Orders out of the city 25c extra for postage.

March 21, 1918. Having bought a bottle of Mackey's Liniment of Miss Tooley and tried it for rheumatism on my son, found it all that was needed. I will recommend it to any one for sore throats or neuralgia. MRS. N. M. HENDERSON, 1522 Virginia.

Dear Sir: I have used only one bottle of the Mackey's Liniment during the illness of my wife with the Influenza Disease and I must say that it brought her through safely. MRS. NEWTON McGHEE, 1510 Barber Ave., Memphis, Tenn.

Dear Agent: I had been suffering a month with my back and nothing gave any ease, but the Mackey's Liniment, as sure I will keep it in my home at all times. MRS. ELLA COOK, 514 Williams Ave.

FRANKFORT, MO. Robert A. Martin, second son of Austin and Catherine Martin, deceased, was born in December, 1854, in Roanoke, Bedford County, Virginia, and was separated from his parents when about six years old in company with his older brother, George, and grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Moss. He came to Missouri more than forty years ago and has resided in Frankfort ever since. Robert A. Martin was an exceptional man; his life and examples have made an impression upon this community which will long be remembered. He was united in marriage to Miss Louisa A. Wheeler at Louisiana, Mo., September 28, 1882. To this union was born ten children, four girls and six boys, of which five of the latter have preceded him to the great beyond. He was an honest, upright and loyal citizen, always willing and ready to aid in every noble cause for the advancement of the community in which he lived. While not a member of any church he thought much good could be accomplished by being good and doing good. He was a member of Guiding Star Lodge, No. 130, A. F. & A. M., of Frankfort, Mo. He was secretary of that order for a period of twenty-six years. He became ill February 24, with a severe spell of acute indigestion and all that loving hands could do was done but other complications developed, and he peacefully passed away April 7 at the age of 65 years. He leaves to mourn his loss a dear wife, two sons, George W. and Austin, and six daughters, five sons-in-law: Mrs. E. L. Stevenson of Camden, Mo.; John Combs of Louisiana; Mrs. Etta Campbell of Vandalia; Mrs. N. Todd of LaGrange; Mrs. Ina R. Hunter of Palmyra, and Miss Zella B. Martin, all of whom were present at his demise save Mrs. Etta Campbell.

Besides these he leaves four grandchildren and a host of friends. His funeral was preached by Rev. A. L. Lovell, pastor of the A. M. E. Church. It was largely attended by his friends from Hannibal, New London, Bowling Green, Salt River, Louisiana and Frankfort. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Resolutions were read by Mrs. C. P. Covington on behalf of the Eastern Star Chapter; Mrs. B. K. Bruce in behalf of the A. M. E. Sunday School and Mr. Cassie Welch in behalf of Guiding Star Lodge, No. 130.

FARMINGTON, MO. Mrs. Fannie D. Baker, wife of Charles Baker, passed into the Great Beyond early Saturday morning, April 12, after an illness of more than a year. Had she lived until the dawn of another day she would have reached the forty-third milestone of her life. But the Master summoned her to a brighter dawn. Mr. and Mrs. Baker were united in holy matrimony September 28, 1898, and to this union were added six children, all of whom survive her, also the husband, mother, brother and one sister and many other relatives. The funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon at St. Paul M. E. Church with her pastor, Rev. J. G. McCallister, officiating. Queen of Honor No. 38, Order of Eastern Star, and Maude C. Clark, Order of Calanthe, of which she had held the offices of Matron, Royal Matron and Worthy Counselor, respectively, paid honorable tribute to the deceased. The Bank of Farmington, in whose employ Mr. Baker has been for more than thirty years, closed Monday and the entire staff of officers attended the funeral. The deceased was a woman of noble character, such as is needed to mother a home. She has been a Christian since her childhood and for weeks before the end came she planned her business matters so that when the end came she could be ready to wholly surrender. She was well aware that the end of her pilgrimage was near. She expressed herself as being happy to know that she would soon inherit the promised reward for the faithful. Death to her was only sleep.

WELLINGTON, MO. The Easter service at the A. M. E. Church Sunday was the greatest for years. Rev. C. A. Long was at his best Sunday morning and the Easter program Sunday night was the same, directed by Mrs. Lucy Page and husband, Lucie Brown, Mrs. Emma Price and Rev. C. A. Long. The young men and women of our town played their part in helping to make this program a success. We pray God's blessing upon them. Rev. C. A. Long, our dear and beloved pastor, held the audience spellbound for about ten minutes with his wonderful recitation, "The Crucifixion of Christ." The recitation recited by Mrs. Anna Price, the paper rendered by Mrs. Stella Deafover and the recitation recited by Miss Ruth Hanna were grand. Rev. Frank Bateman, the new pastor of M. E. Church, was at his post Sunday. Mrs. Sallie Walker is rapidly improving. She is able to do her work. Mr. William Hawkins of Kansas City, Mo., spent Easter with his mother-in-law, Mrs. Laura Triplett. Mrs. Lue Lastin of Rosedale, Kansas, spent Easter with her mother, Mrs. Lucy Martin. Mr. Allen Price is on the mending list.

CARROLLTON, MO. By W. A. Alexander. Mrs. Allen Birdwhistle of Kansas City is visiting relatives and friends here this week. Mrs. Pentin Goodwin of St. Joseph, Mo., is here visiting relatives and friends for a few days. Dr. W. H. Gatlin and wife and Mr. Arthur Sanford and wife spent Easter in Dewitt this week the guest of Mrs. Sanford's grandfather, Mr. A. Johnson of Kansas City and Miss Leota Bates of Carrollton was married at noon Monday, April 11, at the residence of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bates. She is quite an accomplished young lady and we wish for them a long and happy life. Their home will be in Kansas City. Several young people from Norborne were here in autos spending Easter. Several of our young people visited in Norborne Easter. Mr. Charles Brown of Excelsior Springs, Mo., and Miss Elizabeth Dorsey were united in holy matrimony at the home of her father and mother East Sunday at 4:30 o'clock. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dorsey and was very accomplished. They left immediately for Kansas City and then for Excelsior Springs their future home.

NORBORNE, MO. W. M. Mays, a young soldier who recently returned from overseas, gave an excellent talk Sunday evening at the A. M. E. Church, describing the movements of his regiment upon the battlefields of France while charging against the Germans. Misses Hattie and Sadie Peeler attended the wedding of Miss Myrtle Allen of Richmond, Mo., last week. Miss Maggie Harris and Miss Bernice Pendleton of Warrenton, Mo., are visiting their relatives here. Mr. John Marlow, an energetic and successful business man, owns and conducts a first class pantatorium. Messrs. Jacobs, Slaughter, Byron and Walker are men who believe in industry, progress and right-living. An excellent Easter program was rendered Sunday evening at the A. M. E. Church. Mrs. Ewing of Richmond, Mo., and a number of others attended the Easter services. The collections were good.

MRS. R. H. TERRELL GOES TO INTERNATIONAL MEET. Washington, D. C., April 19.—Mrs. Mary Church Terrell who served as a member of the board of education of this city for eleven years, has gone to Berne, Switzerland, as a delegate to the International Congress of Women which will convene there May 5. Mrs. Terrell left Washington Friday night last for New York accompanied by her daughters, Miss Mary Terrell and Mrs. Phyllis Goines, and Lieut. William C. Goines, who will remain with her in New York until she sails on Wednesday, April 24th. Mrs. Terrell is the only colored woman of the forty delegates selected to represent this country at the congress. The State Department would only grant passports to twelve of them, however, Mrs. Post, ish wife of Assistant Secretary of Labor Louis Post; Miss Jane Adams of Hull House, Chicago, and ex-Congressman Jeannette Rankin will also sail on Wednesday. It will be recalled that Mrs. Terrell attended the congress when it was held in Berlin fifteen years ago, and she delivered her address in German.

Mr. A. G. Tutt of Joplin, Mo., who is in Company M, 905th P. I., writes: "I certainly regret that I was unable to attend the Spring Convocation this year. I wish to be remembered by all my friends."

A LABELLE DIPLOMA IS POSITIVELY THE ROYAL ROAD TO SUCCESS AND HAPPINESS

WHY? Because any hairdresser holding a La Belle Diploma can successively prove to the people that they can grow hair, because they treat the scalp scientifically, regardless of the condition of the hair. It matters not how thin the hair may be, how kinky, they know just how and what to do.

FOR THE NEXT SIXTY DAYS The LaBelle College is going to give the Full Course of Hair and Scalp Culture for $15, with a complete outfit of goods to begin work. Remember, anyone taking the La Belle Method treats anybody's scalp—white, black, red or any color—because they get seven different methods of treatment.

The LaBelle Preparation Knows no Equal and Has No Superior. Guaranteed to cure any scalp disease and positively grows the hair long, abundant and beautiful. Don't Despair if You Have Tried the Rest Without Success, Now Try the Best Remember, at the LaBelle College you can learn any course in Beauty Culture But HAIR CULTURE FIRST, because "a woman's hair is her glory." Don't worry any more about the quality and quantity of hair you have, but go The LaBelle Way A Course through mail or at the College. Hurry, hurry the next sixty days because "The LaBelle Way" knows no failure.
