EDITORIAL.

Booze of Mississippi who contended before the Republican National committee that the Negroes do not want anything which the white people do not want them to have and who succeeded in defeating the Negro contestant for a place upon the Committee is an even greater curse to the race than booze who as insidiously spongers the claims of the Hon. John Barleycorn.

Does this appear sound? If the Negro newspapers at a very great and constant expense give free advertisement to the many and varied interests of the church then the church should at least reciprocate by refusing to give free advertisements through their Sunday services to enterprises which otherwise would be compelled to patronize the newspapers.

In the loss of Dr. H. T. Kealing the race has again suffered a loss for which we were in no sense prepared. Dr. Kealing was not only a leader of the most unimpeachable moral and spiritual character but he was a real, polished scholar in a class practically all to himself and stood out as the finest example of what the Negro can achieve along the line of broad classical learning and efficient attainments.

It is now the time of year when the school authorities are casting up values in teachers preparatory toward making up the list of workers for the next year. The Sun insists that the colored teachers should be held to the same degree of efficiency as those of the other race, at least in a reasonable ratio of their respective opportunities. Those who are known to be incompetent and inefficient should be no longer tolerated but the best available material should be secured for the training of our children.

That food may win the war, it is necessary that you have a war garden, so as to produce food. If you have no ground then rent a vacant lot. The amount of food which can be raised on a small lot, if carefully worked, will surprise you. A few seeds, a little work with the hoe will give you many a fine meal.

That the world may be free from the rule of the German Government the almost sainted French women are doing a greater part of the agricultural work of France while the men are in the trenches. The French women do not complain, except that they are not able to do more.

Most people eat too much, even when the price is high, and it is from this eating too much, or "stuffing," that the doctor and the druggist make their money.

Try making pies without a top crust.

The able-bodied man or boy who is not doing something to win this war is a slacker. Take your hoe and help win this war that we may all be governed by Germany.

Save the bottles, to be filled with fruit syrups left after the canning. Peach and apple syrups are fine.

THEY SAY

—That there's no fool like an old fool—Now don't all holler at once.

—That it takes a long tall brown skin girl to make a darkey break a locked door down.

—That if you don't pay your hospital subscription promptly you will be considered a slacker.

—That some people break all the Ten Commandments and think they can get away with it. But they can't.

—That a woman who does not marry before she is forty will always wish she had. Amen.

—That the old codgers are expecting to have a high old time since all the young men have gone to the army. No use, old sports—you can't come back.

—That when you've bought a piece of meat, a dozen of eggs, a package of lard and a little sugar and given the grocer a five dollar bill, you're lucky to get car fare back these eatless days.

—That a "Cullud" brother ambled into the Old City Hospital the other day and said "Doc, put me out of my misery quick." "Why what's the matter?" said Dr. Unthank. "Dey's raised de price ob gin so 'lean't buy it. Dey's cut off my pork chops and now dey say I shan't eat chicken, let me die—But when Doc reached for 'de black bottle' de brother changed his mind and out-ran a quarter horse getting away.

—That Doc Carrion in a little "kidding" argument with Lawyer Bruce the other day said "Bruce when you find a Negro homelier looking than you, go kill him." A few minutes later, up walked Doctor Ramsey and Bruce with a twinkle in his eye said "Doc I have to kill you." Ramsey said "Why?" "Because you are homelier than me" said Bruce. Ramsey looked at him for a moment and said "If that is the case kill me quick." Bruce fainting so did Betty and Sam.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

About one thousand heard Dr. Bacote's powerful sermon on "Go Ye Unto All the World and Preach My Gospel" at the morning services. At the evening services the pastor again preached a grand sermon on "Search Me O God and Know My Heart" which was enjoyed by all. During the day there were eight additions—three received the ordinance of baptism. The B. Y. P. U. rendered a special program and installed a new blackboard which had recently been purchased under the able leadership of Mrs. Ida Becks. The Prayer Meeting last Wednesday evening was interesting and well attended. The leaders were Miss Watson and Mr. Talbert. At the meetings of the Mission Circle Mrs. Ida Becks is giving special instructions in soul training to prepare the workers for the coming revival to be held in this Church in March. The Church is having a two dollar rally which will end the Second Sunday in March on the event of Dr. Bacote's 23rd Anniversary as pastor of this Church. Every member of this Church is urged to pay his two dollars in this rally. All soldiers and civilians visiting the city are especially invited to share our Church home.

ALLEN CHAPEL.

Many were in attendance Sunday. Dr. Wm. H. Thomas, the minister, occupied the pulpit at both morning and evening services. The text of his morning sermon was: Acts 15:37-38. Subject, "The Gospel of the Second Chance for John Mark." Subject of the evening sermon, "Failures in Disciples." There were two additions. Mrs. Lillian Savington Lewis, formerly of Allen Chapel Choir, sang a beautiful solo.... The four board of stewardestesses will give an entertainment at the residence of Mrs. Agnes Johnson, 1222 Woodland, the evening of March 7th. You are invited to attend.... The Mite Missionary Society was entertained by Mrs. Ida Lee, 2404 Paseo, Monday afternoon, February 25.... The Laboring Men's evangelist, Dr. Fred E. Roberts, has been invited to speak in Allen Chapel, Sunday evening, March 10th. The labor organizations have been invited. Special music by a men's chorus. Everybody invited.... The Christian Endeavor Societies are holding very interesting meetings every Sunday evening. Come to the Sunday evening service. Splendid music by the chorus. Short sermon by the minister.
