BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Last Sunday was a great day in Bethel Church. Quite a large crowd greeted the pastor at 11 o'clock. Rev. Dawson preached a most wonderful sermon from the text "When They Saw the Star They Rejoiced with exultation with the church." Rev. I. M. Page, the noted Evangelist, preached at the evening hour to a very large congregation. One joined the church during this service. The Sunday School, under the management of Mr. R. J. Graer, is destined to do a great work this year in Bethel. The pastor would be happy to see all of the old scholars together with the parents in Sunday School Sunday. The Endeavor, under the management of Mr. Robert Hughes, is growing with leaps and bounds, it is good to be in these meetings at 6:30 P. M. Sunday evenings. Christmas morning promptly at 5:00 Rev. Dawson began preaching. The service was largely attended. The presence of the Holy Spirit was manifested during this service. Those present felt as the Apostles did on the day of Pentecost. The members of Bethel church together with the pastor are planning to do great things this year by the help of the Heavenly Master. Bethel is the home of visitors whenever you want to enjoy a good religious service. Come over to Bethel. The pastor and members make it their special duty to see that you are welcome. The choir, under the management of Mrs. Fannie Barber and Mr. Jewel Johnson, is rendering splendid music. To all of these services you are welcome.

hope she had a very pleasant Christmas. The public is cordially invited to attend services at St. John.

MT. TABOR A. M. E. CHURCH.

On the 23rd of December to the surprise of the Rev. and wife the rocking chair was carried to the parsonage door and Mr. and Mrs. Rox of Centropolis A. M. E. Church and December 24, Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church gave their Christmas tree there. Rev. Williams opened the exercises and a nice program was rendered. December 25, Mt. Tabor celebrated the birth of Christ. Two of the deacons of the Baptist church also took part in the exercises, brothers Hawkins and Williams. Our first Quarterly meeting will be the first Sunday in January and all are invited. Rev. Howard Samilton will preach the sacramental sermon for us and will also sing. Come one—Come all.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended last Sunday. At 9:30 the Sunday School held a very interesting session. At 11 o'clock Dr. Bacote preached a very beautiful sermon, taking for his subject "The Pre-eminence of Christ." The sermon was enjoyed by all present. In the evening services Rev. Redd preached a very interesting sermon, taking for his subject "Invitation" from Rev. 22:17. During the day there were five additions to the church. The program and Christmas tree which was rendered on Christmas eve was a success. At five o'clock Christmas morning Dr. Bacote preached a grand sermon, taking for his subject "Wonderful Councillor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace." The sermon was enjoyed by all present. The church choir also furnished special music for the occa-

QUARTERLY MEETING

At Allen Chapel

subject Psalms 92:9, who preached a grand and noble sermon. At 8 o'clock sharp he ascended the rostrum and brought us another message from the Lord. Many souls were made to rejoice and praise was given Him from whom all blessings flow. This subject and text were found in the 3rd Chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, the 14th and 15th verses. We were pleased to have St. Paul church worship with us Sunday at 3 o'clock. Rev. N. T. Lamb, the pastor and Rev. Towles, pastor of New Hope Baptist Church. Sister Perry from St. Joseph Mo., was a welcome visitor at our church Sunday. Sister Lucy Davis is reported to be very ill again and Sister Julia Taylor is reported somewhat better. The collection for the sick and needy Sunday was $6.40. We invite the strangers to make this church their church home. You are welcome.

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH.

In spite of the car strike, quite a few of St. John's members and friends were in attendance Sunday. All seemed to enjoy a spiritual treat from their pastor, Rev. J. C. Bell. Preparations were made for the children on Christmas Eve and old Santa saw that they got their nuts and candies. On Sunday morning the pastor and wife were presented a Christmas purse by the members, they were greatly surprised and extended their thanks to each and everyone present. Through the kindness of Mrs. Katie Cummings Santa dropped a Christmas basket with everything good to eat at their home 1611 E. 19th. The pastor and wife wish to thank the following for the many kind deeds rendered for in person of Mrs. Payne, Finley Harris, Cummings, Moore, Bond and Mr. H. Simmons, one of the most liberal and faithful young men of St. John. He is always at his post of duty. Associated with him at his work as a butcher, Miss Cleopha Hollinsworth of 1921 Vine St., who is the first Negro woman butcher in the world that has ever worked at the Packing House of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle and father, and Mrs. Mack were Sunday morning visitors of Miss Grace Newman, who has been on the sick list for some time. We hope she had a very pleasant Christmas. The public is cordially invited to attend services at St. John.

GALILEE MISSIONARY BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday School was good. At 11 A. M. the pastor conducted an interesting meeting. First Epistle of John and the 2nd Chapter. It was well attended and well discussed. The B. Y. P. U. at 6 P. M. was good. The Missionary Ideas was well discussed. At 7:45 the evening services were good. The pastor preached a noble sermon. Text was found in Matthew 26:15; Subject "The Turning Point." The offering for the day was good. There were two additions to the church. The church is in better spiritual condition than it has been here-to-fore. God is wonderfully blessing us. As our under shepherd, Dr. A. Moore, marches out, out all of the stalwarts and loyal regulars falls in line. The choir is doing fine under the direction of Mrs. Franklin. Praise God all is well with Galilee.

ALLEN CHAPEL.

Chas. R. Stewart, newspaper correspondent, notable lecturer and preacher of the gospel, occupied the pulpit at Allen Chapel Sunday morning. That his splendid sermon made a deep impression upon the worshippers, was indicated by the reverent silence with which they received his message with here and there a fervid "Amen." Many shed tears. At the evening service Dr. Thomas, the minister, delivered an inspiring sermon on "Humility." A letter from Houston Shelton, Paris, France, was read by Frank Harris, stating that he and other Kansas City men were getting along fine. It is encouraging to know that in all the letters received from "Over There," the young men asked to be remembered by the church in their prayers. Hence, it behoves us to keep the church fires burning. A solo was sung by Mrs. Lena Moseley Johnson. The Sunday preceding Christmas offering was for the orphan children. Judge A. S. Van Valkenburg of the U. S. District Court and wife were in attendance at the funeral of one of Allen Chapel's staunch members, Sister Lucy Hinkston, which was held immediately following the morning service. Mr. Van Valkenburg paid a most beautiful tribute to her whom he said had long been considered as one of the family. She had been in their service for twenty years with the exception of a brief period. He pictured her as having been loyal, trustworthy the salt of the earth. The members of Allen, who knew her personally, shared this opinion and extend their sympathy to the bereaved family. Dr. Thomas, the minister, officiated. The Y. M. C. A. Club of Allen held a meeting Sunday afternoon at the "Y." Watch meeting will be held at the close of Love Feast and Class Tuesday night. Quarterly meeting Sunday December 29th. The solemn and impressive Christmas morning service conveyed a new meaning this year to those assembled in Allen Chapel at the break of this memorable day to give thanks to God and expression to the deep gratitude with which their hearts are overflowing. "Peace on Earth, Good will toward Men" had a deeper and more sacred meaning to them than ever before. Dr. Thomas, our efficient and versatile minister, delivered an ideal sermon which enlightened and uplifted. The special music rendered by Prof. Jackson and the choir conveyed a new significance. A vision of the day of spiritual awakening when universal brotherhood will reign supreme.

EBENEZER A. M. E. CHURCH.

In spite of the poor car service a splendid audience was in attendance all day on Sunday. The Christmas morning services were largely attended and the best and most impressive in the history of the church. Rev. Osborne was at his best and preached a great Christmas sermon. The Vesper Choir rendered beautiful candle services. The echo solos by Mrs. Ada Davis were solemnly impressive. A large Christmas offering was taken. Don't miss the Mollie Wilson and her Junior Endeavor girls and boys; they are going to give the play of the season. Monday evening December 30th, open doors at the parsonage and residence of Mrs. Bessie Mason's on New Year's day. Masker William Perkins, nephew of Mrs. Osborne and a member of the boys Sunday School class, is spending the Holidays at home in Glasgow, Mo. with his mother and sisters and brothers. Special musical program will be rendered at Ebenezer Sunday evening. Mrs. W. T. Osborne received $30.00 for Wheatley-Provident Hospital at Commerce Trust Co. Bank on Tag Day.

"SUB ROSA" IMPLIES SECRECY

Term Had Its Origin Long Ago in a Plot Which Involved Existence of Sparta.

The origin of the phrase sub rosa, "under the rose," implies secrecy, and had its origin in the year 477 B. C., at which time Pausanias, the commander of the confederate fleet of the Spartans and Athenians, was engaged in intrigues with Xerxes for the subjugation of Greece to the Persian rule, and for the hand of the monarch's daughter in marriage. The negotiations were carried on in a building attached to the temple of Minerva, called the Brazen house, the roof of which was a garden forming a bower of roses; so that the plot, which was conducted with the utmost secrecy, was literally matured under the roses. Pausanias, however, was betrayed by one of his emissaries, who, by a preconcerted plan with the overseers and counselors of state, five in number, gave them a secret opportunity to hear from the lips of Pausanias the acknowledgment of his treason. To escape arrest, he fled to the temple of Minerva, and as the sanctity of the place forbade intrusion, the people walled up the edifice so that he might die of starvation.

A CALL TO TRUE MEN AND WOMEN.

The Kansas Defense Society is raising funds to secure, if possible, the freedom of the Negro soldiers who are confined in prison for having participated in the so-called Houston riot. The Sun has taken up their cause in this city and if you believe they should have a rehearing, that they should be given a WHITE MAN'S CHANCE before the bar of public opinion and equity, then be courageous enough to subscribe to the extent of your ability to this very worthy cause. The Sun has started the contribution with ten dollars. Who will be the next loyal man or woman of the Race to make a contribution? Mail in your contribution or come to our office or call us over our phone, Bell East 999, and we will come to you. All contributions will be published weekly in this paper.
Are you a man? Have you a heart? Then get busy.

CITY IN BEAUTIFUL SETTING

First Sight of Constantinople Cannot Fail to Impress Even the Most Satiated Globe Trotter.

However many descriptions of Constantinople may have been read or heard previously, the actual sight of it must certainly come to every one with a feeling almost of astonishment at the sheer beauty of the place. Certainly it can be a matter of surprise to no one that Constantine chose Byzantium as the spot from which to rule the East, for surely no city ever had a more magnificent situation. Whether seen from the deck of the steamer, as it nears Constantinople, coming up from the sea of Marmora, or from the head of the Golden Horn, or from the heights of Pera opposite, or even from the Galata bridge, Stamboul, rising from the brilliantly blue waters which surround it on three sides, must always take first place for loveliness among all the beautiful cities of the world. In May, when all the Judas trees are a mass of pinkish blossom and the wistaria hangs in pendant pale mauve masses above the narrow streets between the old wooden houses, Stamboul is perhaps beautiful above all months in the year.

Mexico Had Printing Press in 1537.

Mexico had a printing press about a hundred years earlier than the United States, or, to be exact, in 1537. The first works printed upon it were naturally by authors born in Spain who had come to America. The claim that the first book by a native-born American was written by a Mexican, and struck from many years. Recently a writer of Santo Domingo has been brought forward as the first American author. An article in a recent number of the new monthly magazine, Inter-America, presents a well documented discussion of the relative claims, in which the author concludes that the honor still remains with Mexico. The first book, in his finding, by a native American author was printed by Juan de Leon, in Sevilla, in the year 1594. There exist copies of this priceless edition in the collection of the Hispanic Society of America, in New York, in that of the Duke de T'Serclaes in Sevilla.
