DEAN PICKENS ON "FREDERICK DOUGLASS."

Prof. Pickens delivered a scholarly address on "Frederick Douglass" at Allen Chapel Sunday night. The heavy rain kept many away but those present enjoyed a rare treat.

The richness of his vocabulary, vividness of his word pictures, and his beautifully balanced and contrasted phrases, present to his audience unforgettable scenes in the life of this greatest Negro, born in the most abject slavery, struggling to manhood under the cruelest of masters. Finally looking down at his heels and realizing that God had given him the freedom and then threw himself into the Abolition Movement which ended in the Emancipation.

Many lessons for us were pointed out, all being summed up in the closing sentence, "If Mr. Douglass were alive today, he would be ashamed not to be a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People."

MACON, MO.

By Vivian Brown.

Rev. P. C. Crews was called out on his District last Thursday. Easter services were held at Bethel A. M. E. church Sunday until 11 o'clock; though the rain came down steadily most all day, about sixty children, came out and took part in the Easter program. Too much praise cannot be given Mrs. Floyd Ansell for her untiring efforts, assisted so nobly by Miss Virginia Ansell, Florence Night- ingale and Mrs. Ida Ansell, who never tire in their service for the church, with our leader, Rev. T. Jeff Ross, B. D. commanding. Dr. Ross chose for a text Sunday night Isaiah 22:3; subject, "Ministry of a Good Life" from which our hearts were made glad. Mrs. Marie B. Ross, our pastor's wife, was able to attend services Sunday morning; first time in five weeks and Mrs. P. C. Crews out the first time in six months. Watch Bethel grow. Sunday school entertain- ment on the 16th and Quarterly Conference May 9. Revival Services closed Wednesday night at the Vine street Baptist church, also bap- tism Wednesday evening. The meet- ing was a success spiritually and fi- nancially one hundred and three dollars was raised. The Easter pro- gram was rendered Sunday morning at the Vine and Broadway Baptist church. Mrs. Wm. Grant entertain- ed the following at dinner Sunday: Miss Katherine Grant, Miss Hortense Clark, Miss Geraldine McNutt, Miss Mary Grant, Miss Ethel Grant and Miss Irene Grant. The Stewards- es will give a Poverty Social April 30. The Sewing Circle meets at the residence of Mrs. V. A. Dodd Friday afternoon.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA.

By W. W. Mosley.

Rev. Mrs. Etta Scott Holloway be- gan a series of meetings at the A. M. E. church this Tuesday; all are in- vited to hear her. The choir of the A. M. E. church under the direction of Mrs. Georgia Flippin, rendered their Easter Cantata "Cross and Crown" Sunday night, which was very arti- stically carried out, pleasing the good crowd present. The Ladies of Man- golia Court gave a supper and enter- tainment in the Masonic Hall last Thursday night. Rev. R. A. Lower, Field Sec. of the Western Baptist Convention, enroute from St. Louis, Mo., to Alliance, Nebr., stopped over Sunday night in the City and preach- ed for Mt. Zion Baptist church Mon- day night. Mrs. A. B. Smith went to the hospital Tuesday where she will undergo a surgical operation Wednesday. Mrs. Lizzie Reid re- turned home last Tuesday from York, S. C., where she was called on account of her father's death. The people of Lincoln were very much elated over the most excellent address given by Dean Pickens on April 2, under the auspices of the N. A. A. C. P. at the School Auditorium. Rev. W. M. King returned home last week after spending about ten days in Kansas City.

A COMING CONFERENCE.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored people will hold its Eleventh Annual Conference in the city of Atlanta, Ga., this year. This is a forward step.

Selfishness, greed and the purpose of unrighteous power have been the chief agencies producing the social sickness of the world. The white South is mistaken in its conception of social duty. There is no substantial social value in a blind adherence to the traditions of a period that cre- ated and maintained the institution of chattel slavery. It is an assumption, pure and simple, which seeks to es- tablish a worthwhile instance of su- perior social instinct, in the recollec- tion of an inept and vicious main- tenance of slave and master relations under any circumstances of social situa- tions.

New and binding responsibilities have come to black and white alike. Each must do its full part in the work of world social betterment. The sun knows no race. Time knows no race. Eternity knows no race.

Let us forget, we say again, the world must be made safe for Human- ity.

A RIOT OF FUN AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Kansas City was given a treat in theatricals at the Auditorium this week where Frank Montgomery held the fort with his company of merry makers in "Hello 1919." They kept the audience in one continuous up- roar of laughter. It was a riot of fun from start to finish. "Hello 1919" will continue the balance of this week giving the last performance on Sun- day night. Beginning Monday, April 19th, Mr. Montgomery will put on his master piece, "Follies and Fancies of 1920." If you have enjoyed "Hello 1919" do not fail to see "Fol- lies and Fancies." Tickets now sell- ing.

52¢ How would YOU like a raise like this?

— and for 34 Years Work

THAT is the kind of increase in salary the minister has received. His living expenses have risen just as fast and as far as yours.

But he is paid on the average just 52 cents more per church member than he was paid 34 years ago.

The Minister Never Fails You

Every officer of the Government with a war message to deliver appealed to the ministers first of all.

But 80% of the ministers receive less income than government economists figure as a minimum for the support of an average family.

When hospitals need money they enlist the support of the ministers—and receive it.

But when sickness visits the minister or the members of his family they must be treated in a charity ward. His pay is less than a day laborer's.

8 out of every 10 ministers receive less than $20 a week—about half the pay of a mechanic.

We Pay Him Half the Wages of a Mechanic

And of these pitifully inadequate salaries, how much do you contribute? Nothing if you are outside the church; an average of less than 3c a day if you are a church member.

All of us share in the benefits of Christian ministers to the community. They marry us; bury us; baptize our children; visit us when we are sick. In their hands is the spiritual training of the youth.

We Are All Profiteers at Their Expense

Part of the Interchurch World program is this—a living wage for every minister of Jesus Christ; an efficient plant, and a chance to do a big man's job.

If you want better preachers, help to pay the preachers better. It's the best investment for your community—and for your children—that you can ever make.

"THE LIFE LINE"

Written by Monrice Tournier, the master of melodrama, and produced by the Paramount Arteraft—this alone is a guaran- tee of its merit and success. In this play the famous author has taken the plot of his mighty London Spectacle, ROMANY RYE, and produced it in the greatest photo-melodrama ever screened. It cannot be equalled for power and action.

SEE Fascinating scenes of the Gypsy trail—the London Underworld—the great London Fire—the storm at sea —the wrecking of an ocean liner—Terror—Despair—Sensation—the thriller supreme.

Robert Warwick in "Mizzoura"

Colonel Warwick cannot be excelled for his dramatic art. In this picture he is an unorthodox sheriff whose sweetheart has been deceived by a soft spoken scoundrel, who is a murderer as well. Another has been blamed for the crime and a lynching mob is howling for a victim. This picture will please the eye, thrill the blood and touch the heart.
