Hurrah!

Hallelujah!

Remember the boys "over there."

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

It wouldn't be a bad idea to sing a few praises of Theodore Roosevelt, the only "Teddy," the greatest man living on earth today.

President Wilson will be "unembarrassed" during the next administration if he "comes clean" and "totes fair" during the next two years.

To the epicure and the man who enjoys good eating, a good cook is a jewel. Compton's restaurant at 18th and Woodland has such a cook in the person of A. Douglas Turner, who cooks things that simply melt in your mouth.

Mr. Compton himself is a cook of acknowledged ability. He also has the best Negro baker in the United States in the person of Rev. R. C. Long, who for twenty years was in the best white bakeries in this city.

The Sun congratulates The United War Work Campaign Committee on the selection of Mr. Frederick W. Dabney as the Chairman of the Negro Committee for the Campaign now being waged in this city. As a statistician executive officer and Campaign manager Fred Dabney has few equals and no superiors. Endowed with a fluency of speech, a broad intellectuality and forceful aggressiveness, he is a natural leader of men, and The Sun predicts that his effort on the part of the Negro, like all others with which he has been identified, will be an unqualified and overwhelming success.

AMERICAN WOODMEN BEAT THE METROPOLITAN TO IT.
October 21st Neighbor Edward Mason, who resided at 1619 Troost avenue was shot by a member of another race, and on the following day an Angel said to him, "Neighbor Mason, come home."

We were indeed sorry that this

Neighbor was called from us so early, but yet we were glad to pay the claim. He carried a policy of $500.00 with the American Woodmen, and he was also carrying a policy with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. The American Woodmen very promptly paid his beneficiary, November 5, and to date the Metropolitan has not settled.

This fact will help to prove conclusively that the Colored man or woman can and will do business, if given the chance, although there is so much cold water thrown in their faces.
