

Among the Churches

ST. PAUL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. N. T. Lane, Pastor.
At 2:30 p. m. the Sir Knights and Daughters of Tabor of the Grand Temple and Tabernacle, led by Sir A. R. Chinn, C. G. M., of Glasgow, Mo., will form a line of march at their hall on Vine Street to the church. All Daughters will form a line at the church. All Sir Knights and Daughters are asked to be in line. A great time will be had. Rev. C. C. Calloway, D.D., will preach the sermon and his choir will sing for the service.

NEW HOPE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. At 11 a. m. the pastor preached, using for a subject "Signal Light". At 3:30 the pastor and church attended the mass meeting at Independence, Mo., which closed a successful session of the Shiloh Baptist District Association, having raised $1,699.59. Rev. S. W. Toles was elected vice-moderator. At 6:30, B. Y. P. U. At 7:45, the pastor again preached, using for a subject, "In Thy Presence Is Fullness of Joy; at the Right Pleasures Forever More." It was indeed a wonderful sermon. The pastor was at his best and our hearts were made to rejoice. All are asked to attend the Circle on Thursday at 3 o'clock. We are very much encouraged with the success, under the leadership of Sister Wisley. Come and help us make it the best Circle in the city. We invite strangers to make our church your home and hear this able speaker.

CAIN MEMORIAL A. M. E. CHURCH.

Our services were well attended last Sunday. The pastor preached from the subject, "Freedom from Self-Condensation." The sermon seemed to please all that were present. We were so pleased to see so many visitors present at both of the services. Rev. Clinton of Speed, Mo., is here with us and preached to the delight of all that heard him last Monday night and he will preach every night because he is a good preacher. Revs. Gooden, Stone and Sutton were with us Monday night. Sunday, August 31, will be Quarterly Meeting. Rev. R. Clinton will preach at 11 a. m. Rev. Davis, D.D., pastor of the Mother Church, will preach for us at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time we are asking and looking for the pastors, members and friends of the city. This is our last Quarter for this Conference year and we need your help.

VINE STREET BAPTIST CHURCH.

All services were well attended with four additions. Mrs. Georgia Graham of 1642 Norton Avenue has been sick for two weeks and is no better at this writing. She will go to Bell Hospital, August 24th for treatment. We hope she will soon recover. Mr. Irve Johnson is still very sick at this writing. We hope he will soon recover. Mr. Jas. Miller of Oakland, Calif., visited all services, and we were indeed glad to have him with us and hope he will visit us again. Prof. J. R. E. Lee of the Lincoln High School visited also and made one of those stirring addresses, taking for his subject, "The Duty of Parents to Their Children." It was a great talk. We hope he will visit us again in the near future. Mrs. Lillian Long was at morning services. Her many friends were glad to see her. Mrs. Henrietta Nelson was very much pleased with her new home at 1322 1/2 Wyandotte Street. Total amount of money taken up at the rally was $245.93.

SECOND BAPTIST CHURCH.

An unusually large congregation gave the pastor, Dr. Baetz, a welcome greeting upon his return from a 3-week vacation to the Southland where he has been enjoying a much needed rest. The pastor preached a grand sermon last Sunday morning which was enjoyed by all. In the evening services Dr. Carpenter of Brooklyn, N. Y., preached a fine illustrated sermon on "The Love and Friendship of a True Knight" to a large number of delegates who were here to attend the meeting of the Supreme Grand Lodge of K. of P., which was in session here last week. The B. Y. P. U. Coral Society, under the direction of Mrs. Reeves, furnished excellent music for the services in the Auditorium last Sunday evening. During the day there were eight additions to the church. The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. are progressing nicely. The Community Chorus meets every Wednesday evening in connection with the prayer meeting. Come out and join. The Mission Circle meets every Friday evening at 2 p. m. The general public is invited to attend all of our services. Come to church.

ST. JOHN A. M. E. CHURCH.

Rev. J. C. Bell, Pastor.
Services at St. John were well attended. The day being Quarterly Meeting the last of this conference year, members and friends did their best, the effort being a grand one. All reports were round and full, which was quite encouraging to the membership. Mr. McGill, one of the old members of St. John, was able to be at church Sunday morning. Mrs. E. G. Harris and two children of 3943 1/2 Fairfax Avenue, St. Louis, are visiting at Hotel Cummings. Mrs. W. G. Flynn of Jefferson City, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. Ruth Carlyle, and Miss Norlene Evans, was a visitor at the parsonage Monday. Mrs. Rosa Simmons, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Chicago, has returned home to the delight of her many friends. Mrs. L. Brown was in attendance at church Sunday. General Class and Love Feast was held at the church Monday night. Many enjoyed a spiritual blessing. Mrs. M. J. Hill, who was struck on the shoulder by a motor truck, is very much improved. Mrs. N. T. Woods of Batesville, Ark., was a visitor at church Sunday. Services at the regular hour. If you have no church home, come and make this one yours. You are welcome.

BETHEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

A large congregation greeted Pastor Dawson last Sunday morning and listened with interest to a great discourse on the Biblical mode of baptism. Many who heard the sermon declared that they never heard a better discourse upon the subject. One person was baptized and two united with the church. Bethel is the place to go Sunday morning if you are looking for food for the soul. There you will find it. The Sunday School is in good shape and the little ones seem to be more interested than before. Little Dorothy Williams won the prize last Sunday for giving the best description of Paul's first missionary journey. The Endeavor is growing both in interest and attendance. Mr. Irving Smith has returned from overseas and has taken hold of the work and is pushing it to success.

Rev. Jordan Allen preached for Pastor Dawson and congregation at the evening service; all enjoyed the sermon very much. Many of Bethel's best members are away this week attending the Grand Lodge at Omaha. Next Sunday is Women's Day at Bethel, and the women are trying to put the fence up so high that when the Men's Day comes they will not be able to excel them: will you come and help the women go over the top? Help them by worshipping with us Sunday.

The choir under the management of Mr. William Melford is doing some fine singing these days; it is a pleasure to sit and listen to them; come next Sunday and hear them. The pastor and members invite you to their services at all times, where you will find polite ushers, good singing and preaching.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Corner 19th and Grove Streets.

Rev. James S. Anderson, Pastor.
At 10 a. m. the Sunday School was opened and the lesson well taught. The pastor preached a powerful sermon in the morning service, subject, "Will a Man Rob God?" The covenant meeting in the evening was well attended. In the evening service Rev. D. St. Clair, pastor of the St. John Baptist Church, was with us and preached a powerful sermon. We invite him to call again. Sunday was the beginning of our rally and the following persons gave the amount opposite their names:
Brother Stanton $5.00
Brother Frair 1.00
Rev. J. I. Davis 1.25
Rev. L. C. McQueen 1.00
Sister Frances Pierce 3.05
Sister Mae Belle Dennis 1.10
Sister Mary Stanton 6.00
Sister Belle Woods 5.50
Sister Mary Pollard 1.00
Sister Ida Dennis 6.25
Sister White50
and many others too numerous to mention. The pastor delivered an interesting lecture last Tuesday night at the Vine Street Baptist Church, subject, "Constructive and Destructive Negroes." The Mt. Olive choir sang to the satisfaction of all present. Our pastor will leave next week for Norfolk, Va., to attend the National Baptist Convention. Mrs. Ida B. Boyd, president of our B. Y. P. U., is on the sick list, hence was absent last Sunday. Come to our Sunday School and learn about God and His cause. Read the Sun and learn about the Nation and the Colored Race.

EBENEZER CHURCH.

By Mrs. Ona B. Wilson.
The services at Ebenezer were wonderfully inspiring Sunday morning. The sermon was preached so forcibly and practical that the hearts of all burned within and many were restrained to come to Christ. So powerful are the sermons preached by Rev. W. T. Osborne that men and women are stricken in sin and asks them to come forward and accept Christ as their personal Savior and Ebenezer as their church home. Sunday evening sermon was preached by the Rev. Mrs. T. Moten, founder of the School of Expression in St. Louis. The subject of her sermon was "The Unparalleled Love of God." Mrs. Moten is a wonderful speaker and all enjoyed the sermon. Mrs. Christine Simms entertained the Who-So-Ever-Will Board. Mrs. Mary Strickland entertained the United-We-Stand Club. Mrs. Ida Vaughn entertained the Improvement Board. The Willing Workers' Club was entertained by Mrs. Lula Albridge. The Deacons Board will be entertained by Mrs. Anna J. Morris. The Junior Stewardess Board met at the residence of Mrs. Anna Williams and was beautifully served. All the clubs of Ebenezer are alive and are endeavoring to make this year the best of previous ones. The Endeavor at Ebenezer is rapidly growing. Some of the best talent of the city is on the program each Sunday evening. Under the leadership of Mrs. Olivia Moore, our District President, we expect great results and have so far had them. If you would be inspired; if you would be brought closer to God and man. Come to Ebenezer, send your children to Sunday School and watch the results. Miss Gladys Smith, president Junior Circle, Mrs. Ona B. Wilson, Mr. Fred Elma Terrell were the guests of Miss Lucile Parker, 1299 Vine Street, Tuesday evening for dinner. Miss Rosy Alexander of Topeka, Kas., is the guest of Mrs. Bessie Mason. Brother Bruce, leader of Class No. 7, was banner this week. Mrs. Thomas Jones, sister-in-law of Mrs. Bruce, and Mrs. Ples Umphres of Booneville, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce at 1306 Vine Street.

ALLEN CHAPEL.

A large and appreciative audience assembled in Allen Chapel Sunday morning and listened to the very able and inspiring sermon delivered by the minister, Dr. Wm. H. Thomas, on "Possessing Our Possessions." Dr. Thomas is one of the most scholarly ministers of the day, and is now rounding out his sixth year at Allen Chapel, the members of which are loathe to see him go. At present he is devoting his entire energy to the liquidating of the mortgage debt, which is now less than $1,000.00. The Hon. N. C. Crews, in eloquent terms, impressed upon the congregation the necessity of giving to the limit. The members and friends alike caught the inspiration; spontaneously giving more than $300.00, many of those having paid their pledges, some doubling and trebling. Sister Louise McDonald, stationed at the blackboard, kept account of the amount given. The church is greatly indebted to its women workers to those who have worked untiringly and unceasingly. They have not only given their dollars, but their time and energy likewise. "The Holy Supper is kept in use in whatsoever we share in another's need. Not what we give, but what we share for the gift without the giver is bare." It was cool and inviting out on the lawn opposite the church, where the evening service was held. The choir was at its best and Dr. Thomas delivered a fine sermon, short, but instructive. During the day there were three additions. Interesting sessions were held by the Christian Endeavors. Sunday School is growing in numbers and inspiration. Class is being largely attended. Class No. 8 was first on the honor roll, with No. 6 second and No. 7 third. Prayer meeting Thursday nights. The next session of the Southwest Missouri Annual Conference will meet in Allen Chapel Wednesday morning, October 8th. Friends and visitors are cordially invited to attend all our services.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The attendance the last two Sundays was poor. However, the work in the Bible school is fine and the church services very helpful. While the choir is taking its vacation the congregation is well using its church at the singing. The congregational singing, for a change, is helpful and distributes the responsibility of the services. The Bible School, Mrs. Alphin, superintendent, is busy at work on their program for their best Convention year's work. Mrs. J. T. Watkins and Miss Alice Whiteside have consented to be teachers of the Junior and Intermediate girls. Mr. J. H. Cooper, a returned soldier, is leading the Endeavors this year. The Aid Society is on a vacation and the president, Mrs. A. J. Lewis, is visiting relatives and friends in St. Joseph. Mrs. Samuel Barnes, who had a successful operation at Wheatley-Pratt Hospital, is now at home, 2715 Highland avenue, much improved. Mrs. Moses Stevens, who also had an operation at Douglas Hospital, is now at home, 1808 Howard, doing fine. Mrs. John Clark of Hennessey, Okla., a classmate of Mrs. Alphin, was a visitor at the parsonage last week. Mrs. Clark is the widow of the late Mr. John Clark, who was one of the prosperous farmers, stock raisers and land owners of Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Alphin leave Monday to attend the National Christian Convention at Nashville, Tenn. Next Sunday, August 31st, the program for the future work of the fall and winter will be submitted and all members are requested to be present.

GALILEE BAPTIST CHURCH.

At 9:30 a. m. Sunday School was as good as usual. At 11 a. m. Rev. S. M. Materson preached a good sermon. At 6:30 p. m. B. Y. P. U. was very good. At 9:30 p. m. Rev. Gooch, from Houston, Texas, preached a good sermon. Wednesday, the 29th, Rev. C. B. Crooks preached a soul stirring sermon. We were glad to see Sister Lillian Burgett, the Secretary of our Sunday School, return from visiting her father and relatives in Jefferson City, Mo. All the old members are invited back again.

WARD CHAPEL A. M. E. CHURCH.

1120 Woodland Avenue.

Rev. J. F. Sage, Pastor.

Sunday was a great day at Ward Chapel. A full house greeted the pastor Sunday morning. Rev. Sage was at his best both morning and night. There was one addition. Collection was fine—$47.10. The choir was at its best. Ward Chapel choir is noted for its music. Mr. C. J. Skinner and members of the choir are preparing for a big musical. Watch for the date. The Sunday School was good. In the absence of our Superintendent, A. U. Davis, teacher of class No. 3, acted as Superintendent. Class No. 5, known as the Cradle Roll, Mrs. M. Duncan, teacher, was banner class for collection and attendance. This is the largest class in Sunday School. Too much cannot be said of the teacher, Mrs. Duncan, who is bringing these little tots out. The Allen Christian Endeavor League was well attended. Miss Gertrude Atkins, leader, Mr. Davis is doing great work in this A. C. E. League at Ward Chapel. The What-So-Ever Club entertained at the parsonage 1606 East 10th street, Thursday. Mrs. J. F. Sage left Friday for Parsons, Kas., to visit her daughter and other relatives. We all wish Mrs. Sage a good and much needed rest. Too much praise cannot be given to our pastor's dear wife, Ward Chapel feels very proud or her. The sick is reported doing fine and all on the road to recovery. Rev. Sage is all smiles and if you ask him why, he will say, "Dollar Money is coming in fine." Everybody is eager to get their Dollar Money in by the third Sunday in September. Watch Ward Chapel grow in lead of all Kansas City churches especially in Dollar Money and Educational Money.

Twin City Baptist Young Ministers' Alliance met in their regular meeting Monday night, July 25th at 17th and Tracy. Meeting was called to order by Rev. B. C. Cosby, president, and business transacted, after which Rev. S. Cramer preached a very powerful sermon from Revelations 20:12. All present were made to rejoice. The young ministers are improving nicely with Rev. J. C. Patten as their instructor. The ladies of the Art and Educational Club will have for their instructor Mrs. J. C. Patten. They ask the Alliance for co-operation. Meet the Alliance Monday night, September 1, at Friendship Hall, 17th and Tracy.
