Those white people who attempt to impeach the Negro's fitness for the ballot set a fine example of franchise purity on last Tuesday. If the Negro is ever thus corrupted it is the white man who corrupts him and who will go still further in criminality if it is necessary to his end.

Now for a high class Republican governor and general assembly to complete the cleaning up of the city and state. These immoral resorts and gambling dens in which are bred thugs, rapists, thieves and robbers, black and white, must be broken up or the entire citizenship will be ruined by their leaven.

All honor to that great body of Negro voters which stood firm for decency and honesty in public life and in spite of bribes, intimidations and traducers. The Republican party is the only place for the black man, the only hope which he has for any part of his civil happiness and decent rights. Strike in line for November and stay even a harder blow to segregation and Jim-crowism.

THE NEW NEGRO VOTER IS HERE

By J. DALLAS BOWSER.

The new Negro was in evidence in Kansas City Tuesday. He was more unselfish than at any time since he became a voter. For once he thought of himself, not so much as Negro but as a man, a free citizen and a statesman. He had the good of the whole city in mind and all the people, and not any particular street, ward or race.

He was tired of the old order of wrangle and time killing at the city hall and wanted a change that would put idle men to work, the laboring man, the outdoor man, the common everyday man, making better streets and better sanitary conditions. He wanted lower taxes and more gas. Nor did he forget to strike a blow at the foul whelps of segregation and all those who favor it.

He demanded to be allowed to rent or buy a house, build a church or establish a school out of the slums neighborhoods, on the hills, and near the boulevards and parks if he can afford it. Thank God for the new Negro that cares more for principle than for spoils; that refuses to be bought for a song or scared with threats of discharge. The new Negro is not only on the way—he has arrived.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That the "colored troops fought nobly" election day. And that's no lie.

—That the biggest bargains are on sale just at the time we are always "broke".

—That the tip has gone out that some of the policy games are going to catch—

—That the men are not worth half as much to the church as the women. God bless them.

—That it's going to be a "rocky road to Dublin" for some of the boys for the next year or two.

—That some of the love letters people write makes them squirm when they get in print or in the courts.

—That the guy who put on his B. V. D.'s those one or two warm days hasn't got over his rheumatism yet.

—That you can't measure a man by the money he possesses. Some of God's noblest men are wretchedly poor. Amen.

—That Dr. H. M. Lambright made himself a real hero by going to jail election day in behalf of his people and this great city.

—That a certain miss said unless she gets married this year she will surely die. Forward, ye gallant life savers. She's a peach.

—That everybody who saw "Jephthah's Daughter" at Ebenezer last week is going back again next Thursday night. Well, it's worth it.

—That some people are so thin skinned and also so guilty that they think everything in the "They Say" column refers to them. Well, doesn't the Bible say "that the guilty fleeeth when none pursueth"? Lawd chile, 'deed it do.

OH, DOCTOR THOMPKINS.

Political Poem.

Here's to Dr. Thompkins, our medical friend.

On the 4th day of April he came to his end.

He worked for Mayor Jost and the Shannon rabbits.

It's a shame our physician got the Democratic habits.

They gave Dr. Thompson the old city hospital.

And told him to operate on the Negro a little.

Until the 4th of April his patient asleep.

But on that day he awoke to make a political speech.

The Republican Negroes went to the polls hand in hand

And they sent Dr. Thompkins to the promise land.

Oh, you Doctor Thompkins.

Y. M. C. A.

Saturday evening, April 15, a banquet will be given in honor of E. V. Pepp and Emanuel Jackson. Fifty cents per plate. All checker players in the city are invited to take part.

With the same enthusiasm that the pledges were made to the Y. M. C. A. betterment and improvement fund, the pledgers are meeting their payments. In a short while the list will be completed of the amounts up to date.

The great checker tournament for the championship of Greater Kansas City, between A. V. Pepp, the present champion, and Ed Headley began at the association rooms April 4. The first setting of four games was played. Score: Pepp 1; Headley 1; two draws.

The Y. M. C. A. membership campaign of March 27 to April 4, between the Reds and Blues, closed with the Reds two in the lead. Both Captains Myers and Captain Lotie expressed a feeling of satisfaction at the fine showing made by the members of their teams. In consideration of the great amount of interest to be taken in the local election they believed that a number of other men might have been secured but for the consideration of the local city election. The workers decided the latter part of the present month another campaign should be launched. Per agreement, the Blues have to treat the Reds to a chicken dinner. The date of this dinner is to be announced later.

One of the best events of the association year will be the physical exhibition to be given in the association's big gymnasium April 19. Members of the various classes will participate. This will include the men's night and noonday classes, the high school and grade school boys. The following tentative program has been arranged:

Grand entry, limbering up exercises—All classes.

Marching—Night class.

Team Wand Drill—Grade school division.

Exercises on the Side Horses—Class team.

Exercises on the Parallel Bars—Night class team.

Pyramid—Night school division.

Championship Colley Ball Game—Noon class.

P. C. James—Captain of the Boneheads.

Dr. T. A. Fletcher—Captain of the Hamfats.

Maze Running—Boys' department.

is that you can stand in the lowest point in Death Valley, which is the lowest point in U. S. A., and look up on Mount Low, which is 17,000 feet above sea level, the highest point in the U. S. A., only a distance of ninety miles. The twenty mule team borax mine is located in the Funeral range mountains on the Death Valley slope, which is on the west side of the valley. They have a large mill where they treat the crude ore at Death Valley Junction on the east side of the valley on the Tonopah & Tidewater R. R. They do not use the mule team any more; a narrow-gauge has been built that brings the ore across the valley to the mill. There are only a few colored people in the valley besides myself; two are working at the Gnsight Mine, seven miles from Tecopa in the Sheephead mountains; one has a talcum claim in the Ibez range, and one is upon Furnace creek in the Tonopah district. I will be in Kansas City some time this fall and any other information will be gladly furnished at that time. Watch the Sun for the date.

HELENA, MONTANA.

By Mrs. Mattie McGinnis.

Mr. A. C. Butler is quite sick for two weeks with nervous breakdown and hiccoughs. Mrs. Robt. Houston entertained the Embroidery Club at her beautiful home Thursday afternoon. The Busy Bee Club met with Mrs. Kitty McAvoy on Hollins avenue. Mrs. M. A. Greene left Sunday for the Hawaiian Islands. Mrs. Julian Anderson entertained at her home on Broadway in honor of Mrs. M. A. Green. Six friends were present. A seven course dinner was served. The colors were pink. Mrs. Nora Walker gave a dinner for Mrs. M. A. Greene, whose guest she was for the week end. Mrs. A. J. Dorsey gave a breakfast for Mrs. M. A. Greene, who left there for San Francisco, Cal., where she took the steamer for the Hawaiian Islands for her health. She will be gone a year. Mrs. Dixon and Miss C. Johnson of Deer Lodge were week end guests of Mrs. Ada Laliburg. They were taken for an auto ride and making calls on their many friends and later to a dance at the Germania hall given in their honor. The K. of P. had their first annual sermon Sunday. The church was full to its capacity with well wishers for their future. Nineteen dollars was given. One of our graduates will also be a happy bride this June. Mrs. G. Knaff is having her beautiful home remodeled. The Colored young men are trying to organize a local baseball team. Mayor Green, president; A. L. Walton, vice president; Dave Gordon, treasurer; O. M. Walker, manager. Are you going to Butte to the S. S. Convention on April 27. The Literary Society are doing fine work. Come out and help the young people. Miss Buelah Gray and Miss Annabelle Crump arrived in Helena from Fulton, Mo., to make this their future home with their grandmother, Mrs. Chas. Oliver.

TECOPA, CALIFORNIA.

Since my last letter to the Sun I have had many inquiries concerning conditions existing in this valley. Death Valley is about 15 miles wide at the widest point and about 300 miles long. It is supposed to have been an arm of the Pacific ocean at some remote time, but through some volcanic eruption was cut off from the main body. It is 275 feet below sea level. It has been known to get as warm as 136 degrees. Sometimes in the months of December and January we get a little rain and it has been known to frost lightly. There is no record of any snow. The chief trouble in crossing the valley is marshes, and it is due to this that many are lost in their way and also lose their lives in crossing. One very interesting fact visit. Little Mable Davis of Keokuk, Ia., is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Evarling Ridout. A social will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Allen Saturday night for the benefit of the Green Chapel Baptist church. Come out and help Club No. 1. They are making a special effort to raise a sum of money by the first Sunday in May. Mrs. Gertrude Scott is home after a visit with relatives in Keokuk. The pastor, Rev. Ed Green, organized the B. Y. P. U. meeting for the young people. Miss Lottie Belle Calshaw is president. Quite a number of young people are interested. Rev. Page preached Sunday at the A. M. E. church. H. L. Tood had an operation on his neck Thursday. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

CHILLICOTHE, MO.

By BENJ. V. LONGDON.

Simeon Sawyer of Seattle, Wash. is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Daniel Sawyer. Rev. Samuel Norris of St. Joseph, Mo., visited relatives and friends last week and preached at the A. M. E. church Monday night. Mrs. Mahala Leatherburg of Anacosta, Mont., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tolson. Miss Effie Alex is visiting at Carrollton, Mo. Mrs. Clem Brown departed for a visit with her relatives at St. Joseph, Mo., last Sunday. Miss Minnie Payne returned from Kansas City Sunday. Mrs. Eliza Brown has arrived from Atchison, Kas., where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Kerford. Mrs. Emma G. Longdon, who has been confined for three months, is recovering from a recent attack of pleurisy. The Bachelor Girls were entertained last Saturday afternoon with Miss Marguerite Estes as hostess. The Eureka club, a new organization composed largely of young men has succeeded in renting and furnishing modern social rooms in the business district. And I have always believed that social rooms, when properly conducted, give opportunity for wholesome and necessary recreation. In addition to the subscription campaign ending April 15 our collect-or desires to have every delinquent subscriber pay in full by that date. What a joke that would be on the editor of the Sun. Joke him so, or doubtless he will joke you.

LINCOLN, NEB.

By WILLIS W. MOSLEY.

Mr. A. E. Hale returned home from Kansas City, Kas., last Friday. Mr. Perry Williams while working on a scaffold last week fell and injured himself so that he was confined to his home for some time. Mrs. Victoria Haley, R. G. M. of O. E. Star chapter of Missouri Jurisdiction, visited Amarant chapter No. 54 Monday night. A special meeting was held in her behalf and afterwards an informal reception was tendered her. The lodge was encouraged in its work by the R. G. M. Magnolia Court held its Chapter of Sorrow in Masonic hall Sunday afternoon as scheduled and was greeted by a fair sized crowd. The services were nicely carried out. Rev. B. Hillman, pastor of Mt. Zion Baptist church, is gaining strength steadily and his friends and congregation are happy. We are proud to note that Clinton Ross, our young attorney, is in the arena for nomination for police judge. Every race man ought to vote for him and show race pride. There are so few of us whom never aspire higher than a janitor or porter's job. Let's vote for Ross whether he wins or not.

NO COLOR LINE HERE.

Under the heading quoted above The Philadelphia Tribune, a weekly newspaper devoted to the interests of the Colored people, published the following in its issue of November 27: "The great Catholic demonstration last Wednesday night showed very conclusively that no color line is tolerated in that church. Each of two Colored churches made a splendid showing in the parade. "St. Peter Claver's Church, Twelfth and Lombard street, made an exceptionally fine appearance. Headed by the Keystone Band they marched fourth in line of the first division. This in itself was an honor, as older parishes were forced to march in the rear of Colored churches. "The splendid tribute paid the men from both Colored churches as they passed along the long line of march showed how highly they are esteemed by their fellow churchmen. "White business and professional men who formed one of the companies of St. Patrick's aristocratic parish, Twentieth and Locust streets, showed conclusively that the color line has no place in their church when they selected a Colored man in the person of Major Samuel B. Hart, of the Gray Invincibles, to command their company in the parade. That the action of these white men met with entire approval of the clergy and the laymen of the church was best shown by the tremendous applause that greeted these men and their Colored captain all along the line of march."

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends for their loving kindness and constant care given my wife during her long illness and suffering under the splendid care of Drs. Walker and Perry. She now seems to be on the road to recovery of her health. We especially thank these friends for so many beautiful flowers: Mrs. C. R. McDonald, Mrs. A. J. Carter, Mrs. Nannie Fields, Mrs. M. E. Walker, Mrs. Scottie Dickens, Mrs. Pearl Jefferson, Mrs. Katie Harris, Mrs. Katie Goatley, Mrs. Annie Floyd and others.

EIGHT-DAY REVIVAL OR MISSION.

Given by the Very Rev. Chrysostom Theobald, O.F.M., D. D., the Most Eloquent Catholic Missionary in the United States.

On Sunday, April 9, at 10:30 a. m., the Very Rev. Chrysostom Theobald, the most distinguished orator of Cincinnati, Ohio, will open a Week's Revival or Mission in St. Monica's Colored Church, 17th and Lydia, for the Colored people, Catholic and non-Catholic. A series of most interesting sermons and instructions will be given and every colored man, woman and child are kindly invited to attend. The opening sermon will be preached at 10:30 a. m., April 9, and every evening promptly at 8 o'clock there will be sermon and Benediction. Admission, of course, will be absolutely FREE.

The object of this Revival or Mission is to explain the sublime Christian Truths announced by the Church and to impress upon everyone the one thing necessary for us all—to save our immortal soul. Furthermore, to reclaim those who have strayed away from God or who are addicted to any vice, to enable these to make their peace with God; to awaken the careless and indifferent to a better life; and to increase the fervor of the good and faithful. Hence the fervent and the careless, the good and the sinner, everyone without exception should attend this mission as everyone will be benefited.

Jesus Christ came into the world to save all; His love extended, not only to the good, but even to the sinner. Never did He find a human soul so sunken in sin, so enslaved to vice, that He did not eagerly seek to save. Our Lord's pity reached even to the lowest and His command to His followers is: "To preach the Gospel to every creature." Therefore, no one should think he is unworthy or not welcome. St. Monica's church, 17th and Lydia, was established by the Catholics of Kansas City to help the colored people, and the good work being done there is a clear proof that the Catholic Church is and always has been a true Friend and Protector of the colored race; no sincerely upright person can deny this.

As your well meaning friend I ask you to come and hear the most interesting sermons every evening at 8 p. m., from April 9 to 16.

Come and bring your friends.

REV. SISTER PEARL, D. D.

The following are some forceful and helpful scripture lessons which I would be pleased to have my many friends read while thinking of me: Psalms 37: 1-2-9-17-24-37.—Rev. Sister Pearl.

Did you give her a lift? She is a sister of man and bearing about all the burden she can. Did you give her a smile? She was downcast and blue, and a smile would have helped her to battle it through.

Did you give her a hand? She was slipping down hill and the world so fancied was using her ill. Did you give her a word? Did you show her the road? Or did you just let her go on with her load?

Do you know what it means to be losing the fight, when a lift in time might set everything right? Do you know what it means just a clasp of a hand, when a woman's borne about all a woman ought to stand?

Do you ask what it was, why the quivering lips, why the half suppressed sob and the scolding tears drip, were you sister of her when the time came of need? Do you offer to help her or didn't you heed?

Did you give her a hand? She was slipping down hill and the world so fancied was using her ill. Did you give her a word? Did you show her the road? Or did you just let her go on with her load?

Do you know what it means to be losing the fight, when a lift in time might set everything right? Do you know what it means just a clasp of a hand, when a woman's borne about all a woman ought to stand?

Do you ask what it was, why the quivering lips, why the half suppressed sob and the scolding tears drip, were you sister of her when the time came of need? Do you offer to help her or didn't you heed?
