pilgrim's Baptist church was quite a success. A neat sum was realized. Rev. J. A. Hurley preached an interesting sermon at the Second Baptist church Sunday morning and Rev. G. L. Higgins preached an instructive sermon at night. Mr. Earl Tymony of Chicago spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Tymony. Mr. Earl Tymony was in St. Joseph a few days last week. Service at Grant chapel was good. The collection was $21.80. Quarterly meeting with held Sunday, the 25th. Rev. Avant, pastor of the M. E. church, has returned for another year. The Western college students will give a musical and literary at the A. M. E. church the 23d for the benefit of the Pilgrim Rest Baptist church. The great tabernacle meeting is proving a blessing to our city. Choirs from the three colored churches rendered music Monday night. This was a special night for the colored and there were 12 confessions, five to Grant chapel and seven to the Pilgrim Rest chapel, two to M. E. church, three to Pilgrim, two to Second Baptist church. Total attendance 77,500; total confessions to date, 1,036; total collections $1,289.22.

TROY, KAS.

The baseball nine played the white Wathena team at Wathena, Kas., and defeated the latter by the score of 12 to 6. The Ladies' Aid was entertained at the A. M. E. church last Thursday by Mr. James Butler and a very dainty luncheon was served. Next Thursday the Ladies' Aid will be entertained at the home of Rev. P. W. Weaver by the Misses Maurine Weaver and Rosa Snoddy. Mr. Bert Wakefield seems to be meeting with misfortunes galore. Recently recovering from an attack of pneumonia, while visiting in St. Joseph last week he ran to catch a car and fell, fracturing a bone in his head. He is doing nicely at this writing. Mr. Willie Brown was shopping in St. Joseph one day last week. Mrs. Martin of Atchison was a visitor at the home of her son, Frank Martin, Friday. Mrs. Ophelia Snoddy is indisposed. Mrs. Mattie Hicks returned to St. Joseph after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hughes. Mr. Robert Swinney of Hiawatha has been here buying horses. Mrs. Mary Schumacher was a home visitor Sunday and attended services at the A. M. E. church. Mr. M. W. Webster of St. Joseph was in the city Saturday evening transacting business. Mr. Webster has purchased 12½ acres of ground in southeast Troy and expects to place it in fruits for the coming year. Mrs. Nelle E. Howard was transacting business in Atchison the latter part of the week. Mr. Herschell Walker of Elwood and another young man accompanied by two young ladies, were automobiling in Troy Friday evening and met with an accident by back in to a ditch in the east part of town in trying to turn around. After working for about two hours with the assistance of passers-by, an automobile chanced to come along and pulled them out. The damage was slight, only bending the fender. But joy riding is very expensive sometimes. Ha! ha! Mrs. Allie Duncan, accompanied by her daughter, Wilma, and Mr. Raymond McWilliams of Wathena, changed trains here Friday en route to White Cloud.

HENNESSEY, OK.

Dear Editor: I am writing you this letter to let you know how very much impressed I am as a stranger and countryman was with your courteous treatment when I called at your office. While admiring your up-to-date and well equipped office, your frank, kind and friendly manner of entertainment made a lasting and favorable impression upon me. By your invitation I visited Lincoln Park, the Y. M. C. A. and other places of interest. I found the park to be very interesting and just what the people of your city needed. When I called at the Y. M. C. A. I was also treated cordially and carried throughout the building. Everything was immaculate. It was indeed marvellous to behold. Among other things I was most interested in the swimming pools. I found the cafeteria up-to-date and I was highly pleased. I have been telling my friends down here just what our race is doing here, and that strangers are treated in the best possible manner. I had to say as Queen Ashba that the half has not been told. I wish to join my daughter with sincere thanks to Dr. W. H. Bruce for his close and careful attention of my son, Thomas A. Holland, during his illness and also the many friends who called to see him with kind offerings of assistance.—T. M. Holland.

MASONIC HOME, HANNIBAL, MO.

The Masonic Home premises attract the attention of every one that travels along the Paris gravel road. The county court has put the main road leading to Hannibal in a fine condition. It is a real pleasure every evening to view the numerous automobiles, carriages and buggies passing the home. At this writing sister M. J. Goths of Moberly is very sick. Revs. A. E. Miller, Hannibal, and W. H. Huston of Poplar Bluff held prayer and song services in behalf of the home on the 15th. The following visitors have enrolled since our last report: N. T. Thornton, Oklahoma; J. T. Brown, E. G. Payne, A. E. Henley, A. Johnson, L. McElroy, Jennie Cotton, Addie Sharp, Virginia Tyler, Roberta Hoon, Dollie Stevens of Hannibal; Mrs. Mollie J. Anderson, Montgomery; Mrs. Dorothy Hawkins, Galesburg, Ill.; Janie L. Combs, Kansas City, Mo.; Messrs. L. W. Henderson, W. H. Clay, Prof. A. C. MacIn, Prof. J. T. Brown, Rev. A. E. Miller, A. R. Bohon, Hannibal; W. H. Huston, Poplar Bluff; P. L. Pratt, Cameron; Mesdames Rilla William, K. A. Smitley, Gussie Heale and Susan Scott, Palmyra, Mo.; Mrs. Charlotte Milton, soon, Ia. Visitors are always welcomed. Through the interest of D. D. P. C. Givens the home received last week $4 donated by Hawkins lodge No. 44, Sedalia, to purchase a pig. Who will be the next to follow No. 44? Electa Court No. 17, Miami, sent the following articles in March: Two cans corn, four cans tomatoes, three cans peaches, one can cherries, 2½ pounds sugar, one pound butter. Dorcas No. 55, Kirksville, sent half dozen towels. P. M. A. G. M. Sister Cornelia Russel of Washington, D. C., sent an Easter offering of $1 to the inmates. Rev. A. E. Miller of the M. E. church with several of his members, held services at the home on the 18th. Rev. Miller has shown his greatest more than once by bringing the gospel to those who are so unfortunate as not being able to go to the city to hear it. Come again, Brother Miller. The gospel should be preached to the unfortunate as well as the fortunate.

PLATTSBURG, MO.

By LEONARD THOMPSON.
The Washington school is preparing for the closings. There will be four graduates. Mrs. Jessie Baker, who underwent an operation in St. Joseph, Mo., is improving. Mr. Jasper Bazler was in St. Joe Saturday visiting his mother. Mr. Elmer Clark was in town Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Mollie Jackson is out again after several weeks of illness. Mr. George Kay has returned from Excelsior Springs, and says there is no place like home. Crowfoot greens for sale by Estell & Thompson. Orders filled at once.

FOREST GREEN, MO.

Mrs. W. H. Davis of Moberly is the guest of Mrs. Elenora Craig. Revival meeting has been going on this week at the Baptist church. There will be a big baptizing at 11:30 a. m. Rev. Davis, the pastor, has aroused much interest in the spiritual and business affairs among our people here. We are looking forward to great things in the future. Mrs. Laura White is improving.

Lincoln Electric Park

WIN A SEASON PASS TO LINCOLN ELECTRIC PARK

This beautiful park on which work is progressing so nicely is going to have a very elaborate wide walkway or promenade which will run the entire length of the concessions. This distance will be about 600 feet. The walk will be in front of all the concession booths, will be 12 feet wide and a flash of electric light. The management of the Park wishes to adopt a suitable name for this walking, or promenade, and in order to select the most suitable name, a call is being made to the public for suggestions. The person sending in the accepted name will be awarded a season pass for two. In the event of more than one person sending in the accepted name, the passes will go to the person whose name reaches the management first. Second and third prizes in passes will also be awarded. Mail names to Mr. Earl S. Ridge, manager, 301-2 Finance Bld. Announcement of winners will be made in papers. Content will close April 30, 1915. The plans of theatre and dance pavilion have been enlarged and Mr. Ridge says no expense will be spared in order to make this park one of Kansas City's most attractive amusement resorts.
