A. FRANK NEAL.

The popular head waiter of the Hotel Utah, Salt Lake City, who hopes to visit his old town and multitude of friends sometime this summer, and who makes Salt Lake City a veritable oasis in the desert for all his many friends, Masonic and otherwise, who pass through his city enroute to the Far West.

Real Mean.

I came to town at half-past six. 'Twas this so early brought me— I wished those tangle tags to miss. But a sharp tag girl caught me.

Other Side of the Proposition.

"A man ought to kiss his wife every day." "Yes," replied Mr. Meekton; "but suppose she's busy writing speeches and doesn't want to be disturbed?"

Mean Hint.

"My theory is that men are what they eat, so we should be careful to select appropriate diet." "I'm so glad to hear that, Mr. Softy. We have calf's brains for dinner."

No Cutting There.

"Did they cut out anything when you went to the hospital?" "Yes, I think they cut out about everything they could get hold of except the bill."

Inartistic.

"The color of that couple's lives does not form an artistic contrast." "Why not?" "She has a rosy future and he has a purple past."

A Query.

"Pop, tell me something." "What is it, my boy?" "Do the cowboys use the sand of the western deserts when they scour the plains?"

Time Files.

Wife—John, what has become of the alarm clock? It's gone. Husband—I put it on the mantel last night and I heard it go off this morning.

Its Kind.

"If my dog could get a job, I wonder what kind he would select?" "He is like yourself; he would want something of a snap."

Women's Club Notes

The Ladies' Coterie will give their first exhibit Monday evening, May 17, at Lyric Hall. Dancing from 8:00 to 12:00.

Home day has been changed from the first Sunday in June to the last Sunday in May, by request of the ministers.

The Progress Study club will meet Wednesday, May 12, with Mrs. Burt Hill, 1020 Euclid avenue. Lesson subject, "Crime Among Negroes."

There will be no meeting of the Social Pathfinders next Wednesday evening. The following week the club will have a house party at the home of Mrs. Wilson, 1017 Virginia.

The Clippers voted to give a year's subscription of the Crisis to the Yates branch of the Y. W. C. A. There will be a meeting of the Clippers at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon with Miss Victoria Newsum.

The Phyllis Wheatley Art club met with Mrs. Birch with a large attendance. After the routine of business a dainty luncheon was served and the club adjourned to meet with Mrs. A. E. Estes, 2466 Waldron Ave., May 13.

The Federation of Colored Charities will meet May 8 at 1 p. m. at the office of board of public welfare, fourth floor Water Works building, Sixth and Walnut streets. Business of importance.—O. J. Hill, president; L. V. DeFrantz, secretary.

The Lyceum Art club held its final meeting Thursday, May 6, with the president, Mrs. Richard Allen, 2324 Highland avenue. After work was over and the business transacted the club was served a dainty two-course luncheon. One visitor, Miss Lena Price of Keytesville, Mo., was present. The club will meet with Miss Edith Evans the opening of next season.

Among the Churches

EBENEZER CHURCH.
Sunday, May 9, is Woman's day. A special program has been arranged by the committee. The ladies are to have full charge of the church that day. The men will not be permitted to take part in anything except to give in the collection. Rev. Mrs. Wilson, the noted evangelist, will preach at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. It will be a great day. Sixteenth and Lydia.
REV. W. C. WILLIAMS, Pastor.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.
Mrs. Richard Lemons has been ill for some time. Mrs. Susie McFarland is ill but we hope for her recovery soon. The services Sunday were well attended. The famous Ebenezer quartet will sing May 19 under the auspices of the Woman's Mission Circle. This promises to be one of the best musicals we have ever witnessed. All are invited. Admission only 15 cents. Don't forget the date—May 19.

ALLEN CHAPEL NOTES.
The services at Allen chapel were of the usual high order, and a large and representative audience was in attendance. An interesting and instructive sermon was delivered by the minister and there were three additional to the church. Delightful musical numbers were rendered by members of the Buckner Jubilee singers and a standing indorsement of Prof. W. H. Dawley, Jr., was given by the congregation at the request of the minister to fill the vacancy occasioned by the regrettable resignation of Prof. G. N. Grisham, principal of the high school. On next Sunday morning the congregation will be favored with vocal selections by that queen of song, the most remarkable and brilliant soprano that has ever appeared before an Allen chapel congregation, Miss Margaret Jackson, who is filling an engagement with the W. H. King, players in this city.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.
The Imperial Jubilee Concert Company will appear May 20 under the auspices of the B. Y. P. U. The Buckner's Jubilee Concert Company rendered an excellent program to an unusually large audience last Friday night. Too much can not be said for the relief workers of this church who help the sick and those needing assistance. The Bacote Literary Society which meets the first and Thursday night, is progressing rapidly. Come out and hear a good program. The Leisure Hour club, which meets every Tuesday night, is holding interesting sessions. All are invited to attend. The services last Sunday were as usual up to the standard. Mr. James Anderson sang an excellent baritone solo. Dr. Bacote's sermon on "God Is Our Sword and Shield" was interesting and logical. The evening service was devoted to covenant meeting and the Lord's Supper was partaken of by a large number.

The members of the Old Folks and Orphans' Association desire to thank the friends who so kindly donated to their institution during the month of April: Messrs. A. J. Nash $2; Chas. Jones $1; Raymond Knox $2; Amos Johnson lodge $2; Chas. Chapman, three sacks of corn meal, 60 pounds; Rev. Long, three dozen doughnuts; Graeco Art club, large supply of groceries; Chas. Jackson, one bushel of potatoes; Mrs. Wade Smith, supplied home with new spoons; Mrs. Stella Davis, clothing; Miss Sadie Thornton, Easter breakfast; ladies of Second Baptist church, Easter dinner; Pilgrim Baptist church, several dozen colored eggs; flowers, Commanderies; Kansas City Sun, printing.

The Twin City Baptist Ministerial Alliance of the two Kansas Cities will conduct a week's service at the Highland Avenue Baptist church, 1113 Highland avenue, commencing Monday night, May 10, 1915.

Order of Services.

Tuesday night—Preaching by Rev. Geo. McNeal, pastor Pleasant Green Baptist church, Kansas City, Kas.
Wednesday night—Preaching by Rev. C. C. Calloway, pastor Pilgrim Baptist church.
Thursday night—Preaching by Dr. W. A. Bowen, pastor First Baptist church, Kansas City, Kas.
Friday night—Preaching by Rev. J. W. Hulse, pastor of St. Stephen's Baptist church.
Sunday—Twilight meeting conducted by deacons.
11:00 a. m.—Preaching by Rev. J. W. R. Pagan.
1:00 p. m.—Sunday school.
2:00 p. m.—Platform meeting by ministers and others; devotion conducted by deacons of various churches.
3:15 p. m.—Address by Prof. G. A. Page, Solo, Miss Magnolia Lewis.
3:45 p. m.—Address by Madame Beck; address by Atty. W. C. Hueston; short addresses by all ministers; short sermon by Dr. S. W. Bacote; music by Morning Star Baptist choir. Dr. J. M. Booker, master of ceremonies.
8:00 p. m.—Preaching by Rev. Haden.
Rev. J. W. Clay, vice president, and Rev. O. T. Reed, secretary of the Twin City Baptist Ministers' Alliance.
The ministers of Greater Kansas City appeal to their many friends and all who are in sympathy with the cause of Christ to attend these services as this is a special effort to assist a struggling church to raise $250. Let the Baptists rally as they never did before.
Deacons—F. H. Lee, M. Boswell, G. Starks, I. S. Kanion.
Committee—Rev. J. W. Hulse, Chairman; Rev. Geo. McNeal, Rev. G. W. Boyd, secretary.

NOTICE.
Again "Songs of the Seasons" is postponed another week.

MOBERLY, MO.
Rev. Elias Winston preached at the Second Baptist church Sunday morning and at night Rev. Migkins officiated. The services at the Pilgrim Baptist church were well attended. Sunday services at Grand chapel were of a very high order. Mesdames Nannie Smith and Polly White are on the sick list. Mr. Jefferson Fort is reported ill and also Mrs. Hess Mitchell.

KANSAS CITY, KAS.

Mr. Jas. Wilson, 1322 North Eighth street, is ill.
Mrs. J. C. Tucker, 1310 North Eighth street, is indisposed this week.
A pleasant surprise was tendered Mrs. J. M. Marquess at her home Tuesday night.

Miss E. Z. Pendleton gave a whist and dance for Miss Pinyon of New York City Friday night, April 30.
Mrs. Birdie Haynes of Quindaro, Kas., was the guest of Mrs. G. N. Fulbright, 2169 North Third street, last week.

Mr. Clarence Jenkins was suddenly called to Hot Springs, Ark., last Friday on account of the serious illness of his father.

The funeral of Mr. George W. Motley, 730 Nebraska avenue, was held at the A. M. E. church May 2 under the auspices of the Masons.

The funeral of Mr. Harry Cogron, who died in Kansas City, was shipped to the old home May 5. Interment in Pleasant Hill, Mo.

Mr. A. S. Martin, 360 Rowland avenue, spent a few days with relatives and friends and went to his birthplace at Batesville, Miss., and former home, Little Rock, Ark.

Mrs. James Edmond, 443 Freeman avenue, left the 4th for Chicago to recuperate after undergoing a serious operation. She will be the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Joe Carter and Mr. Carter, and also her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Taylor.

Mr. Thomas Hayes, 247 Poplar avenue, near Fourth street, Memphis, Tenn., undertaker and embalmer, who has been in business there for thirty years, writes that the body and casket of Mrs. Florence Martin was in the finest condition of any body that has ever been shipped to him.

The City Federation of Art clubs met at the Y. W. C. A., April 22 and held the election of officers, as follows: Mrs. Mayme Jenkins, president; Mrs. Maud Brooks, first vice president; Mrs. Davies, second vice president; Mrs. Ursula Perkins, secretary; Mrs. Crump, treasurer.

The funeral of Mrs. Florence Martin, 360 Rowland avenue, was held at the home, the Rev. G. E. Horsey officiating. He paid a high tribute to her memory. The services were held under the auspices of Primrose Tabernacle, Kansas City, Mo., and Pearly Gate Temple, S. M. T., Kansas City, Kas. The resolutions from the church by Rev. G. E. Horsey, from class No. 12, by Mrs. M. E. Glover and the lodges and resolutions were all very fine. Floral offerings were beautiful. The body was shipped to Memphis, Tenn., accompanied by the husband, where they were met by her sisters and hosts of friends. The funeral was at the A. M. E. church, Rev. C. C. Thomas officiating. Interment was in Zion cemetery.
