KANSAS CITY, KAS.

By MRS. KITTY B. DAVIS.

Mrs. Siney Brown, 953 New Jersey, is confined to her bed from illness.

Prof. Chas. Stewart lectured to a large audience Sunday. Subject, "Morals."

Miss Maude Turner and Mrs. Sellars were visitors at Western University Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers left Monday night for Chicago where they will visit for awhile.

Mrs. Tilford Davis spent a day last week in the capital city in the interests of her lodge.

One of the greatest lessons that we, as a race, must learn is how to begin and when to stop.

Several commissions for the cadets and that of Major N. C. Smith were presented by Dr. Kealing.

The commercial department under Prof. J. H. Foster and Miss Simmons is making a record this year.

The boys have played several games of basket ball and have several more scheduled. The girls have a game for March 17.

Mrs. Mary DeLoach, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Marian Hobson, at San Francisco, Cal., has returned home.

All the religious and literary organizations have had their election of officers and have shown good judgment in the selections.

A surprise party was given Mrs. J. R. Thompson February 29 at her home, Tenth and Freeman avenue, by some of her lady friends.

Growth physically is as essential as growth mentally. Gymnastics and athletics under the supervision of Prof. P. L. Jacobs are not being slighted.

Mrs. Radford, 1005 Freeman avenue, was frightened very much Saturday night by a fire which caught her home by an overheated stove. Damage was slight.

A post course has been added and the two members of that class have completed Rowe's banking set in book-keeping and are taking up Klein's elements of accounting.

The chapel exercises under the guidance of Prof. Isaacs have been unusually interesting this month. We regret very much to see the 29th come, as this is the terminus of his month.

A little said and truly said.
Can greater good impart.
Than hosts of words that reach the head
And never reach the heart.

The A normal class visited the High school of Kansas City, Mo., last week under the chaperonage of Prof. Gregg. They bring back an inspiring report and we are expecting better work as a result.

Summer Alumna was organized February 28 and the members present were graduates from 1907 to 1915. Dr. Radford was elected president. All graduates are requested to be present March 12 at 2:30.

A delightful leap year entertainment was given at the Metropolitan Baptist church last Monday evening. Dr. Stewart gave another of his interesting addresses and Rev. Holmes made a pleasing talk.

The leap year banquet given at the First Baptist church the night of February 29 was one of the swellest of the season. The ladies turned out in full bloom, taking the initiative and bearing all expenses.

The public is very much interested in the unique bazar of imported aprons to be held March 17 by the choir of the Metropolitan Baptist church. Already friends from thirty cities have sent aprons and still they come.

The chorus has been practicing violently and even vehemently on "Hawatha," one of Coleridge Taylor's productions, and the doubts on the part of many as to whether it could be mastered by them or not has served as an inspiration to work harder.

Among the many interesting features can be mentioned: The entertainment by the Victrola, the Lincoln, Douglass and Washington programs and the appearance of the "unknown quantity" or the freshman class on the 25th. This was their first plunge into the sea of activity and they came out safely, having provided themselves with life savers of preparation. They deserve special applause.

The military social given at Western University Feb. 18 in honor of the cadets and at which Sergeant Saddle gave us a splendid address on "Preparedness and the Advantage of Military Training in the Schools," was indeed a success and marks an epoch in the history of our alma mater.

The Grand Court of Calantha, K. of P. E. and W. H., Jurisdiction of Kansas, held their semi-annual grand session February 25 with Naomi Court No. 6. Mrs. Maggie L. Hulsey delivered an eloquent address and the following courts were represented: Queen of the West No. 1, Golden Rule No. 2, Silver Shield No. 3, Melrose No. 4 and Maggie L. No. 5.

The Citizens' Forum opened Sunday at 4 p. m. President Marquess presided. Current events were led by Mrs. E. Buckner and M. Morris. Coronet solo was rendered by T. J. Jackson. A magnificent address, "The Gospel of Today and the Gospel of Tomorrow," was made by Miss Bowles of New York, here in the interest of the Y.

W. C. A.; also an address by N. B. Robinson on "Co-operation." Both were well received.

Summer night school commencement exercises were held last Tuesday night at the High school auditorium. The doors were opened at 7 p. m. Throngs poured in until the capacity was taxed to its limit when acres were turned back. The program began at 8 sharp. There was quite an improvement in every department over the previous year. A special feature was the play rendered in the Spanish language by the Spanish class, who also sang Spanish songs. The extensive work accomplished by Prof. King and his teachers is very complimentary and it is predicted that the opening of Douglas school and the addition of other teachers will come next year.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of my zealous and earnest hearted child, Emma, who fell asleep in Jesus March 4, 1914:

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in my home
Which never can be filled.

MRS. JOSEPHINE SMITH, Mother,
915 Woodland.

of
WENDELL CREWS

who passed our February 29, 1912.

Dearest son and brother, how we miss you.
None but God could ever tell;
Yet we cannot doubt his wisdom,
For he doeth all things well.
Yes, we feel that you are happy
With the loved ones gone before,
And ere long we hope to meet you
On the bright celestial shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. H. Crews,
Parents,
Osborne Crews,
Bianton Crews,
Brothers.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and beautiful floral offerings at the death of our little daughter and granddaughter, Sylvia Theresa.

MRS. MARY JOHNSON, Mother.
MR. ARTHUR JOHNSON, Father.
MRS. M. E. ANDERSON, Grandmother.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended Sunday and two additions to the church. Revival services began Sunday. All are invited to attend. Miss Eva Moore has been very sick and at this writing is no better. Mrs. James Graham has been on the sick list but is much improved. Mrs. Fred Harris of Boise, Mont., spent two weeks in our city and was the guest of Mrs. George A. McFadden, 2626 Euclid avenue. Mrs. Harris made many friends in our city and they would be glad to have her visit them again. The B. Y. P. U. was highly entertained by Mrs. P. L. Black, who gave a scripture recitation, Miss C. S. Freeman gave a reading from Dunbar. Mrs. Warren made a short talk on B. Y. P. U. work. Everyone enjoyed the program.

ALLEN CHAPEL.

Bishop Johnson preached last Sunday morning to a large congregation. Kansas City was eager to hear him. Services began promptly at 11 o'clock. The opening was No. 280 in the Great Revival Hymnal "Guide Me O Thou Great Jehovah." Prayer was offered by Dean Vaughan of Western University. The first Scripture lesson was the 53d Psalm, read by President H. T. Kealing of Western University. The second Scripture lesson was read by Bishop Johnson. It was the 15th chapter of St. John. Dr. Wm. H. Thomas in introducing Bishop Johnson styled him as the erudite scholar, brilliant lecturer and eloquent preacher, and after hearing him we believed him to be all that and more too. At the evening services the minister preached from the 24th chapter of Luke and the 32d verse, which is: "Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked with us by the way?" The Presiding Elders' Council will convene in Allen chapel next Tuesday, March 7. Some of the best teachers in the Methodist church will be here.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of our husband and father, Chas. Pullam, who died one year ago today, March 2, 1915.

Dear husband how we miss you,
Never will your memory fade,
Sweet thoughts will ever linger
Around the spot where you are laid.
