Mrs. M. E. Clement, 1517 Woodland, lost a valuable diamond locket and chain last Thursday evening. She had been entertaining some friends during the evening and the jewelry was lying on a dresser in her bedroom and mysteriously disappeared. She will pay a reward for its return or information leading to its discovery.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. M. A. Gla, mother of the wife of Supreme Chancellor S. W. Green of New Orleans. Her late husband was a prominent figure in the affairs of the state of Louisiana years ago and at one time was a state senator. Mrs. Gla made her home in recent years with her daughter, Mrs. Green.

After a month's sojourn among friends and relatives here, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neal left for their far western home at Salt Lake City. Every day of their stay was one of entertainments and receptions and there is no former citizens of our city who has ever been so lavishly entertained as were they during their visit. Kansas City loves Frank Neal and wherever he may go he is still "our Frank."

One of the most elegant and delightful affairs of the season was the 6 o'clock dinner tendered Mr. and Mrs. A. Frank Neal by Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Brookins, 1816 Woodland avenue, Wednesday evening. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being green and old gold, which was minutely carried out even to the place cards and refreshments. Covers were laid for 16 and it was a most enjoyable occasion.

Miss DeKonza, special stenographer in the Clover Leaf Casualty insurance office, from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Can take your dictation and typewrite the work. Also can rearrange your material to make it more grammatical or business-like. No job for less than 25 cents considered. Ask for terms on your circular letters or lengthy manuscripts. 1507 East Eighteenth street, upstairs at the left. Room 3.

On February 15 Prof. J. Dallas Bowser, 2400 Paseo, will celebrate his 70th anniversary and will highly appreciate birthday cards from his former friends and pupils on that occasion. Prof. Bowser has been 48 years in Missouri and has given over 44 years to the education of Negro youth, being the second teacher of color in this state, taking charge of the first school organized for Negroes by the late J. Milton Turner in Missouri. The Sun extends congratulations to Prof. Bowser on his excellent health and wishes him many more birthdays.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH. Madam Nicy Coby and Mora Rhodes are very much improved. We hope they will continue. All services were poorly attended Sunday on account of the extreme bad weather. The Sunday school was very well entertained by some very nice papers which were read after the lessons were over. Mrs. Mary Gordon had a very fine paper on "How a Teacher Should Conduct Herself." The Texas Jubilee singers gave a recital Tuesday evening, which was indeed grand. We are always glad to hear them.

NOTICE. Queen Etta Temple, S. M. T., meets the second Saturday of each month at 2:30 at 824 East Tenth street.
