Get ready for the opportunity, and the opportunity will come.

Nothing is so local as to not be of some general benefit.

In the efficiency tests given to the city school children last May, it is found that Negro pupils ranked far above the city standards in formal spelling, slightly below in penmanship and distressingly below in arithmetic.

It was the zero of meanness for the dynamiters to place their nerve splitting charge under the wheels of a Vine street "speck." The Negroes had already had their share of this sort of entertainment, and it ought to be passed around.

After a few more academic lessons of good taste are learned some of our popular banquet speakers should observe the wide difference between a response to a toast and an address of the evening. There might also be established a training school for toastmasters.

School efficiency cannot rise very high above home efficiency. If the home does not foster an atmosphere conducive to intellectual inspiration the school has but little to begin with. The unregulated home, be it ever so pretentious in its claims, is a fatal barrier to the moral, social and mental development of the child.

Colored people just will make their public programs too long. That's why more people do not attend them and that's why many excellent numbers are wasted upon retreating patrons. The question should not only be "Is the program attractive enough?" It should always be, "Is it short enough?"

Dr. R. R. Moten is a very sensible man, and it may not be true, as reported, that he was ever in France advising the Southern Negro soldiers to return home in a meek and humble manner. It is far more likely that he was advising them not to return to their Southern homes at all. The white people down South will attend to the "meek and humble" part of the return.

If the war brings no other great benefit to the Negro, the National prohibition of the liquor traffic will make up for all disappointments in other practical directions. Drink has been our greatest moral, social and economic enemy. It has harassed our home ties, retarded our children, debased our ideals and consumed our resources. It has crazed the lowest of our impulses and it has brought upon us the brutal frenzy of the lawless mob!

FOR SALE—PRICE $1,800.

Just think, $100 down, balance $10 monthly; less than what it is now renting for. Where can you beat it? This property is located at 2012 Hales Avenue; it is a 6-room frame, modern, newly decorated; arranged for two families; lot 32 feet wide.

Why be so foolish and pay rent and take your landlord's insults when you can make your rent pay for you a home and be your own boss. Your Liberty Bonds accepted as cash. See Kinsler, Bell Phone Grand 4204, Home, Delaware 950, 918 East 21st Street.
