MEMBER NATIONAL NEGRO PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Get busy boys. Every Negro in the Eighth Ward should support William C. Hueston.

The evil that men do lives after them. Take notice and govern yourselves accordingly.

Possibly no writer has grasped the political situation as concisely and accurately as has our brilliant correspondent Chas. A. Starks.

On Monday of this week there were seven Colored teachers absent from work on account of illness.

It should not require any intricate organization of political machinery to elect Hueston from the Eighth ward.

White Republican voters of the Eighth ward are also on trial. We shall be able to see whether or not they will stand hitched to the doctrines of Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley.

The Editor was pained to hear of the death of his life long friend, Prof. Herbert Beach of Chillicothe, Mo., last Monday.

THAT COMMUNITY SPIRIT.

There is in this town a growing spirit to broaden as well as intensify the work of community interests. It is both Right and Beautiful.

Our contribution to the Liberty Loan does us credit; our conduct towards the Red Cross was beautiful; our Negro Hospital move was a Revelation in specific race effort and now comes the Aldermanic campaign with its currents and cross currents, testing whether we are strong enough to overcome the false barriers of petty jealousies and put Kansas City in with those Negro centers we have already named.

TO THE WISE MAN.

If you have a Few Dollars to invest in something to help you in years to come when old age and the rainy day set in, I can't emphasize the fact with sincerity enough when I tell you to invest in real estate—either city or farm.

THEY SAY

—That if you have got to tell a man his faults: do so. But safety first—use the telephone.

—That there is one Ad appears in the Sunday Star that causes a lot of fun to be poked at the Colored race.

—That Dr. Theodore Smith's beautiful Drug store did the biggest business in its history last Sunday. Well advertising pays, especially when advertisers deliver the goods.

—That Prof. Dawley, who teaches a bright class of boys in Allen Chapel, Sunday school, was explaining to them the story of Dives, the rich man and Lazarus, the poor man; and when he had finished a very graphic description he said to them, "Now boys which would rather be, the rich bad Dives or the poor and pious Lazarus?"

One bright young chap after studying for a moment, spoke up and said, "I tell you Prof. I believe I would rather be Dives while I am alive and then be Lazarus after I am dead."

—That an old colored man named Zenohad a savings account in a Southern bank. One day the bank failed and Zenohad was very much perturbed—though he didn't know it by that name.

He hung around the bank, just to be near his money, and when the receiver asked him why, he answered: "Kas Ah's got some money in dat 'ar bank an Ah wants t' git it."

"Well," replied the receiver, "don't you know that the bank has to be thoroughly examined before any of the depositors can get their money? Banks have failed before. This isn't the first time a bank has busted."

"Shore, Ah knows dat; Ah's heard tell o' banks bustin' afore dis, but dis heah am de fuhrst time dat a bank evah busted right squah in mah face."

Finally the receiver announced that the depositors would be paid in full in alphabetical order. Unfortunately, a mistake had been made in figuring and when they got down to the W's the money gave out and Zenohad lost his savings.

However, he wasn't discouraged. After a couple of months he had some more money saved up. He took it to another bank, where he was known, and told the cashier he wanted to open a savings account.

"All right, Zenohad," said the cashier warmly, "we will be glad to open an account for you."

"Zenohad nothin'," drawled the old man quickly, "mah name ain't Zenohad no mo, mah name's Aaron."

Kansas City, Mo. I suffered with lumbago for a long time and I heard of Mackey's Liniment. I used one bottle of this Liniment and was entirely cured, and I feel safe to say it is the best Liniment made and it cannot be beat. I must say Mackey's Liniment will do all it is recommended to do. JOHN SAILSBERRY, 2141 Highland Ave., Bell East 3197.

Kansas City, Mo. I want to say I used one bottle of Mackey's Liniment and it has done me more good than any medicine I ever used. For 15 years I suffered with rheumatism and for five years I suffered with severe throat trouble, but am now cured. For these complaints I find nothing to equal Mackey's Liniment. MRS. LIZZIE LOGAN, 800 Independence Ave.

Sir: Please allow me space in your paper to say a word about Mackey's Liniment. I suffered with pains in my feet, legs, back, stomach and after examination I found the pain in my back to be Lumbago. Learning that Mackey's Liniment was a cure for the same, I ordered a bottle at once and after applying the same as directed I was restored to my normal feelings. This was the fourth bottle used in our house the first time for Lumbago. I will highly recommend it to anyone disabled with the above named symptoms and for all kinds of pains. MRS. SUSIE CRAIG, 1801 Bellview, Kansas City, Mo.
