Be men.
Fear nobody but God.

One thing is certain. A policeman who cannot arrest an unarmed woman without slapping her is not fit to be a conservator of the law.

Maryland has enacted a compulsory occupation law and it is claimed that the legislation is aimed as much at the cabaret lounging white man as at the pool-room loafing Negro.

School commences next Tuesday. Are your children ready? Will you encourage them this year into habits of promptness, regularity and industry or will you allow them to drift aimlessly through the bloomtime of their lives?

It is claimed that the better class of people at Houston, Tex., are not so bitter against the Negro soldiers who engaged in the unfortunate affair of last week, these confessing that the black troops were subject to continual taunts and bull-ragging such as is a fine art with the greaser class down there.

Race hatred is by no means the result of any shortcomings of the Negro people. It's just a cussed, low-down effusion of ignorance and jealousy upon the part of those who hate. It's the heritage of a mediocre class of anarchists who hate simply because their souls are black and because the mere fortune or misfortune of a white skin protects them.

It is sheer folly to think that there will ever be a race war in this country. The Negroes are not dreaming of such concerted action against their fellow-citizens. They are peaceable and long-suffering by nature and for this cause they are so frequently made the target of bloodthirsty demons who revel in the agony of those who are helpless.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Steele and their daughter, Faye, 2814 Woodland Ave., left Wednesday, August 29 for Oklahoma, to visit relatives and friends.

THEY SAY

—That the best man in town is he who doesn't hate his brother.

—That the opening of the schools will be a blessing to some Kansas City parents.

—That an account of the present high cost of corn "pok chops" will be scarce.

—That the teachers are beginning to holler on the "raise" on board. Too bad, isn't it?

—That a certain man is proud indeed when his wife has company because it takes her mind off his movements.

—That St. Louis, since the Encampment is in a greater chaotic state than during the East St. Louis riot. The wives are the rioters this time.

—That Palm Beach suits and these chilly mornings don't agree. Well, the boys will have to go see "Sam" and have him pull their winter suits out again.

"The Little Girl God Forgot" is announced as the opening attraction at the Garden Theatre next week beginning Sunday with a matinee. This is the latest play from the pen of Edward E. Rose, to be produced and was well liked by the many who saw it here last year; quite a number of changes in the cast have been made, most important being that of Miss Millie Beland who will play the title role. The story of Nancy Barlow, the little milliner's helper in the play, is not an uncommon one and parallels hundreds of other Nancy Barlow's in every day life. That is the psychological reason that Mr. Rose based his story on and from the large measure of success that this play has met, Mr. Rose is evidently justified in his belief.

PROTECT YOUR COMPLEXION

A bad complexion is the most fatal foe to an attractive face. Regularity of feature and a graceful form count little when a dull blotchy complexion is the accompaniment. Every woman has a distinctive desire to be attractive; no one can deny the attractions that lie in a glowing skin. To protect your complexion from exposure to weather and keep the skin naturally soft and velvety, use
