Mrs. Mary Frances Woods, a teacher in the Attack school, of Kansas City, Mo., and Past Royal Grand Master of the O. E. S. of Missouri Jurisdiction, is in the city attending the University of Chicago. While here she is the guest of Mrs. Walter L. Martin, 3524 Calumet avenue—Defender.

The remarkable singing of little Miss Edna Hammett at Allen Chapel Sunday before last is still the topic of conversation. Her rendition of "The Penitent," a very difficult and ambitious selection, fairly dumfounded her hearers as it requires the finest expression and absolute control of the vocal organs to do justice to this very difficult selection, and yet this young Miss though a mere girl, measured up to the fullest requirements with a voice as full of power, strength and delicate shading as has been heard in Allen Chapel this year. With proper training she has a splendid future before her in the musical world.

The cornerstone laying at Edwardsville last Sunday was a grand success and many Masons from both Kansas City participated in the exercises. Grand Master Hawkins of Kansas, who had charge, was assisted by Grand Master Crews of Missouri. Hon. J. G. Groves deserves all the praise he has been receiving for the successful completion of his plans.

A CALL FROM THE WOMEN OF ILLINOIS TO THE WOMEN OF MISSOURI.

Recognizing the old adage "In union there is strength," the Illinois Federation of Colored Women's Clubs has issued a call to the Western States asking that the women join themselves together in a compact body, the better to work to promote religious, social and civic conditions, and to make a stronger protest against unwise and unfair legislation.

To this end the Presidents of the State Federations have been asked to name representatives to the Conference which convenes August 16, 1915, at St. Mark's A. M. E. Church, Chicago, Illinois, at which time a Northwestern Federation will be organized.

The Conference will be in conjunction with the Illinois State Federation meeting, the Lincoln Jubilee and the National Half-Century Exposition. The following women have been named to represent the Missouri Federation: Minnie L. Crosthwait, Lucinda Day, Pearl M. Dabney and Ruth Lange, Kansas City; Gertrude Ball, Lexington; Mary E. Golan, Estella Diggs, Ella Lane, Rosetta Bennett, Mrs. A. E. Murray and Mrs. J. W. Daniel, Jefferson City; Dollie Stevens, Bettie Woods and Miss Theima Dixon, Hannibal; Josie E. Williams, Frankford; Ida A. Hill, Booneville; Emma Fisher and Mayme Smith, Sedalia; Marie Newton and Ida E. Schwisch, Columbia; Alma Clark and Florence Jenkins, St. Louis; Mrs. R. F. No. land, Palmyra; Elnora Jones, St. Joseph; Daisy Baker, Farmington; Be-nora Highsmith and Leota L. Fields, Carrollton; Ida L. Garnett, Macon; Mrs. A. J. Abbingdon, Clarksville.

These representatives have been appointed by the President of the Federated Clubs of Missouri, Mrs. Ida A. Walker, to represent our State Federation.

NEW AND AGGRESSIVE POLICY ON PART OF "THE ALTON."

From a letter addressed to agents of the Chicago & Alton Railroad by its chief traffic officials, the Chicago & Alton is not going to be satisfied or contented with simply taking at least its share or more of the business which is now moving, but intends by intensive industrial development to create traffic, securing not only the additional revenue on the new traffic but also materially increasing its revenue by the rent paid by new tenants.

Mr. Bennett, an agent of the Chicago & Alton received in his mail recently a letter impressing upon him the importance of helping "return of prosperity" by securing at least one new tenant for Company ground which was now going tenantless, calling his attention to the fact that it is the industrial towns and cities which thrive and grow and the necessary forms and blanks containing full instructions accompanied the letter, so that he would be in a position to handle all the preliminaries promptly on the ground. The idea, however, was not to stop here, but to attempt to secure new industries as well as to get the industries now on the right-of-way to increase their output either by the intensification of former methods or the improvement of old processes.

This action on the part of the Alton Company, indicates that the new management is not going to overlook any opportunity to increase the earnings of the road and feels that by having the full co-operation of the local force at each of its stations, and everybody pulling together that much good can be accomplished, not only for the "Only Way" but for the communities served by its line.

A REGRETTABLE INSTANCE

In any family's life becomes a reality when that family feels itself too high and too well to do for to own a small home, and is therefore compelled (?) to rent a large house or vice versa when a family feels itself too poor to purchase a large house so to keep up appearances is compelled (?) to rent a large house.

It is better by far to rent a home to own and live in a small house and maintain a bank account against the rainy days than later on feel the sting of regret come over you because "appearances" must drop out of sight when earning capacity ceases. Will the roll of rent receipts look so good then? Act today, that each tomorrow will find some worthy action done. Buy now and let your rent help pay the cost.

Here's a list but I have many other bargains.

MORTON-JONES WEDDING.

The marriage of Miss Rosella May Morton, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tandy Thomas Morton, and Mr. Frank Edward Jones of Philadelphia, Pa., was solemnized Wednesday evening, July 14, at the residence of the bride's parents, 3529 Adams street, Rosedale, Kas. The Rev. J. R. Williams, pastor of St. James Baptist church, officiated; the ring service was used. Little Florene Henderson bore the ring on a silver tray. To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. A. T. Moore, the bridal party entered. Miss Roseana Dangerfield, maid of honor, wore a beautiful dress of pink satin with chiffon and lace drapery, pink satin slippers, and carried a bouquet of pink Killarney roses; Mrs. Thos. Henderson, matron of honor, wore a beautiful white lace dress and carried pink roses; Little Florene Henderson, the ring bearer, wore a white embroidered dress with pink sash. The bride was elaborately gowned in ivory duchess satin overdraped with embroidered net, the bodice of which matched the drapery with bands of fillet and pearl trimming. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley and wore a veil of tulle, a band of pearls, caught up with white roses. She also wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom, and white satin slippers. The groom and his best man, Mr. Drennon Seals, wore the conventional black, and the bride's mother wore a beautiful blue gown.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton were assisted at the reception by Mesdames J. H. Thornton, Joseph Collins, G. V. Schooler, Geo. Turner, Walter Henderson, A. V. Ridley, A. D. Woolridge, F. C. Crutchfield, John Bates, Misses Belle Thomas, Margaret Collins and Sophia Bates. The punch table was presided over by Mrs. Lee Morris. The colors pink and white were carried throughout. The ceremony was performed in the living room. Pink carnations and pink roses were much in evidence. The bride's cake was artistically designed with roses and bells. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Tolbert and little son Gilbert.

The entire force of the Sun join in extending to Mr. and Mrs. Jones their best wishes for a happy and long wedded life. Mrs. Jones, formerly Miss Morton, was the popular collector for the Sun for many years.
