

HOSE COMPANY NO. 11 BANQUET

The gayest and most elaborate banquet in the history of Hose Company No. 11 was given Saturday night in honor of Sgt. Leo Steele, a member of their company who recently returned from overseas. Their well kept and spacious quarters at 1812 Vine street were artistically decorated for the occasion. Promptly at 10:00 o'clock the guests headed by Sgt. Steele and his mother, Mrs. Courtney Steele were escorted by the entertaining committee from the reception room to the gymnasium where under the folds of American flags beautifully designed into the figure 11 their thirst was quenched with some of the most refreshing and most delicious punch ever put to the lips of man made by Mrs. M. C. Mitchell of the Mitchell and Abernathy Floral Company and served by Mesdames J. Todd and Mrs. C. Suedaker. From the gymnasium they were taken into the banquet hall where they beheld a table beautifully decorated with fragrant flowers and seemingly laden with an inexhaustible supply of ham, chicken, salads, olives, coffee, ice cream and cakes palatable for the most fastidious and it goes without saying that was equal to the occasion. Having assembled around the banquet table, the following program was rendered: Invocation, Lieutenant Simpson; Welcome Address, Capt. John Todd; Address, Pres. E. King; Paper, Post Kennedy, subject 'Sgt. Steele as a Fireman'; Quotation, Jno. Kennedy; Remarks, H. Davis; Address, T. H. Elliott, subject 'The Past'; Address, E. G. Lacey, subject 'The Present'; Address, A. Smith, subject 'The Future'; Address, Sgt. Steele, 'The Happenings Since We Last Met.' At the conclusion of the program the company upon the suggestions of President King decided for the betterment of their literary attainments to go into a permanent organization. Just before leaving President King presented Mesdames Steele, Osborne and White with a bouquet in commemoration of the event. Long live Hose Co. No. 11.

N. A. A. C. P.'S SECRETARY ASSAULTED. Austin, Tex., Aug. 22.—John R. Shillady of New York, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was severely beaten in front of his hotel here today and ordered to catch the first train out of town. The beating was administered by several men following a meeting held with Negroes by Shillady. He agreed to leave town at once.

Austin has a branch of 500 members which had been doing able work in co-operation with the State Department in relation to the recent outbreak at Longview, Tex. Every effort will be made to secure retribution for this outrageous assault upon one of the ablest national executives in the United States.

MASONS HOLD GREAT SESSION.

Last week at Sedalia, Mo., the Masonic brethren from all over the jurisdiction came in large numbers to the sitting of the Grand Lodge. Despite the fact that many were the heated discussions throughout the sessions, peace and harmony prevailed throughout and a great deal of interest was manifested by the more than four hundred delegates.

The officers elected were: Crittenden C. Clark, St. Louis, Mo., Grand Master; Dr. R. Leon Hill, Boonville, Mo., Grand Secretary; Willis G. Mosely, Kansas City, Relief Secretary; Harry H. Walker, St. Joseph, Mo., Grand Treasurer.

OUR MOTTO.

A motto is nothing but an expressed purpose or aim. It directs and makes energy. It gives life a meaning. Whether it be the life of a banker, baker, or shoemaker it must always be in progression. It must always purpose to do more and better than in time past. Fully conscious of this fact the Banks Electric Shoe Shop adopted a motto "For the Good of Our Sole." And seeing our inability to handle our increasing patronage we gladly secured the service of Mr. Irving Smith, an efficient shoe repairer. We have beautified the interior of our shop, improved our stock of material and purchased new fixtures for our electric machinery in order to do more and better than in time past. Therefore we recommend you to take care of your sole, for we are prepared to take off "Your sole" from 7:30 A. M. to 7:30 P. M., closing Saturdays at 10:30 P. M. L. E. J. C. Banks, Proprietor.

WORLD WORKERS

Cotton pickers are so scarce in Mississippi that a price of $2 per 100 pounds is being offered.

Of the total number of workers on January 1, 1918, in the mines in France, 12.8 per cent were women.

Conductresses in Hamburg have refused to give up their jobs unless the state guarantees them husbands.

Yorkshire, England, textile workers ask income tax authorities to award wage earners an exemption of not less than $25 a year for clothes torn and destroyed in their work.

Increased benefits under the workmen's compensation law and state-administered health insurance are included in the legislative measures introduced by the Kansas Federation of Labor.

The majority of textile workers of Lancashire, England, are women. They also form the majority of the trade union membership and receive the same rates of pay for the same work as men.

THE NEW FOOD LAW WILL BE DRASTIC

Agricultural Committee Adopts Amendment Providing Jail Sentence for Profiteers.

WILL PUNISH HOARDERS, TOO

House and Senate Urged to Hurry Action in Order to Quiet Unrest Throughout Country.

Washington.—The first tangible result of the administration's appeal for legislation to strengthen the hand of the government in its crusade against the H. C. L. came when the House committee on agriculture drafted an amendment to the food control act to carry out suggestions from the President and Attorney General including a provision making it possible to send food hoarders and profiteers to jail. The amendment, which extends the scope of the control act to include wearing apparel, food, fertilizer and containers of food, and revises the profiteering section, was submitted to the House by Representative Haugen, chairman of the committee.

Will Make Immediate Report.

As soon as it is formally referred, Mr. Haugen said, the committee will be ready to report it back immediately with a recommendation for its enactment.

One salient feature of the proposal gives the President power to "find what is just, reasonable, nondiscriminatory and fair or nonwasteful storage charge, accumulation profit or storage."

The penalty provision which the President said was essential for a successful war against profiteering makes possible a fine of $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than two years or both for profiteers, food hoarders, and others who violate any provision of the law.

Quicker Action is Demanded.

Quicker action by Congress in the campaign to reduce the cost of living was urged on the Senate and House. Senator Wash declared high prices were at the bottom of all the unrest and charged that Congress was wasting time when something should have been done already in response to President Wilson's recommendations.

Mayors of New Jersey cities appearing before the House agriculture committee said action was needed at once to stop the rising scale of prices. Regulation of imports was one means suggested.

TURN POLICE INTO SOLDIERS

American Authorities at Coblenz Declare Peace Treaty Already is Being Evaded by Germany.

Coblenz.—Militarization of German police, contrary to the terms of the treaty of peace, has already begun, according to information reaching American authorities. In the city of Cassel the police were recently completely organized on military lines by the Prussian government, it is said, and now are equipped with steel helmets and rifles and follow the routine of a military company in their barracks. Of the three hundred state police in office in Cassel, one hundred have elected to be transferred to the new organization, and the remainder have been given places in the civil service.

FIRE INSURANCE RATES DOWN

State Superintendent Travis Announces a Decrease of 10 Per Cent Throughout Kansas.

Frank L. Travis, superintendent of insurance, announced recently a 10 per cent reduction in the cost of fire insurance throughout Kansas. This was accomplished by the removal of the war surcharge of 10 per cent added to every fire insurance policy written in the state, except upon farm risks.

The surcharge actually was removed August 1, and the collections under it for the first eleven days of the month are to be returned to the policy holders. The removal was accomplished through an agreement made by the superintendent of insurance with J. M. Thomas, head of the Fire Association of Philadelphia, representing the fire insurance companies. The surcharge went into effect November 9, 1918, and Mr. Travis ordered it removed April 1. The companies then brought a suit to prevent the enforcing of this order and the suit has been pending for four months and could not be reached for trial before January.

Kansas schools must be utilized more for preparation of lessons. This is the edict given by Miss Blanche Lorraine E. Wooster, state superintendent. She would have more "teaching how to study" and more emphasis on the three R's. The homes of pupils and the street are not supposed to provide the necessary equipment for the proper preparation of lessons and do not do so. Miss Wooster stated: "School rooms should be free from the noise, question box and talking teacher. A happy day and a better educational future will arise when all teachers and instructors realize they have been employed to teach the pupils how to study, how to do things, how to get information from their books and how to get information elsewhere.
