By W. W. Mosley.
 Mrs. Alma Wiley went to St. Joseph, Mo., last Saturday to visit her parents. Mr. William Arnett of Beatrice, Neb., spent a few days in the city the past week. Mrs. R. R. Powers and daughter went to Kansas City last Saturday on a visit. Mrs. Wilson was called to the city last week on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. M. Griffen. Uncle Bob Johnson and Mr. Patterson are reported confined with sickness. P. L. Moore is doing nicely. Roland Young is out after a siege of the measles. The N. A. C. P. met in Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon. Spontaneous addresses were made in praise of the work that could be done in this community if the people would only adhere to business. Rev. E. M. Connor of St. Joseph, Mo., will be in the city next Sunday and will hold services several nights during the week. Rev. L. H. Smith spoke for Mt. Zion Baptist congregation last Sunday night. The Sunday School with the aid of friends is preparing an Easter program.

WELLINGTON, MO.

Mr. Allen Price is getting better and we are glad of that. Mrs. Sallie Walker is very ill and has been for some time. Mrs. Christine Hawkins, the daughter of Mrs. Sarah Triplett was burned to death in Kansas City, Mo., March 14th. Her body was brought to Wellington, her home. The funeral was preached at the A. M. E. Church by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Long. The program given by the members of the Endeavor last Sunday night was great. The selection by Mrs. Anna Price was very good. Mr. Leonard Slaughter fooled all of us. His solo was wonderful and Mrs. Hanners and Miss Jones sang beautifully. Mrs. Bell Campbell, our teacher, was at herself. We thank Mr. Thomas Price for his closing remarks. Our Endeavor is on the upward march. The M. E. Church will have their last rally for the year next Sunday. The pastor will preach his farewell sermon. Rev. C. A. Long will be in Dover next Sunday.

POCATELLO, IDAHO.

By C. C. Young.
 Among recent arrivals were: Mrs. Lizzie Langford, Hanna, Wyo.; H. C. Derring, Dillon, Mont.; Monroe Wallace, New York. Mr. Ed. Nobles, who was hurt some three months ago while working at the O. S. L. shops, received a check for $146.75, payment in full from the Occidental Life & Accident Co. of California. The R. R. boys gave a supper and dance at the Mike Gates hall the evening of the 29th, although the crowd did not gather before 11:30 p. m. and I am informed they did not leave before 7 a. m., the 21st. I will be around every Monday evening with the Kansas City Sun, so have your nickels ready. No papers sold on credit. Mr. Monroe Wallace, well known Pocatello boy, returned from overseas on the 13th and is looking the picture of health. He was with the 36th Infantry and 92d Division. He was in action in the following named places over in France: Muse, Argonne, St. Del Sector, Vosges, Marbache Sector, and Metz Front. He brought home a good collection of foreign coins. It is very interesting to hear Mr. Wallace tell of his experience over in the land of Nod. Mrs. Georgia Bush, formerly of this city, but now of Ourland, Ore., passed through Pocatello this week, enroute from Portland to Kansas City, Mo. She was met by the following ladies: Mrs. Paul Alexander, Mrs. Rev. Leggett, Mrs. Taidy Nay, Mrs. C. D. Parker and Mrs. Mable Brown.

LATHROP, MO.

Regimental Sergeant Raymond R. Whitsett, son of Mrs. Addie Whitsett Kidd, arrived in Lathrop Sunday. He and his brother-in-law, Sergeant James L. Smith, received a great welcome by the people of Lathrop of both Races. Mr. and Mrs. Kidd entertained in honor of Sergeant Whitsett and Sergeant James Smith Sunday at dinner Mrs. Beatrice McLofan of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powell, Sr., and Mr. Sam Mitchell. Corporal Edward Harris of St. Joseph is now the guest of Miss Dollie Johnson. Mrs. Miller Harden was a Kansas City visitor Monday. Mrs. Lucy Capps of Liberty spent Wednesday with Mrs. Henry Hicks. Mr. Turner Graham and his brother, Junior, returned home last week. Messrs. John Tillman, Edward Jackson, Jeffer Morris, McKinley Tapp, Turner Graham, Clyde Ligon, Ely Wilson and Mrs. Eugie Mae Weston, Mrs. Goldie Ligon, Miss Erner Andress, and Christina Miller motored to Plattsburg Monday night to attend Nay Brothers Minstrel. Mrs. Beatrice McLofan of Kansas City visited her father, Pete Vining, Sunday, who was hurt last week by a runaway team. Harold J. Hicks and Mrs. S. W. Whitsett are on the sick list.

SALINA, KANSAS.

Miss Helen Martin, Hill City, Kas., and Mr. Ernest Fulbright, Salina, Kans., were united in marriage Saturday evening, March 22d at the home of the groom by Rev. O. H. Burbridge. Mrs. Fulbright has been in the city several weeks with friends. Mr. Fulbright recently received his discharge from service. The couple will be at home here for the present. Congratulations to the newlyweds and may they spend many happy and prosperous years together in the future. The K. of P. Lodge held its annual sermon Sunday afternoon at 3:15 at the St. John Baptist Church. A short program, consisting of a vocal trio by Miss Bryant, Mr. Jordan and Miss Cole and a vocal solo by Miss Kazee was rendered just before Rev. O. H. Burbridge delivered the message of the afternoon. Mr. Elie Finch who has been quite ill, is reported a little improved at present. We all wish him a speedy recovery. Miss R. Urps, Junction City, Kans., was the guest of Mrs. Essie Thompson Ross a few days this week. Rev. O. H. Burbridge spent Wednesday and Thursday in Wichita on business.

ROSEDALE, KANS.

Rev. George T. Wooten delivered his last sermon as pastor of Wesley Chapel M. E. Church Sunday afternoon. His sermon was soul stirring and was enjoyed by all. He is attending the Conference in Manhattan, Kans., this week and will retire from pastoring churches permanently. Mr. and Mrs. P. Randolph, 124 Westport Ave., announce the birth of their daughter, March 11th to whom they have given the name, Edith Fae. Mother and daughter are doing nicely. Rev. William Phant preached at the Progressive Baptist Church, Kansas City, Mo., Wednesday evening. Brother Phant is one of our young ministers and we wish him much success.

TOPEKA, KANSAS.

Mrs. Virginia E. Guy is visiting her sons and stepdaughter in Arkansas. Notwithstanding the great overflowing of East Topeka and Bucknerville, so that many persons were prevented from attending church on last Sabbath, Rev. W. H. King raised $765 in his one thousand dollar rally. The Community Chorus of 250 voices led by Prof. L. P. Jackson of the Industrial Institute was a complete success. The auditorium was filled to overflowing. The work has started on the A. M. E. Church. Among those who contributed materially to the success of the Community singing were Prof. and Mrs. R. G. Jackson of Kansas City.
