Dr. and Mrs. Edward Ramsey, of Kansas City, Mo., who have been visiting in Philadelphia and Washington, are now visiting in the city the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Robinson, of 1520 E. Monument street —Baltimore Afro-American.

The Sun is indebted to the Des Moines Bystander, Hon. John L. Thompson, editor, for the cut of the Turner family, who appeared in the last week's issue of our paper. John says he hopes to have a family of that size himself before he leaves mother earth.

Mrs. H. G. Jones of 2639 Euclid returned from an extended visit to Oklahoma, where she has been for the past month visiting her husband's relatives and friends at Muskogee. She also spent some time at Tulsa with her husband, who operates between there and Wichita, Kas.

MME. MAE C. PORTER.

The Sun is pleased to know through its exchanges that our own prima donna and character singer, Mme. Mae C. Porter, is achieving wonderful success throughout the Southland. She is now en route to St. Augustine, Tampa and Key West, Florida, and if the revolutions have not become serious, expects to go on over to Cuba. One of the most distinguished educators says through one of our exchanges, "I've heard all of the great vocal artists that the race has, or had, and I do not hesitate to say that Mrs. Porter's interpretation of song sentiments is the clearest and finest of them all. The Sun is proud of Mrs. Porter's achievements and wishes her continued success in her chosen field. During the year she has contributed in percentages $1,964 to schools and churches in the Southland.

Mr. J. Curtis J. Wright, a prominent attorney of Boston, Mass., who was recently appointed ball commissioner, is a cousin of Dr. Theo. Smith, our successful druggist. Dr. Smith will leave for the East in a few days and will join Mr. Wright and his brother, Henry C. Smith. They will visit their old home and friends in North Carolina.

Mrs. N. C. Crews was called to Topeka, Kansas, last Tuesday on account of the death of her niece Beryl Brown, who was 13 years of age, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brown. Miss Beryl was operated on for an attack of appendicitis, from which she never rallied. Mrs. Crews was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Henry Austin, of Kansas City, Kansas.

A detachment of the 10th Cavalry spent last Sunday in our city, and while here were the guests of Lester George Atkins, a retired member of the Ninth Cavalry, and Theo. Rowan. They were passing through with some prisoners and attended the quarterly meeting services at Bethel A. M. E. Church. They were introduced by Mr. N. C. Crews to a large congregation and were royally received. Among them were Jesse Downs, Henry Weaver, Jesse Lightner, Stanley Gooden, Henry Smith, Ben King and R. N. Streetly.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank the friends and neighbors, church and high school for the many beautiful floral offerings and assistance during the illness and death of our daughter, sister, niece and cousin—Mr. and Mrs. Brook Brown, Arthur Brown, Lewellyn Brown, Vernon Brown, Seewood Dobbins, uncle; Melinda Brown, aunt.

ST. JAMES BAPTIST CHURCH.

(By Mrs. Cannon.) Our pastor, Rev. Wilson, preached an able sermon Sunday morning. The services were well attended both morning and evening and everyone felt that it was good to be able to be there. This is the second week of our revival services and much good has been accomplished and some souls brought to Christ and the Christians revived. Mrs. Wilson, our pastor's wife, has been on the sick list, but we are glad to see her out again.

CARDS OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to all those friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted during the illness and death of our daughter and sister, Josie Hall, and for their beautiful floral offerings. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henderson. Mr. and Mrs. F. Fields. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Weaver and other brothers and sisters.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

The services were well attended Sunday and one addition to the church. Our revival services ended Sunday with fifteen conversions, and baptizing will be the 17th. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Goings was preached Sunday by our pastor, Rev. T. H. Ewing. She was a faithful member of our church and also member of St. Mark Bible class. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to Master Junior Tibbs, the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Tibbs, was given a birthday party by Miss Clara Freeman at the residence of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Wilson, 1421 East 22d, and fifteen of his little friends were present.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

Last Sunday this church celebrated Dr. Bacote's 22d anniversary as pastor. At the morning services an excellent program was rendered, in which a paper was read by Mrs. Adelle Tucker. Also the anniversary address was delivered by Hon. Henry M. Beardley, moderator of the Congregational General Assembly (white). At 3 p. m. the services were conducted by the Inter-Denominational Alliance and a great time was enjoyed by all present. In the evening Dr. Bailey, the great evangelist, preached a grand sermon relative to the work which has been done by this faithful servant of God during his twenty-two years as pastor of this church. This celebration ended on Monday night in what was called an echo meeting, in which everyone expressed his views on what Dr. Bacote has accomplished and their determination to give him their loyal support. The meeting was full of interest and enthusiasm.

ST. STEPHENS BAPTIST CHURCH.

(By Clara Brown.) The services at St. Stephens Sunday were good all day. At 11 a. m. the pastor preached at 1:30 the funeral of Mr. Crumpton and at 3 the Sunday school; at 5 baptizing; at 6:30 B. Y. P. U., and all were well attended. At 8 p. m. Dr. Beason gave us a sermon from his canvas which was helpful to all. Our beloved pastor has just closed a successful ten days' meeting in Independence, Mo. There were forty-four additions to the church. He is now getting ready to begin a meeting in Muskogee, Okla., with Rev. S. S. J. Jones, D. D., on the 26th.

We are glad to report that the pastor's mother and son are both on the mend and are getting ready to go South. Rev. Hurst's sister, Mrs. Alice Smith, is preparing to return to Denver. Miss Sallie Kirby, one of our best members, is on the sick list, and we pray for her speedy recovery. Sunday is our regular Communion day, and the pastor will preach morning and evening. Baptizing and the Lord's Supper at night.

KANSAS CITY, KAS.

(By Miss Zenobia Nelson.) Miss Cecil Carroll of 1322 North 8th street is ill this week.

Mrs. Lena Hendrick of 845 Freeman is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Buckner of 811 Oakland, who has been ill, is some better at this writing.

Miss Olive Henderson of 942 Washington Boulevard was on the sick list last week.

Miss Viola Redmon of Versailles, Mo., was the guest of her grandparents last week.

Sir Knight Andrew Wilson read an original poem in behalf of his lodge at the funeral of Mr. Wyatt.

Mrs. R. L. King of Lawrence, Kas., is the guest of her daughter and son, Prof. and Mrs. J. P. King, of 920 Nebraska.

The New Dunbar Theater at North 10th street is giving each Saturday afternoon moral and religious moving pictures. This house is a success from the beginning.

Mrs. Josephine Bates of Lexington, Mo., who has been visiting her nephew, Mr. Julius Jones, who has been ill at St. Joseph, Mo., stopped to visit her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ray, at 235 Troupe Avenue.

An excellent sermon was preached by the pastor of the Metropolitan Temple Sunday. One of the main features was an address by Dr. M. L. Craft of Washington, Tenn., president of National B. Y. P. U. Board.

The meeting of the Forum Sunday afternoon was well attended. The musical numbers were very good. Miss Scotty Davis, teacher at Sumner High School, gave an interesting address on travels through the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Harris were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Emery at a dinner. It was quite a surprise to Mrs. Harris, as it was her birthday and Mr. Harris did not let her know where they were going until they arrived. After dinner the evening was spent in music.

Sunday services were up to the usual high standard at the A. M. E. Church, and many visitors were present. Rev. Alexander, P. E., expressed himself as being highly pleased and decidedly benefited in this worship. The choir sang beautifully. The Union revival is doing good work and having great success.

Miss Sabel Brown, age 18, prominent senior student of Sumner High School, departed this life Tuesday, March 6, 1917. Miss Brown was a member of St. John A. M. E. Church, Kansas City, Mo. Funeral services were conducted from A. M. E. church, 8th and Nebraska, by the pastor of St. John A. M. E. Church.

Resolutions and condolences were read from the church and High school. The principal address was by Prof. J. F. King from the school, in a touching tribute he told of the work of this young student and pictured her as a bud plucked in youth. He held the audience in silence about twenty-five minutes and said it is the fate for all, both young and old. The death knell has tolled, God's will was done. She leaves to mourn her loss a mother, father, three brothers, an uncle, and aunt.

Mr. Simon Wyatt, a prominent undertaker of Kansas City, Kansas, passed away after a brief illness, March 10, 1917, at the age of 42 years. The leading men of the city paid a magnificent tribute at his funeral, held from the A. M. E. Church on Tuesday, March 13. Rev. Ransom delivered the sermon, which was very touching. The body rested amidst an embankment of beautiful flowers, while resolutions and condolences were read from various lodges and churches. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, son and sister and many friends.

ROSEDALE, KANSAS.

(By Mrs. Rosa Jones.) Mr. James Irving is recovering from an attack of pneumonia. Rev. J. L. Beason will give an illustrated lecture at Wesley Chapel Sunday evening, March 18, and his subject will be "From Hell to Heaven." The public is invited. The Pleasant Valley Mission Circle met at the residence of Mrs. J. Watson Monday afternoon. After regular routine of business a delicious repast was served. A Chair Social will be given at Pleasant Valley Baptist Church Thursday evening, March 22, at which time the choir will render a program. Everyone is invited to come and bring a chair to seat the church. Little Marie Garner died at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Mary Garth, Wednesday. She is survived by a mother and uncle. Her father, Algert Garner, died two months ago.

ARGENTINE, KANSAS.

(By Mrs. Ophelia Jackson.)

The three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Stinch received a broken arm in a fall last Monday morning. Rev. W. T. Biggers, a former pastor of St. Paul Chapel, spent Thursday in the city, the guest of his cousin, Mrs. Fannie Carter. Mrs. Beulah Burke of Omaha, Neb., sister of Mrs. Carrie Ross, is visiting relatives and friends for two weeks. Mrs. Beulah Burke, Mrs. Carrie Ross and Mrs. Odessa Williams spent last Sunday in Bethel, Kas., the guest of their sister and cousin, Mrs. Mattie Bailey. Mr. Dewey Turner recently returned from Topeka, Kas., and will make his future home with his sister, Mrs. Carrie Ross. Mrs. Catherine Shields, Mrs. Millie Hamilton and Mrs. Gusie Locke, all of whom have been sick, are able to be out again. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Manlove is sick. Mr. Curtis Frazier, who has been ill and unable to work, received a telegram that his father is not expected to live, and left for Burlington, Kas., last Sunday morning. The Patrons' Club of Lewis School held a meeting Friday evening and discussed plans by which more parents may become interested to attend the community meetings held twice a month. A very interesting paper was read by Mrs. Clara Ross, an excellent talk by Dr. A. Porter Davis and timely remarks by Prof. Neely which interested his hearers very much. Mrs. William Freeland presided. The Argentine Imperial Band has charge of the Casino Skating Rink every Monday night. The proceeds are to be used for the purchase of uniforms.

IN MEMORIAM.

Sacred to the memory of our loving husband and father, Prof. Rial William Foster, who was called from labor to rest March 18, 1917.
We gave him up in tears and pain,
The one we most did love;
We know we'll meet him again
In the heavenly home above.
Sadly missed by Mrs. R. W. Foster and family.

In loving memory of our dearly beloved father, Mr. Anthony Perkins, who "fell asleep in Jesus" March 14, 1917:
It seems I can hear his loving voice
yet as he sang to us around the fire-side these words:
Suffer the children to come unto me,
Oh hear his voice,
Let every heart leap forth and rejoice,
And let us freely make Him our choice.
Do not delay, but come.

Mrs. Virginia Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Mason H. Morris, Mrs. Sarah Perkins, Mrs. Josephine Curry, granddaughter.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sweet and fond remembrance of our husband and father, Charles Henderson, who departed this life one year ago today, March 18, 1916.
Sadly missed, we hope to meet beyond this veil of tears to part no more.
Mrs. Elsie Henderson, wife;
Miss Nettie Henderson, daughter.
Mrs. Jennie Davis, sister;
Mr. Lewis Davis, brother-in-law;
Mrs. Cora Smith, sister-in-law;
Mrs. Bertha Smith, niece;
Mr. William Smith, nephew.
