students at Western University died after a brief illness superinduced by the flu last Friday night and was buried from the Allen Chapel of Quindaro last Tuesday. The funeral was largely attended by the faculty, student body and friends of the family; floral offerings were both beautiful and profuse. Only a few weeks before her final illness Miss Inez was baptized into Allen Chapel and was one of the best teachers in their Sunday School. The Sun extends its deepest sympathy to the family.

The Electric Washer That's Built Right
1900 Cataract

Of heavy steel and copper construction. When you put your money into a Washing Machine you want to be certain it will do the work.

- THE 1900—
- Holds more clothes than any family machine on the market.
  - Washes more cleanly and in less time.
  - Has a reversible, swinging wringer with more power than any other machine.
  - Equipped with gas burner as desired.
  - Has 1/2 horsepower motor.
  - Has no heavy cylinders to lift in and out. Only water, clothes and soap go inside the tub.
  - Is backed by the guarantee of this company as well as the manufacturer.

To try the 1900 is to buy, so we place it in your own home for free demonstration. You be the judge. If the work is satisfactory we sell it to you on our deferred payment plan.

Ask for a demonstration. See the power in the wringer. Learn how simply the machine works on the correct washing principle.
