Grand Master W. W. Fields of Cameron, Mo., paid a visit to the city in the interest of the fraternity.

A decree of divorce was granted to Mrs. Vivienne Lee Washington, December 7. Mrs. Washington resumed the maiden name of Vivienne Lee.

MONEY—MONEY—MONEY.

Furniture loans made to honest people. Pay back in weekly payments. Business strictly confidential. Bell Phone, Grand 2303-R.

Mr. C. M. White, Supreme Commander of the American Woodmen, will be in the city on business next Monday and will speak at the Centennial Church, 19th and Wodland avenue, that evening.

Miss Maud Marshall of Chicago, Miss Ethel Burrett of Pocatello, Idaho, and Miss Nellie Russell of Lawrence, Kansas, attended Prof. Roscoe White's Dancing School Wednesday evening.

The funeral services of Mrs. Alice Chevalier who died December 6 were held Saturday, December 9, at St. Monica's Catholic Mission. Mrs. Chevalier resided at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McMillan, 900 Euclid avenue, and was 57 years of age at the time of her death. She was born in Meirrose, La., and leaves besides a host of friends to mourn her loss two sons and two daughters, the former of whom were at her bedside when she passed away. She was a devoted mother and a faithful Christian.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carr want to announce the engagement of their daughter, Cora Lilyetta, to Mr. J. R. W. Fisher of Monrovia, Cal. Mother and daughter will leave in a few days for California, where the ceremony will be consummated.

CITY FOR CHRIST.

Church and Sunday School Campaign—Interdenominational.

Church and Sunday school workers are now engaged in promoting a city wide campaign for the benefit of humanity to save the child. To that end we are endeavoring to engage in a house to house campaign. We are asking every church, regardless of denomination, to enter, to come to the church and Sunday school promotion meetings every Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock. Early prayer meeting 7:30.

The object is to provide church and Sunday school homes for every man, woman and child in Kansas City.

Every pastor in the city is asked to attend and send his workers that they may be prepared to "go ye out in the highways and compel them to come in." The Methodist Ministerial Alliance are cooperating. Come out and help in this great movement and take this city for Christ.

ALLEN CHAPEL.

(By Della H. Mosee.)

Would that every Negro could have attended morning and evening services at Allen Chapel last Sunday. Mrs. Marguerite Peck Hill's sermon on Temperance to which the congregation listened with such reverent silence went straight to the heart and will surely bear fruit. Her's is a grand and noble mission—sowing the seed of abstinence. Little Hazel Bean sang a very sweet solo. At the evening service a large audience was present to hear the lecture given by W. Earl Flynn, Health Evangelist, who was invited to address our people by the Kansas City Medical society.

The first quarterly meeting of the conference year will be Sunday, December 17. Dr. A. A. Gilbert will preside. Dr. H. T. Kealing addressed the Senior Christian Endeavor on "Beauty." Everybody is invited to the supper to be served in the lecture room by the Debt Paying club Saturday night, December 16. Come to the divine service Christmas morning—hear the excellent music by the choir and the inspiring sermon by Dr. Wm. H. Thomas, pastor.

B. Y. P. U.

The following program will be rendered at the Second Baptist Church, December 17, 1916, by the Senior B. Y. P. U.:

Song Service, conducted by Mr. Jas. Anderson.
Scripture Reading—Miss Judith Stimms.

Invocation—Mr. H. W. Becka.
Paper—"Big Job Awaiting Us."
Ecod. 3:11-14—Mr. Fitchue.

"Why We Are Baptists"—Rev. S. W. Bacote.

The program begins at 6:30 sharp. This lecture is the beginning of a series of lectures that have been planned by the educational committee to run through the months of December, January, February and March.

January—"How to cultivate a spiritual growth among the young people."
February—"The Care of the Body,"
Dr. J. P. Shannon.

"The Social Life of the Baptist Young People," by Rev. W. A. Bowen, Kansas City, Kansas.

The public is cordially invited to attend all of these lectures.

WILLIAM ALPHIN, Pastor.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends and neighbors, the Rev. J. R. Ransom, the church auxiliaries, the Sheba Chapter of the Eastern Star, the Maple Leaf Temple No. 5, the Royal House and the U. B. F. and S. M. T. Choir, the Ladies Auxiliary of the P. B. A. and the Pleasure Seekers' Study and Art Club, of which she was a member, for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our beloved wife, aunt and daughter; also for the beautiful floral offerings.—J. M. Phillips, Limroy Rhoden, Mr. and Mrs. Bearl Stone.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

The pastor Dr. Bacote preached a grand sermon last Sunday morning to a large congregation. The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U.'s held interesting sessions last Sunday. Last week a special business meeting was held and they voted to install a new pipe organ which will cost $2,500.00. In the evening worship the pastor again preached an excellent sermon to an appreciative congregation. There were eight additions to the church.

ST. JAMES BAPTIST CHURCH.

In the report of the installation services on Sunday, Nov. 26, at the St. James Baptist church by a clerical oversight the name of Rev. G. T. Mosby was omitted from the list. He took an active part in the services. Good services all day Sunday. Our Sunday school is growing. We were glad to see the superintendent, Brother S. Higbee, who has been ill out again. Rev. H. C. Foster, of Los Angeles, Calif., preached a very good sermon Sunday night. Services were well attended.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were attended well last Sunday. Our pastor, Rev. T. H. Ewing, preached. We were glad to see Mr. James Ford out Sunday, after two months' illness. Mr. Isaac Moore has been on the sick list but is somewhat better. The Woman's Mission Circle was royally entertained at the residence of Mrs. James Graham, Thursday, at Centropolis, and a nice time was reported. The Sunday school is preparing to have a fine Christmas tree for the children. Everybody should attend and bring the children. The B. Y. P. U. will give an entertainment Christmas. Everybody is invited.

KANSAS CITY, KAS.

By Mrs. Zenobia Nelson.

Mr. Gus Morehead of 1041 Grandview boulevard is sick; also Mrs. Hogg of that number is seriously ill.

Mrs. Jones, mother of Mrs. Jackson at 740 Freeman avenue is seriously ill.

Mrs. Florence Moors of 931 Nebraska avenue entertained the Linwood Art Club.

Mrs. J. H. Dickerson of 1048 Freeman avenue, is ill.

Mrs. Sadie Duncan, 1016 Oakland avenue, continues seriously ill with a complication of diseases.

Mr. E. A. Shackelford will address the Vesper Service at Western University Sunday at 4 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. J. M. Phillips, 324 Greeley avenue, who was a sufferer of internal troubles for some time and who underwent an operation at St. Margaret's Hospital, Monday, December 3, died there the 7th. The funeral services were held from the home December 9, after which her husband, nephew, pastor, Rev. J. R. Ransom, Mrs. Wilson of the O. E. S., and friends, Mrs. M. E. White and Mrs. Berta B. Johnson, accompanied the body to Neosho, Mo., the home of her parents, and a second funeral service was held there December 10 at the A. M. E. Church, where her remains were interred in the family lot.

A K. C. ROMANCE.

John went to visit Nancy
The best part of a year,
But his salary was not fancy,
So no wedding day seemed near.

So Nancy soon grew tired
Of a lover bold but slow;
John found that he was fired—
Nancy had another beau.

To AVERY'S STORE he quickly flew
The unhappiest of all men;
It's right down on Grand Avenue,
Numbers Thirteen Eight and Ten.

He was trembling and excited
As in the store he stood,
But soon he was delighted:
AVERY said, "Your Credit's Good."

A YEAR LATER.

They own a home, are out of debt,
It was a happy marriage;
To AVERY'S STORE they've gone to get
A little fourwheeled carriage.
