

PROGRESSIVE MILLINER
—In—
KANSAS CITY, KAS.

Has Large Assortment of
HATS
Sells Shirt Waists and Skirts at Extremely Low Prices.

JAMES TUCKER.

The hustling proprietor of a Millinery Store.

Would you think it? Right on Fifth street, too. Just where all patrons are bound to pass. Yes, the Quindaro or the Chelsea cars will put you off right in front of the door, 1421 North 5th street, you couldn't miss it if you tried. Mr. James Tucker is responsible for the place, and a hustling, bustling gentleman he is. It may be said truly, that he knows the business in its various phases.

The most striking thing about the store, aside from its cleanliness and fine appointment, is the exceptionally large stock carried. Positively hundreds of designs in hats (all up to date patterns), skirts, shirt waists and gowns. Missouri people will do well to take advantage of the following sale which starts this morning. Remember, you can save, not only your car fare, but 50 per cent on the dollar. Think of it!

100 all wool skirts @ 89c; worth $4.00 to $6.00.
White wash suits all go at 69c; worth $2.50.
Another line goes at $1.25; worth $5.00.
All linen skirts at 69c.
Night gowns only 39c.
White wash waists at 19c and 29c.
Silk waists at 59c.
Petticoats, 59c; worth $1.50.
Any trimmed hat in the house only 69c.
Also a fine selection of new fall sailors at $1.49 and up.
You wonder how we can do it, don't you? Come and see. Remember we are located in Kansas City, Kas., and are easy to reach by either the popular Quindaro or Chelsea lines.

JAMES TUCKER, Prop.
1421 N. 5th St.

Princess and Mr. Mayor, Ladies and Gentlemen:

For the past four weeks I have had the pleasure of responding to the welcome addresses of mayors of different cities. I come to say to you at this time that this is one of the proudest moments of my life. I thank you for permitting me to come to the Middle West to hear this young white man with all his eloquence hold out this light of hope to an oppressed people. He says for the past ten years he has been the mayor of this city. When I picked up the papers and saw where James C. Hahlman had again been elected mayor of the city of Omaha, Neb., I asked myself the question, Why? But when I come here to this temple of justice and hear this son of the Anglo-Saxon race present this magnificent welcome to my people, that query is answered. The time has come when race-prejudice does not reign supreme, but God-fearing men are being elevated and kept there. Christian ideas are sweeping the country.

Your excellency suggested that you had had the support of my people in your political campaigns. In every step along the lines of advancement the Anglo-Saxons are backed up by just such representatives of my people as are found in this grand old organization here today. It matters not whether at San Juan Hill or in the peaceful quiet of our own country, my people are found side by side with the brave and true of your race.

You have said that your welcome to my people who constitute this organization came from your heart and I believe it has reached the heart again, so much so that long after they have returned to their various homes your warm words of welcome will be found burning on the main altar of their hearts. I am a stand-pat Republican, but I want to say, Mr. Mayor, that when I grow creeping home to gather inspiration from the most beautiful woman God ever made and to receive the loving embrace of Marguerite and Billy, Jr., I shall feel that I don't care what party you belong to so long as you give Marguerite and Billy, Jr., a fair chance along the upper walks of life.

Mr. Mayor, you have left a lasting impression on the hearts and minds of my people; one that will never be forgotten and long after you are sleeping beneath the sod, the children of the representatives here assembled will be taught to say, "Blessed, blessed Dahlman."

Other addresses were made by Rev. Botts, Father Rhodes, Osborne and Charles Dickenson of this city. The responses to the addresses were made by Hon. C. H. Calloway of Kansas City, Mrs. A. J. Abington of Clarksville, Rev. Botts, Grand Chaplain, and the Hon. N. C. Crews, of Kansas City, Mo.

Wednesday Morning Session.
Though the weather was inclement the delegates were prompt in their attendance at the morning session. When the session was opened the Grand Princess appointed her committees. The new Princesses in the jurisdiction were brought forward and introduced and given Grand Honors. They were 36 in number. Captain C. H. Tandy of St. Louis, Mo., Past Grand Master Noble King, was admitted and given Grand Honors. The Grand Princess styled him the Chesterfield of the Order and his courtly manner proved the term had not been misapplied. He asked the Grand Temple for a donation for Brother Steven Bell of St. Louis one of the oldest members of the Order and who is now in strained circumstances on account of his old age and inability to earn a livelihood. When Captain Tandy had left the room a motion prevailed to not only remember the brother from St. Louis but all the infirm, decrepit and needy of the fraternity.

At about ten minutes till 12 the Grand Princess called forth a couple of sisters who lifted a collection for the purpose above mentioned. Hon. W. C. Hueston and Dr. M. H. Lambright of Kansas City bought admission and were admitted and introduced and given Grand Honors. The Grand Princess told the gentlemen that the price of their admission was a speech. The request of the Grand Princess in this was granted. Thus ended the morning session.

Wednesday Afternoon Session.
This joint session opened at 2:30 p. m. The session was opened with an anthem, "Praise ye the Father," sung by the U. B. F. & S. M. T. choir of Kansas City. The Grand Master, with fitting words, turned the gavel over to Past Grand Master Captain C. H. Tandy of St. Louis, Mo., who presided as master of ceremonies. Prayer was offered by Rev. O. T. Redd. The choir then sang, "O Lord, I'm hungry and I want to be fed." The Grand Master was introduced and made his fourth and last annual report as Grand Master of the United Brothers of Friendship and Sisters of the Mysterious Ten. Words are inadequate to express the forcefulness, eloquence and precision of this most excellent address. No phase of the great work of this splendid organization was overlooked by our Grand Master, showing that he was ever vigilant ever active. He had no hesitancy in giving credit to whom credit is due, displaying to the fraternity his broadness of soul, fairness of purpose and goodness of heart. In his statesmanlike address the Grand Master portrayed every feature of the work of the fraternity and sought to enlighten his hearers, concerning every phase of the work of this grand old organization.

The State Grand Princess, Mrs. Ida L. Garnett, was next introduced and in her own pleasing way made her annual report. Although the state Grand Princess does not make annual visits officially, she has found a plan by which she has been able to find out the status of the various local temples. She had ascertained the numerical growth of each temple and also the amount of finance in their treasuries. Upon her careful investigation she found that Mayflower Temple of St. Louis had made the greatest general advancement and Marshall Juvenile Temple of Marshall, Mo., had done the same, and by way of encouragement, she presented each with a beautiful banner. The report was a splendid report of the year's work showing the activity of the Chief Executive of the Women's Department of the fraternity and giving us an idea of the great good that would have been done had she been allowed to make annual official visits to the local temples.

The Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge, Prof. S. T. Pettigrew made his annual report. It was short but pointed. He reported that the total receipts for the year from the Grand Lodge and Grand Temple jointly were $57,267.57.

Mrs. M. Etta Bolden, Grand Secretary of the Grand Temple, made a very pleasing report, showing the careful and painstaking way in which she has handled this part of our fraternal work. It showed that there had been no negligence, no shirking of duty on her part, but that she has been ever active in the discharge of her duty. Her collections for the year from the Grand Temple and juveniles alone were $2,135.32.

A most excellent report was given by the organization's financier and State Grand Treasurer of the Grand Lodge, Prof. B. K. Bruce, of Leavenworth, Kan. By his report were able to see our weakest points financially. He made it clear to us, the things that must be done in order that we might continue on our upward march financially. From his report it was shown that the total receipts for the year were $72,274.46, and the total amount paid out was $56,865.14; balance on hand, $15,409.32.

The Grand Temple Treasurer, Mrs. Anna S. Toley, gave to her hearers a clear, interesting and accurate account of the Grand Temple's financial report, showing every penny that the Grand Secretary had received was turned over to and accounted for by the Grand Treasurer.

Other reports were made by Dr. J. H. Williams, Grand Medical Registrar, Dr. O. C. Queen, chairman of the Home.

Thus ended the joint session.

ST. JOSEPH, MISSOURI.
The annual tennis meet was held in Kansas City this week. The members of the St. Jos Club were present. St. Louis, Lawrence, Wichita and Atchison were represented. Chicago and Washington were also invited. The officers are Dr. McQueen Carrion, captain and president; W. H. Evans, secretary, and Jas. Gordon, treasurer. The members from here went to Kansas City Monday morning.

Mr. Chas. Mason, an old resident, is very ill. Mrs. Hayden is still on her crutches. She was injured in Kansas City about two months ago. The A. M. E. Conference will meet in St. Joseph October 1. Mrs. Bell Crews is up and out again from her recent illness. Mrs. Bell McGee has returned from St. Louis, where she attended Grand Lodge of K. P.

COLUMBIA, MO.

By E. R. Douglas.

Quite a number of Fayette persons were visitors at the fair here last week, among those being Misses Myra Pulliam, Mabel Barnes and Annie Leonard. Miss Nettle Moore arrived here last Thursday from Denver, Colo., and has resumed her duties as clerk in Caldwell's pharmacy. Miss Lily Hill of Fayette visited her brother, Mr. Humphrey Hill, here last week. Miss Mattie Crosswhite, formerly of this city, is here from Chicago to spend a few days visiting relatives. Miss Lily Logan of St. Louis, Mo., is here visiting her mother. Miss Laura Taylor of Chicago, arrived last week for a short stay with relatives and friends. Miss Lillian Boykins of Chicago, Ill., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Schweich this city. Mrs. Viola Gordon of St. Louis is visiting at the home of Mrs. Alice Williams. Mr. William Burton left Sunday night for Omaha, Neb., to attend the annual grand session of the United Brothers of Friendship, that convenes in that city this week. Mr. Burton is also a candidate for first grand trustee. With the assistance of his many friends he hopes to be the victor in the race. Prof. J. H. Renfro returned Saturday evening from Hannibal, Mo., where he attended the Masonic Grand Lodge. Prof. Renfro represented St. Paul Lodge, No. 12, and reports his mission a success which without doubt could have been nothing else with such an able person as the professor to look after the lodge's interest. Mrs. David Samuels left Sunday night to attend the grand session of S. M. T. at Omaha. Little Albert Hensley, Jr., received quite a painful accident last Thursday afternoon while playing by sliding onto a nail, which inflicted a serious and painful injury, but owing to the little fellow's courage and will power in not giving up he seems to be improving nicely at his writing. The experience will, no doubt, cause him to keep his eyes open, especially when sliding down posts hereafter. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Bryant entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner party in honor of Rev. Ross and wife of Fulton, last Friday evening.

Besides Rev. Ross and wife, our pastor, Rev. E. S. Reid, and wife, also Mrs. Lee Gray were present. Six courses were served and everything was enjoyed by those present. The young men of Columbia gave a delightful entertainment Tuesday evening at the Schleich hall in honor of Miss Lillian Boykins of Chicago, and Mrs. Viola Gordon of St. Louis, who are visiting here. It was an evening of real pleasure. Mrs. A. M. Schweich entertained the members of the Art club Wednesday afternoon, at her home on North Third street. All members were present and the regular routine of business a three-course luncheon was served. Mrs. Lucell Merritt and Miss Bertha Salles entertained Wednesday evening at the K. P. hall, quite a number of guests in honor of Mrs. Viola Gordon who is here. It is needless to say but all present were most cordially entertained. Mr. Clyde Buckner gave an automobile party Sunday afternoon for Mrs. Viola Gordon and visited all places of interest in the city.

HOLDEN, MO.

Mr. Arb King spent Sunday in Kansas City. Mrs. Beulah Perkins and her sister, Miss Maude Ewing, spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Chilhowee. Mr. Henry Murry is off on a ten days' vacation. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers spent Saturday night with his father-in-law, Mr. Sawyers, near Centerville. Mr. Charles Pratt spent Saturday night in Sedalia, Mo. Mr. W. O. Hadden left Saturday evening for Lathrop, Mo., where he has a job. Miss Beatrice King left last Sunday for a week's visit at Lexington Junction. Miss Charlene Morgan was down visiting her folks from Kingsville, Sunday. Mrs. Chas. Pennington of Kingsville spent Sunday with her mother-in-law, Mrs. J. J. Taylor, this city. Prof. B. B. Tulley went to Lathrop, Mo., Saturday. He says they have built a new school house to begin with next session. Mrs. Garnette Hauley returned from Sedalia, Mo., and reports a very pleasant visit. Mrs. Mammie Hill is a first class hair dresser.
