MANHATTAN, KANSAS.

Mrs. Charity Gibson, who for the past two months has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Rosa Harvey, in Eudora, Kan., returned Friday. The body of Mr. N. Mitchell was brought home from Billings, Mont., Friday. His funeral was held Sunday at Shepherd Chapel. Sunday was the third quarterly meeting at Bethel A. M. E. Church and services were largely attended. The pastor preached the morning sermon, subject "The Last Message." Rev. Byrd, the Baptist Evangelist, presided in the afternoon, and his subject was "Get Acquainted With Jesus." The Presiding Elder preached an inspiring sermon after which a large number partook of Communion in the evening. Rev. Henderson, with the assistance of the Evangelist, Mrs. Etta Scott McCurry, has been conducting a series of meetings. Mrs. Winn and Mr. Wilson have united with Rev. Henderson's church. Miss Hattie E. Reynolds has been called to her home in Colorado Springs on account of the serious illness of her mother. Miss Ruth Gorderhire spent one day at her home last week. Mrs. William Wesley after having undergone an operation at Charlotte Swift Hospital, has returned to her home at 924 Riley street, and is now doing nicely. Mrs. Lois Smith, en route to her home in Rosedale, Kan., from Fort Riley, stopped over and went with Mrs. Maggie Jones to McFarland Saturday. Mrs. Jones spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Robert Pryor. Mrs. P. B. Harrison has returned from Herrington, Kan., where she visited a week with her mother. Misses Ada and Augusta Bradley spent a day last week with their cousin, Mrs. Robert Pryor.

WELLINGTON, MO.

Mrs. Walker, who has been very ill, is doing nicely now, also Mr. Allen Price is doing well. The chicken supper, given by Mrs. Brown, was a success. The people of Wellington, Mo., are near a financial panic due from the closing of the mines. Miss Gwendoline Jackson is in Wellington this week on business. The program given by the Christian Endeavor Sunday night was great. Our president, Mr. Grant Page, held the house spellbound for twenty minutes with his wonderful address. Our quartette was good. Selections by Mrs. Bell Cary, Frest Williams, Mrs. Lucy Page were great and the reading by Miss Ethel Cary was fine. The question box could not be beaten. Our quartet will appear again soon. Mr. Linard Slaughter, Hicks, O. Slaughter and C. A. Long compose the quartette. Our Endeavor hopes to do greater work.
