MOTHERS DAY.

By BENJ. V. LONGDON.

Do we purpose to overlook Mothers' day? Why is public honor rendered to motherhood? Our wisdom, poor as we know it to be, is sufficient for us to perceive that a negative is the only real answer to the first question. As to the second question we feel that our reason could not otherwise be expressed than by making answer:

"Because of the part our mothers have had in bringing us up to place we now have reached." Therefore it goes without saying that we purpose to take another opportunity of rendering public honor to our mothers. How shall it be done? Special recognition of motherhood may be made at one of the services next Sunday. If she has laid down her life in the heroic task of living, wear a white carnation with a feeling of solemnity, and we touch it as earnestly as we would lay our hands upon the very altar of God's presence, because the flower is to us the symbol of a memory. And according to custom it is well for us to pay due homage to the living mothers by wearing a red carnation; by visiting them, and by entering into a conversation of the things of the far past we may help to make them real again to many mothers who can not grasp the ways of our generation. The mother loves her child to the end, though separated not only by miles of space but by ingratitude and contempt for her highest ideals, and Oh, what a cheerful letter ought to be written to reach her the day before.

There are none of us who do not know in some measure of the love of mother, no matter how great our fortunes or misfortunes. A mother's love laughs and sings at our fortunes and her love also suffers and endures unmeasured agony because of our misfortunes. Let us not only observe one day in the year for our mothers, but let us give them due homage the other 364 days in the year. By so doing we yield a thousand fold return to the ministry in our own lives and we give our minds a fine opportunity to perceive that "on the blue mountains of our dim childhood, towards which we ever turn and look, stand the mothers who marked out to us from thence our life; the most blessed age must be forgotten ere we can forget the warmest heart. You wish, O woman, to be ardently loved, and forever, even till death. Be then mothers of your children."

CHILLICTHE, MO.

Miss Sadie Saunders has returned from Des Moines, Ia., where she spent the winter. Mrs. Lola Crow of Chicago arrived last Monday to spend the summer with relatives. Rev. Thomas Scott arrived last Thursday after spending several days with his daughter, who has been very ill at her home in Plattsburg, Mo. Mrs. Irene Crane and daughter of Utica, Mo., is spending the week visiting relatives and attending the carnival. The Modern Priscilla club met at the residence of Mrs. Clifton Ballew Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Almyra Jones of Denver, Co., as guest of honor. A dainty lunch was served. The Bachelor Girls were given a 1 o'clock luncheon with Miss Margaret Estes as hostess Saturday afternoon. An entertainment was given at the U. K. T. hall by the Sir Knights and daughters of Tabor last Friday night. As fate would have it Miss Lizzie Jones returned home with the "bacon." This was a pig.

SIR GEORGE BROOMFIELD.
Grand High Priest of the Royal Arch Chapter of the Missouri jurisdiction, who will visit the local chapters next week.

ST. JOSEPH, MO.

Mr. Jerry Grider, president of the Northwest Missouri Orphans' Home, was perhaps fatally wounded by a 15-year old girl, a ward of the home. The girl, Lillian Haven, became angered when told by Mr. Grider that she would be locked up until he returned from town to prevent a second attempt to run away. Having seen Mr. Grider place his revolver in a suit case the day before, the girl secured it and shot him in the back the ball piercing the spinal cord. At last reports Mr. Grider was still alive but the doctors hold out no hope for his recovery. Mr. Grider has done much good since he founded the Home fifteen years ago, and this unfortunate affair is very much to be regretted. Mrs. Rev. Smith, an evangelist of Oklahoma, preached an interesting sermon at the A. M. E. church Sunday night. The annual fair given by the Whatsoever Society of the A. M. E. church was a success. Women's day was observed at the Baptist church, Nineteenth and Sylvan, Sunday, May 2. An operetta, "One Day's Fun, or How Tommy Tussel Got His Black Eye," was given the night of April 30 by the pupils of Miss Johnson's room of the Bartlett High school. Deaths reported are: Anna Anderson, died at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Isabelle Anderson, April 21; Joseph Leonard died April 26 at 220 Iowa avenue; Albert Enyard died at Horton, Kas., April 25.

ROSEDALE, KAS.

Mr. Edward Hatcher died at his home Monday evening. He is survived by a wife and three sons. Mrs. Joseph Collins, 3321 Lloyd avenue, entertained Mesdames James Gerran and Clarence Jones, Kansas City, Kas., at luncheon Friday. Mrs. Josephine Norris was in the city last week visiting relatives. Mrs. Lulu Lewis entertained the Pleasant Valley Baptist Mission Circle Monday at her residence, 615 Booth avenue, at a luncheon. Mrs. John Washington of Kansas City, Mo., was in the city visiting relatives Wednesday. Joseph Collins and Orlando Henderson were in Muncie, Kas., Sunday on business.

SALISBURY, MO.

The Masonic and U. B. F. lodges gave a joint entertainment and exhibition drill at the A. M. E. church. A music and literary recital was given at the Baptist church Friday evening, the 23d.

The Value of Life Insurance to Colored People.
Is a text from which a little sermon could well be preached in every colored church in America.
The man who carried $50 to $200 in a weekly benefit society or a secret society on the assessment plan earned enough and could easily have paid the premium on $1,000 to $5,000 in an old line legal reserve life insurance company whose rates are fixed and subject to no assessment, if he only had known.
He could have made impossible the long hours of bending over a needle or the cook stove or the wash tub that came to his widow, if he had carried the necessary amount of life insurance. He could have assured his beautiful daughter the education she desired, the amusements she wanted, the clothes she craved—and which she got, somehow. He could have kept his boy in school and he would have grown up a credit to the memory of his father, a respected citizen of his community, and a successor to his father's business, instead of the wanderer or mental or ne'er-do-well. He could have changed the destiny of every member of his family! He had it in his power to make them bless his memory or bewail his shortsightedness! What a tremendous responsibility!
You can secure to those you love future independence, you can protect your obligations, you can save your business, if while you are alive, sound and well—and that is NOW—you secure the necessary amount of life insurance.
You can secure this life insurance in a strong, well managed life insurance company which has met every requirement demanded of it, owned, organized and operated by our people, the only one of its kind in the world, at rates within your reach if you act today. No matter where you live we can protect you. Tear off this coupon and mail it today to
