U. S. NEWSPAPER LAWS.

Below is the law in regard to newspapers:

First—Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

Second—If the subscriber orders discontinuance of periodical the publisher may continue to send the same until arrears are paid.

Third—If a subscriber neglects or refuses to take the periodicals from the postoffice to which they have been directed he is held responsible till he has settled his bill and ordered the paper discontinued.

Fourth—If the subscriber moves to other places without informing the publisher and the paper is sent to the former direction, they are held responsible.

EDITORIALS.

Good morning!

Don't get excited! Keep cool!

Don't be a slacker!

All signs indicate that there are better days coming for the American Negro.

Colored men are ready for whatever comes and they won't flinch when the orders come whether it be for a fight or a frolic.

The advance troops of white soldiery has landed in France with great exultation, but it will be left to the valor of black troops to add the crown to their glory just as they did at San Juan.

When it was discovered that the "big burly Negro" who had attacked two Kansas women was really two white men with whom they had been flirting, the matter was hushed up in perfectly orthodox style.

A white man over in New York was sentenced to six years in Sing Sing for stealing a trombone, and it served him right. Any one who has ever heard a Negro band knows that a white man has no use for a trombone.

DES MOINES TRAINING CAMP.

ing a vast amount of good by seeing that the men whom they have touted as "exceptional Negroes" are only small potatoes and that the race has thousands of men who not only have had opportunities, but are filled with the proper spirit.

Come to Des Moines and see the men; get a new breadth of vision, carry back home inspiration to live up to your full measure of citizenship. Have the satisfaction of having seen a thousand and a half of men who are grand, but only reflect the other thousands back home, the possibility of being one of whom will help your boy or your girl to work hard and raise the local standard. Honor the men, pray for them, come to see them and behave yourself about them and remember that there is a difference between officers of the army and citizens. These men are training to represent the government. They must learn a little different method of dealing with people; they may still be democratic, but must never be common.

GRAND SESSION OF K. OF P. E. & W. H. JURISDICTION MO. & OKLA.

The Grand Lodge and Grand Court of the Jurisdiction of Mo. & Okla., will hold their Grand Session at Butler, Mo., Tuesday, July 10, 11, 12.

All Grand Lodge Officers and members are notified to be present at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, July 10th, 1917.

The Centennial M. E. church, 19th and Woodland avenue, was highly favored with a beautiful solo last Sunday by Mr. W. S. Baker, entitled "No Night There," that brought tears to the eyes of many and visibly impressed all who heard him. Mr. Baker's singing was a distinct surprise as there were few of his friends even who knew that he possessed such a magnetic and musical voice. Centennial extends him an invitation to sing again at any time.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That a swell London affair an "Empty House Dance" will soon be given in Kansas City.

—That the best way to demonstrate your manhood is to make what you say count for something and be as good as your word.

—That the community that does not protest against "dog walkers," "can-ners," and other tough gentry don't deserve any sympathy if that class invade their neighborhood. Amen!

—That the average "big" Negro is all right as long as you laud him or sing his praises, but show up some of his short comings and mistakes and he becomes your mortal enemy.

—That a Colored woman who was arrested for carrying two gallons of whiskey in a small grip explained to the police that she was taking it home to a sick child. Po'h little thing.

—That the most disgusting spectacle in church to cultured and well bred people is that Negro who is always posing and moving around over the church without any apparent motive except to be seen. Selah!

—That a great many people are complaining about the long services held at our churches these hot Sundays. Why should the churches cater to the tardy laggards instead of those faithful, prompt and intelligent people who come on time? Is it because there is no system? Or no business in the management of our churches?

—That an old Negro who was taken ill several days ago called a physician of his race to prescribe for him. But the old man did not seem to be getting any better, and finally, a white physician was called. Soon after arriving he felt the Negro's pulse for a moment and then examined his tongue.

DR. SMITH'S WISE SUGGESTION.

Dr. Theo. Smith of Eighteenth and Tracy, says: "Investments in cheap automobiles, flashy clothes and money diamonds will never make a substantial race. And so long as the so-called 'leading' Negroes practice such deception we will always remain economic slaves and a universal joke."
